Old Gentleman Happy With Railroad Service

Green Bay, Wis.—(U.P.)—The old gentleman couldn't have been more pleased with the service of the North Western railroad. The 94-year-old man—no one thought to get his name—arrived at the station a few minutes after train number 120 had pulled out for Sheboygan.

While he still was contemplating his misfortune, he saw the train coming back into the station—backwards. "Okay, old-timer. Here's your train," he was told. Happy and incredulous, he got aboard. He didn't know that the diesel locomotive had failed and that the train had been backed to the Green Bay depot for repairs.

"Old Ironsides," the famed and still preserved U.S.S. Constitution, had a sister ship that was launched in 1797 and was christened the U.S.S. United States. Notoriously slow and heavy, she was nicknamed "Old Wagon" and after many rebuildings was finally scrapped in 1866.
