Damages Sought In Picket Action

Portland—(U.P.)—A suit claiming $317,500 damages was filed in Federal Court here yesterday by a Douglas county logging firm against the CIO International Woodworkers Reedsport Local 7-140.

Plaintiffs are the officers of the Firchau Logging Co. near Scottsburg.

The firm claims that on Nov. 15 its operations were picketed by the union and its logs declared "hot." Union members refused to unload or handle the logs when they were delivered to the Evans Lumber Co. of Coos Bay or the Long-Bell Co. in Reedsport.

The plaintiffs claimed also the action was an attempt by the union to force Long-Bell and Evans Products to cease doing business with the Firchau Logging Co.

Report of Enemy Bombs in US Denied

Washington—(U.P.)—The White House last night emphatically denied reports that "enemy" atomic bombs had been found in Washington and New York.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty issued the denial after being informed that reports were to be printed in the Midwest that A-bombs were found here and in New York and that Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson had ordered a nation-wide alert.

The reports are not true, Hagerty said. He said no such A-bombs or devices have been found and no such nation-wide alert has been ordered.

Sheppard, Brothers Share in Estate

Cleveland—(U.P.)—Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard and his two brothers have been named equal heirs to the $196,000 combined estate of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Richard A. Sheppard.

In wills filed yesterday in probate court, Mrs. Sheppard left an estimated $80,000 worth of real estate and personal property amounting to about $16,000. Her husband left some $100,000 to his three sons. He left his medical books, surgical instruments and $45,000 in notes to Bayview Osteopathic Hospital, which he had a large part in founding.

Your Health and Its Care

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Readers should address inquiries to: William Brady, 263 El Camino, Beverly Hills, Calif.

DECLARE RABIES TREATMENT BAD

What the present price of "Pasteur" treatment may be, I do not know or care. Whatever the victim pays for it is, in my judgment, outrageous. So far as human well being is concerned this inoculation of victims of dogbite with heaven knows what is, in my judgment, actually worth nothing. Indeed, from all the evidence I have been able to obtain, the blind injection of what the nineteenth century medical and health authorities call "antirabies vaccine," "vaccine" or "Pasteur virus" is more dangerous than the dogbite itself or any effect of such a wound.

Dr. Brady

It it occurs to any reader that my opinion or judgment concerning the rabies question is of less weight than that of one or another recognized medical or health authority, do please introduce the authority and his or her opinion or judgment—but remember, no matter who or what the author may be, his or her view of the rabies question and the treatment of victims of dogbite or other wounds inflicted by animal or bird is a matter of opinion and not a matter of fact. Still, any physician or health officer who cares to give a contrary opinion or advice may do so in this column and I promise to reveal or withhold his or her name as he or she may prefer.

Last Wednesday I cited the conclusions reached by Drs. George A. Dennison and J. D. Dowling of Birmingham, Ala., from their experience as health administrators. They concluded that in what has been called the "rabies capital of North America":

"1. Rabies is primarily a veterinary problem. Regardless of its prevalence among dogs, it will probably never cause sufficient morbidity or mortality among human beings in this region to allow its classification as a public health problem of importance."

Probably no other physicians or health authorities in the country are better qualified to tell the truth about rabies than these Birmingham authorities.

Dr. T. F. Sellers, head of the Georgia Health Department said in American Journal of Tropical Medicine for May, '48, that after thirty years of practical experience it was his belief that antirabic vaccine is not harmless and that it has caused more deaths than has rabies when given to persons only indirectly or remotely exposed. Dr. Sellers said that administration of antirabic vaccine to persons actually bitten or scratched by the teeth of known or suspectedly rabid animals is justifiable, in that the danger of the disease (rabies) is far greater than any ill effects from the vaccine. But for exposures other than actual bites, said Dr. Sellers, the danger of treatment complications far exceeds that of either rabies or rabiphobia. He was convinced that it is not hydrophobia but rather rabiphobia which constitutes the major and more troublesome problem for the practicing physician and health officer.

Rabiphobia means unreasonable or insane dread or fear of rabies.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

No Will Power?

I was able to lose 67 pounds by will power, but I haven't the will power to give up cigarettes. Tried a pipe for a month, but don't seem to get satisfaction from it. (E. E. E.)

Answer—If it took less than six months to lose 67 pounds perhaps your lack of will power is due to nutritional deficiency. Supplement your regular diet with an optional daily ration of vitamins and minerals. I tell how to do this in the pamphlet HOW TO LOSE WEIGHT, for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope. In the booklet RULES FOR REDUCING (for which send 25c and stamped, self-addressed envelope) you will learn that you don't have to knock yourself out to reduce successfully. You can get rid of slacker flesh without impairing vite.

What Does Mrs. Sumsey?

Please send me a treatise on arthritis. Some say too much calcium. Some say not enough. (Mrs. A. E.)

Answer—I have none. Pamphlet, CALCIUM AND RHEUMATIZ, distinguishes joint inflammation (arthritis) from joint degeneration (rheumatiz). The pamphlet is free on written request if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope. I'm afraid a lot of victims of joint disability and many doctors too, have a vague notion that "arthritis" is a fancy, exclusive ailment whereas rheumatism is an ailment of laborers and washerwomen.

MUSICAL BURGLAR

Greenville, R. I.— (U.P.)—A thief with an ear for music broke into the home of Mrs. Kay K. Moore. He stole an old organ.

Mothers March Set By Several Areas

Several Mothers' Marches on polio have been scheduled in the county Monday night, a check showed today. All marches will be held from 7 to 8 p.m.

Towns reporting plans for the March of Dimes activity are Medford, Eagle Point, Ashland, Jacksonville and Central Point.

During the hour mothers will call at homes where a lighted porch ligh of a candle in a window extends an invitation to stop for a contribution to the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Lew Miles, Medford chairman, said that in past years there have been a few incidents where unqualified persons called to collect the contributions. Mrs. Miles said that each qualified worker is provided with a scroll, which may serve as identification.

At Eagle Point, five cars will cover the city and a radius of two miles outside the city limits. Territory to be included are Nick Young rd., Long Mountain rd., Crater Lake hwy. to Dodge Bridge rd., Brownboro rd. and Eagle Heights. Following the drive, Eagle Point workers will be guests at a social hour at the home of Mrs. Hoyl Jordan.
