Seattle—(U.P.)—Oregon State used height and rebounding superiority Saturday to roll to a 57-43 basketball victory over Washington and mark up OSC's eight consecutive Northern division win of the season against no defeats.

The win also gave the Beavers their first sweep of a four-game series with Washington since the rivalry between the two schools began 51 years ago.

Wade (Swede) Halbrook, the Beavers' fast-improving 7-foot, 3-inch center, operated as an impressive symbol of Oregon State's height, rebounding ability and defense.

Halbrook led Oregon State scoring with 21 points despite the fact that he played only about seven minutes of the second half because of fouls. He finally fouled out with about seven and a half minutes to go in the game.

Height Crushes

The giant center's height crushed Washington in the first half, as Halbrook pulled down 15 rebounds, or only one less than Washington's entire team could gather. Oregon State so completely dominated the backboards during the first period that it had 41 shooting chances from the field to only 19 for Washington. It was the same story through most of the second half.

The rangy Beavers' mastery under the board was told by the statistics. Oregon State cleared off 54 rebounds to only 28 for Washington, although both teams made 30 per cent of their shots from the field.

Halbrook scored Oregon State's first 10 points, although the game was nine minutes old before Oregon State had its first lead, 15-14. Washington failed to score in the last eight minutes of the first half and trailed at intermission, 30-19.

Oregon State had complete control in the second half, except for a brief period when the Huskies poured through nine straight points to make the score 36-30 for OSC.

Ducks Rap Brigham Young 81-76 for Series Sweep

Eugene — (U.P.) — Coach Bill Borcher's Oregon Webfoots dumped Brigham Young University 81-76 in a non-conference basketball clash here Saturday night with the Webfoot's two tall men — forward Jim Loscutoff and center Max Anderson — combining to hit 48 points.

Both Loscutoff and Anderson earned 24 points apiece, to share scoring honors, in a fast moving offensive first half.

Meanwhile, Brigham Young couldn't find the basket and by midway in the first half had managed to score only two field goals on 21 attempts.

The Cougars, led by Terry Tebbs with 20 points, came back in the second half, but were unable to overcome a Webfoot 44-28 lead at halftime. Herschel Pedersen of the Cougars piled up 19 ponts.

Friday night the Ducks triumphed over Brigham Young 82-71, with Jim Loscutoff racking up a record-breaking 35 points.

American League Expansion Found Possible in Two or Three Years

New York—(U.P.)—The American League realignment committee was studying 10-club schedules today involving Texas, Canadian, Pacific Coast and additional mid-western cities to determine the "feasibility" of expanding within the next two or three years.

Following a four-hour meeting here Sunday, members of the committee went on record as "not soliciting additional franchises" but formally conceded that expansion of the league "is possible in two or three years."

General Manager Franke Lane of the White Sox, chairman of the league's realignment committee, said that the league has established six standards by which to judge applications for new franchises.

Increases In Travel

The new "dry run" schedules, as Lane termed them, would involve enormous increases in travel, he said, and in expenditures.

The six standards agreed upon are:

1. Does the prospective franchise have an adequate stadium or can one be constructed in the near future. An adequate stadium is considered to be one which seats at least 35,000.
2. Is the group properly financed?
3. Will intelligent baseball people be in charge?
4. Has the prospective franchise cleared the way in its own league to eliminate possible legal entanglements?
5. Is the addition of the new franchise practical from a standpoint of scheduling and transportation?
6. What is the population of the prospective city?

Yellow Cab Clips Logger Quint 85-58

Yellow Cab of Medford, its lead never in danger after the midway point of the second quarter, rambled to an easy 85 to 58 decision over Tony Fernandez Loggers of Longview, Wash., in an independent basketball fracas at St. Mary's gym here yesterday.

Medford's Cabbies, right at home, boomed to a 12 to 0 lead as the Loggers had trouble finding the range. But the Washington gang, helped by Bob Ball's eight counters, finally managed some scoring punch and sliced the Yellow Cab lead to 16 to 13. A tip in by Chuck Stacy gave the Cabbies an 18 to 15 edge at the quarter.

In the early part of the second stanza three-point leads existed twice, 18 to 15 and 20 to 17. Then two buckets by Chuck Stacy and a tip in by Johnny Foster for Yellow Cab, while Jack Parks got a gifter for Fernandez, made the score 26 to 18. Ball hit from far out to make it 26 to 20 but the Cabbies rolled in another 12 points while the Loggers went scoreless. That made the gap 38 to 20.

At halftime Cab was ahead 38 to 21. In the third quarter Fernandez twice cut their deficit to 15 points but that was as close to the Medford quint as they could come. Yellow Cab had a 23-point, 62 to 39 spread at the end of the canto. In the fourth quarter the gap stretched to 35 points at 82 to 47.

Ed Hummel of Yellow Cab, with 28 tallies, was high man of the game. Foster with 20 and Stacy with 19 followed Hummel on the Cab score sheet. Bob Ball, a deadeye with his long shots, picked up 22 for the Loggers. Fred Wilson, a slick man with the ball and a good shot, but with a rather warm temper to go with the abilities, rang up 13 points.

The Loggers topped the University of Oregon Frosh by two points on Saturday night. Some of the fatigue from that battle showed yesterday.

LINE-UPS: Yellow Cab		58 Fernandez

Dons Claim Top Rank on Coast

By NORMAN RITTER
United Press Sports Writer

The University of San Francisco Dons have made it readily apparent they have no equals on the Pacific coast—or maybe in the nation for that matter.

Phil Wollpert's team has enjoyed high national rankings since the season began and in recent weeks has stood near the top. But there were more than a few basketball fans right in the Hilltoppers' bailiwick who just couldn't believe it.

Stanford Beaten

In what was billed as the "game of the year" in San Francisco's Cow Palace Friday night the Dons overwhelmed Stanford, the Pacific Coast conference Southern division co-leader 76-60. Most of those in the record throng of 13,824 agreed USF could have named the score.

And just to show Friday was no fluke, the Dons engulfed California, 84-62, Saturday night after building up a 20-0 lead in the opening minutes.

Santa Clara also took California 66-59, to make it three out of four for the CBA. Stanford came back Saturday night for a 72-67 win over the Broncos to give the PCC its only win.

Defending champion Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N. Y., wound up in a three-way tie for second place with Denny Shute of Akron, Ohio, and Mike Murra of Wichita, Kan. Each finished with 217, four strokes back of the winner.

Board chairman Glenn Holcomb said the board would meet today with Hampton Pool, 41, former coach of the Los Angeles Rams, and Tommy Prothro, 34, UCLA backfield coach.

On Tuesday the board will consider Herm Meister, 41, USC line coach, and Neil Stahley, head coach of the University of Idaho.

Crater, Eagle Point Win Saturday Rogue Contests

ROGUE LEAGUE STANDINGS:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Crater	5	1	.833
Phoenix	4	2	.667
Eagle Point	2	4	.333
Illinois Valley	1	5	.167

The leadership in the Rogue League basketball race was almost buccaneered away from Crater high over the week end but the Comets were on top of the heap today as the loop looked toward its second round.

Crater rallied for 19 points in the final quarter Saturday night to overcome the Phoenix High Pirates 39 to 34 in a tight contest. Victory gave the Comets a series split for the week end and a one-game lead in the league over the Bucs. Phoenix had stormed aboard Friday for a 45 to 38 win to briefly share front position in the circuit.

Eagle Point, favorite at the start of loop play, jumped out of the cellar Saturday night with a 54 to 37 win over Illinois Valley. The Eagles subdued the Cougars 64 to 32 Friday, making it a sweep for the series.

Outplay Comets

Phoenix, showing ability to open the Crater defense for good shots from near and far, outplayed the Comets at Central Point for three quarters. It was free shots which kept the Crater five in contention and which, in final analysis provided the margin of victory.

Only four fouls, an amazingly low total, were whistled on Crater by Officials Pal Ford and Dale Bates, Grants Pass. Eleven were caled on Phoenix. The Pirates took advantage of their few chances for six gift points but Crater dropped in 11 free ones. Both clubs had 14 field goals.

Phoenix put in five of its field shots in the first quarter to get a 10 to 5 margin. Crater managed only one bucket from afield but put in three gifters. Both clubs hit for four goals in the second panel and the Comets got a couple of free points for 18 to 15 Phoenix edge at halftime.

Phoenix Leads

Crater managed three fielders to the Pirates' two in the third panel but this time Phoenix had five to four advantage in free shooting and the period ended with Phoenix on top 27 to 25. The Comets had a short 23 to 22 lead in the stanza when Bob Gray put in two gift tries. But Jim Korth got a foul shot and Bill Madden two of them while Charles Wall swished from the field to give Phoenix 27 to 23 command. Gray connected from the field with five seconds left in the quarter.

Phoenix with its slight lead tried to pull the Comets out and make them switch their defense from zone to man-to-man. But the strategy did not pay off and before the Pirates could resume efforts of just trying to score, the Comets caught up and went ahead.

Jim Higinbotham scored on the fourth quarter tip off to tie up the mix at 27-all. He added two free buckets for a 29 to 27 Crater lead. Madden hit a longie for Phoenix to tie the game again.

31-31 Deadlock

Donn Johnson drove in for a Commet two-pointer but Madden hit from a corner for a 31-all deadlock. Higinbotham got two goals from the corner for a 35 to 31 Comet bulge. Madden swished another corner shot but Hogue scored for Crater on a fast break. Wall got a Phoenix free shot for 37 to 34 but Johnson tallied off a held ball jump with 15 seconds left.

Higinbotham scored half of Crater's points, 19, and Madden got 16 for Phoenix.

Big Bill Caldwell rolled up 23 counters as Eagle Point had its second easy night with Illinois Valley. Eagle quarter leads were 17 to 8, 25 to 12 and 44 to 20. Eagle Point used all reserves the last quarter.

Illinois Valley had slight backboard advantage 42 to 40 but didn't shoot as often or as well as Eagle Point. The Eagles hit .344 from the field and .667 from the free line and IV tabulated .261 and .481 averages.

Larry Maurer scored 17 for the Cougars.

3 Linkmen Play-Off in Thunderbird

Palm Springs, Calif. —(U.P.)— Mike Souchak, Fred Haas and Shelley Mayfield, three of the lesser lights of the golfing world, teed off here today in a special playoff for the championship of the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational Golf tournament.

This trio bested the finest in the nation over the last four days when they posted 18-under-par for the 72 holes and ended up in a deadlock with 270's for the $2,000 first prize. Second is worth $1,000 and third $750.

Haas believes he should have been able to pick up the $2,000 first-prize money Sunday. He had a two-stroke lead on the field going into the 18th hole.

Instead of playing it safe, hitting up short, Haas hit his second up and into a trap at the left of the green. He could have blasted out short to the green there, but he gambled again and tried to hit for the pin. Instead, the ball landed on the edge of the green, halfway to the pin and then trickled back into the trap. He blasted out again, this time five feet from the pin — then missed the putt for a bogey six.

Mayfield and Souchak had 69's on their final round, Haas a 67 despite the disastrous last hole.

Johnny Palmer of Charlotte, N. C., took a 70 on the final round and finished with 271. Bud Holscher, Santa Monica, Calif., and Bob Rosburg, San Francisco, finished with 70's and 272 totals. Jerry Barber of Los Angeles fired a 67 and came in with 273.

There was a five-way tie for the next spot at 274 between Tommy Bolt, Houston, Tex.; Gene Littler, Palm Springs; Paul McGuire, Wichita, Kan.; Bo Wininger, Oklahoma City; and Wally Ulrich, Rochester, Minn.

In Forest Grove Saturday night, the Badgers of Pacific university downed Linfield 82-62, in a Northwest conference basketball clash.

Also tonight, lighteweight contender Orlando Zulueta of Cuba meets Danny Jo Perez of New York in a TV 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena. Zulueta is favored at 7½ to 5 because of his excellent left jabs and his all-around speed.

Kentuckians Have Chance For Revenge

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

Kentucky's long-awaited "revenge" battle with Georgia Tech touches off a big week in college basketball tonight as the players return from mid-year examinations fresh and eager to scrap for glory and conference championships.

Tonight's clash at Atlanta has been the target for Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 team, ever since the night of Jan. 8 when Tech astounded the sports world by beating the Wildcats, 59-58.

Except for that shocker, the top upset of the season, Kentucky would be shooting tonight for its 39th straight victory that would equal the all-time record. Instead, the Wildcats' streak was broken at 32 wins and now they are riding a modest five-game streak. Since the big surprise, Tech has won only once and lost six times.

Victory also could move Kentucky (4-1 league record) to first place in the Southeastern Conference, should pacemaking Alabama (4-0) lose to Florida.

But the Wildcats should be warned by the fate of North Carolina State on a similar "revenge" mission Saturday night. State, burning for vengeance ever since Villanova ruined a 12-0 record with a 91-78 defeat, got the chance Saturday and wound up with another black eye, 107-96.

Southern Conference Clash

Also bidding for the headlines tonight will be the clash of West Virginia (6-0) and Richmond (6-1) at Richmond for first place in the Southern Canference. West Virginia handed Richmond its only league loss, 72-66, early this season.

First place in the Missouri Valley Conference also will be at stake tonight when Tulsa risks its 4-0 league record against Bradley with St. Louis (2-0) idle and hoping to take over.

Here's how the other conferences are shaping up:

Ivy: Pennsylvania and Cornell tied at 5-1, meet on Cornell's court Saturday. Columbia (3-1) could move into second place ahead of the loser by beating Brown Wednesday and Harvard Saturday.

Big Ten: Minnesota (5-2) is idle this week after a 59-56 six-over-times victory Saturday over Purdue for a slight league lead. Iowa (4-2) could share the lead by beating Purdue this Saturday.

Big Seven: Colorado (4-0) risks its record against Iowa State Saturday. Second place Missouri 3-1 meets Iowa State Tuesday and Oklahoma Saturday.

Pacific Coast: Northern Division-Oregon State 8-0 plays at Idaho Friday and Saturday but has a three-game lead over Oregon 5-3 which plays Washington.

Syracuse Loses To Milwaukie

By UNITED PRESS

The Syracuse Nationals and Boston Celtics could each bemoan those wasted opportunities today as they find themselves still tied for first place in the eastern division of the National Basketball Assn.

The Celtics, with a chance to grab at least a temporary lead, were upset by Milwaukee, 88-79, in a Sunday afternoon game at Boston. Then Syracuse blew a chance to take a full-game lead by losing a night game to Philadelphia, 93-83, at Syracuse.

In the only other Sunday action, the Fort Wayne Pistons restored their lead in the western division to 5½ games by beating the Minneapolis Lakers, 99-92, at Fort Wayne.

Lesser Captures Doherty Mantle

Miami, Fla.—(U.P.)—Pat Lesser, a pretty coed from the University of Seattle, today pointed to her victory in the Doherty Women's Amateur tournament to prove she is one golfer who doesn't scare easily.

Paired against national amateur champion Barbara Romack in Sunday's final round, Miss Lesser walloped her long-time rival from Sacramento, Calif., 6 and 5.

It was the fourth meeting between the two Far West girls and the fourth time Miss Lesser walked off as the winner.

BREAKS RECORDS

Vancouver, Wash. — (U.P.) — Judy Martin, 14-year-old Cleveland high school student in Portland, broke two national records this weekend in a swimming competition at Memorial Pool here. On Saturday, Judy smashed the national record in the 200 yard individual medley event in her class. On Sunday she eclipsed the record in the 100 yard butterfly event.
