POLIO'S MYSTERY MAN
A Shady Operation

Someone To Win Polio Mystery Man Contest Tonight

Somebody will identify the March of Dimes Mystery Man tonight. Bob Smith, county campaign chairman, will make telephone calls from radio station KXJC, starting at 5:30 p. m., until the mystery person is identified. This is the last night in the month-long contest which has seen a host of prizes going to lucky winners.

Two new clues and another prize were added last night when his identity was not guessed. The new clues are "my operation is definitely shady" and "It might be said I'm a blind man."

Other clues follow: He came to Medford in 1928 and left only to serve in the navy in World War II. It might be said I'm a corny character. You might say I'm just hanging around. In a way, I never move. Something about a tree reminds me of my business.

The added prize is a $10 gift certificate from an unidentified donor. Other prizes include a quart of milk for each member of the family every day for 30 days from the Milk Producers League, two chicken dinners from Mary's Casa and a gown from Pick's Apparel.

Larry Sheehan New Leader of County Democratic Club

Larry Sheehan of Rogue River was elected president of the Jackson County Democratic club, a social organization, at a dinner meeting held at the Medford hotel Saturday night. Around 50 people attended.

The officers, all elected by unanimous ballot also included Mrs. Robert A. Boyer, vice-president, Mrs. Albert Straus, Sams Valley, secretary-treasurer, and Clyde Fichtner, sergeant-at-arms. The last two were reelected for second terms.

Reports on the Democratic victory dinner held in Portland following the November election were made by Jackson County Democratic Chairman Robert Boyer, and short talks were made by retiring president Cecil Norris, Alvy Walker, Gold Hill, Clyde Fichtner, and others.

A standing vote of thanks was given Cecil Norris and other retiring officers for their work since the founding of the organization two years ago. A monthly prize, donated by former County Chairman Guy Corliss, was presented to Alvy Walker.

Following the dinner a social evening, including dancing, was enjoyed by the members.

1955 Bike Licenses On Sale in Phoenix

Phoenix—Licenses for Phoenix city bicycle riders have now arrived at the police station, according to Police Chief Jim Perry.

The licenses will be issued at the police station from 4 to 5 p. m., each weekday this week, he said.

A mistake in shipment caused the delay in the arrival of the 1955 licenses, the chief added.
