

On The Side

Come, come, dear night,
Love's mart of kisses
Sweet close of his ambitions line,
The fruitful summer of his blisses
Love's glory doth in darkness shine.

—Marlowe.
Another man who is forgotten but shouldn't be is Theophilus Van Kannel of Philadelphia. He invented the revolving door. Going through a revolving door is an excellent character test. If a man pushes the door gently in consideration of other persons passing through he is a gentleman. If he gives the door a terrific push and slams it against the back of the person in advance it proves he is not a gentleman but a boor lacking consideration and is the kind of a man no girl should marry.

Asking
Queries from clients. Q. What are the oldest racing colors still in action on the American turf? A. The "all orange" of the Claiborne farm of Paris, Ky., of which A. B. Hancock is the owner. Q. Was Eva Tanguay, the "I Don't Care Girl," a blonde or a redhead? A. Eva was born a blonde but changed to a redhead for her acting career. Q. Just what does "sterling" mean as in "sterling silver"? A. "Sterling" means an article is made of 92½ per cent pure silver and 7½ per cent copper.

Drying Dishes
To dry dishes is a mistake. In fact, it is downright dangerous. Is not a sanitary method. Spreads germs. So say men of science. Dishes should be rinsed with hot water. Then drained and stacked. Call this to the attention of your wife.

Friendly Service
A much used term is "friendly service." The friendliest service I have noted so far was that offered by a coffee shop in Los Angeles which was staffed by a bevy of truly beautiful waitresses. It was the practice of these glamorous tray queens to greet regular male customers with a good morning kiss. That is, of course, if the customer didn't object.

Lady in Ermine
Has your wife an ermine coat? Perhaps not. It could be you are just a young married couple with children and with expenses what they are now, your wife, poor girl, hasn't even a mink coat. However, if you live in New York she shouldn't be too depressed. For special occasions she can rent a mink coat. Or even an ermine coat. How about taking your wife to the opera on your wedding anniversary or her birthday or just a special party? And renting an ermine coat for her for the occasion. Some fun, what?

Among the Married
When a couple is childless, who is chiefly responsible, the husband or wife? Physicians say you can't always tell. Anyway, I have just heard of a Brooklyn woman who has been married five times. In her fifth marriage, she had her first baby!

Dance Hostesses
In what year was the song titled "Ten Cents a Dance" a hit? Who popularized it? If you can't answer that as quickly as a quarter of a flash, cease calling yourself a young old timer. Incidentally, when dance hall hostesses were paid 10 cents a dance, they danced twenty dances in an hour. The hostesses received 7 cents from the fee and the dance hall 3 cents.

EXPENSIVE BATH
Columbia, S. C. (U.P.)—woman who said she needed a bath admitted shoplifting a bar of soap from a store here. She was fined $15.50.
