

Reception Given In Butte Falls For Newlyweds

Butte Falls—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hartlerode Jr., of Klamath Falls, were honored January 26 at a reception at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hartlerode, Butte Falls. The couple's wedding was a recent event at Reno, Nev. The bride is the former Miss Beth Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elga Abbott, also of Butte Falls.

About 40 persons attended and all were relatives of the couple with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Driscoll, friends who had accompanied them to Reno for the wedding. Mrs. Driscoll was matron of honor and he was best man for the wedding.

Games were played at the reception and the couple were presented gifts.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated for the occasion by the bride's mother. Pink carnations, white stock and fern with pink candles and appointments of crystal centered the table. Mrs. Abbott had also decorated the cakes served for refreshments.

Attending from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. B. Abbott and daughters, Dianne and Sandra; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gilmore and daughters, Jeanne, Joanne and Janice; Mrs. Josephine Johnson, grandmother of the bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Meadows. Those there from Rogue River were Mr. and Mrs. Ramon McComb, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris and Roger and Pamela Harris.

On Sunday, the day following the reception, Mrs. W. A. Hartlerode Jr. was honored at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. L. Casey. Mrs. Frank Carson was cohostess and Mrs. Ross Arnt, served.

The bridegroom is a student at Oregon Technical institute.
