

Rosarian to Talk For Phoenix Club

Phoenix — Growing of roses will be the topic for a meeting of Phoenix Garden club Friday February 11, in the Phoenix Community club at 1 p.m.

Ernest Vehrs, president of Rogue Valley Rose Society, Grants Pass, and consulting rosarian for the American Rose society in the Pacific northwest district, will speak on "Care and Culture of Roses." Mr. Vehrs will conduct a live demonstration of pruning methods on rose bushes members may care to bring.

Mrs. George Hartley, Mrs. W. A. Shutt and Mrs. Allen Paul will be hostesses for a dessert luncheon.

Mrs. Jesse Wilson will provide the arrangement for the day.

The executive board of the club was to meet at the home of Mrs. A. C. Lewis, Coleman a Creek road, this afternoon.

Doctor to Speak For OSNA Session

Dr. A. Erin Merkel, Jackson county public health officer, will speak for a meeting of District 4, Oregon State Nurses' association, set for Tuesday, February 8, at 8 p.m. in Sacred Heart hospital.

The nurses will meet in the hospital's medical library in the new wing, and this will be the first time the group has met in these quarters.

Dr. Merkel's topic will be "Infectious Hepatitis."

All registered nurses, whether members of OSNA or not, are invited to attend.

Society President Talks for Meeting In Central Point

Mrs. John Holst, Gold Hill, spoke at a meeting of Central Point Garden club held February 2 at the home of Mrs. Don Faber. Mrs. Holst is president of Rogue Valley Herb society.

Mrs. Holst, assisted by Mrs. N. Vanderlip, spoke on and displayed a large variety of herbs. She told how to use herbs in cooking.

Guests introduced at the meeting were Mrs. M. Heckenburger, Mrs. Alice Launer, Mrs. Chester Ashton, Miss Minnie White, Mrs. E. C. Faber and Mrs. Fannie Grant.

Prizes were won by Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. John Wisely. A corsage was presented to Mrs. E. E. Reames.

Dessert was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Wisely and Mrs. Wallace West. Trays were decorated in the valentine theme.

The flower arrangement of the month was made by Mrs. Faber and was of dutch iris.

Hostess Sonja Henie Gives Hollywood's Party of Year

By ALINE MOSBY
Hollywood — (U.P.) — Zsa Zsa Gabor starred as a vampire, June Allyson as a clown and Mrs. James Mason as a bearded lady in an after-hours social production Saturday that was the party of the year.

Hostess Sonja Henie took over Ciro's nightclub, set up a replica of a circus and invited 350 movietown celebrities to arrive as stars of the big top.

Four-footed guests included a three - and - a - half ton hippopotamus, who sat with a bored expression outside the front door; and several ponies and dogs who performed in the one-ring floor show.

Outside the cages were such three-ring attractions as Zsa Zsa, dressed as Vampire, the local television siren, in a stringy black wig and tattered dress; June in rags and a hat with a stuffed bird perched on top; Mrs. Mason in a black goatee, and Peggy Lee as a tattooed lady.

Other guests at the $15,000 affair, Hollywood's first big costume party in many years, included Judy Garland, Lana Turner, Lex Barker, Bob Cummings, Cary Grant, Joan Crawford, Jeanne Crain, Susan Hayward, Esther Williams, Van Heflin and Johnnie Ray.

Two hundred of the cocktail party guests were invited to stay to a sit-down dinner with place cards. First, the guests sampled caviar and champagne at a buffet table decorated with clowns carved from ice. Circus banners advertised "The Spider Lady," and "The Snake Charmer," while posters proclaimed the wonders of "Sonja Henie's Circus."

After cocktails, a curtain that cut off the main room was pulled open and the guests marched in to eat dinner under a real circus tent. Aerialists swinging from their teeth on trapezes and ponies and dogs provided entertainment while the guests ate turtle soup, filet mignon and baked Alaska. "Tiny merry go rounds decorated each table."

"I wanted to have other animals but they smell," explained Miss Henie.

Even the press was required to wear costumes for the party. I shivered in a brief zebra lady costume, courtesy of Zsa Zsa, who wore it in a Martin and Lewis circus movie.

Exchange of Gifts Planned by Troop

The Ladies Mounted troop, auxiliary to the Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse, will conduct a "white elephant" exchange during a meeting of the troop Tuesday, February 8 at 8 p.m. The session will be held in the posse club house.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. W. M. Lemmon, Mrs. Gordon Koehler, and Mrs. Sam Kime. Mrs. Clarence Dodge, troop captain, will preside for the business meeting.

Those attending are to take gift-wrapped articles for the exchange.

Health and Weight Topic for Meeting Of Extension Unit

Butte Falls—Butte Falls Home Extension unit members welcomed two guests, Mrs. Leonard Richman and Mrs. James Jack, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Clyde Moore February 3. Two former members were also present, Mrs. John Henshaw and Mrs. Leslie Casey.

Miss Eula Wintermote presented a lesson on health and weight. Using the luncheon as the basis of calorie study, members learned how to adjust family meals for gaining or reducing weight. They learned also how to increase calories for growing children and working husbands. Using tape measures on each other, members listed facts about their own figure—proportions for future consideration. In May they will do some rechecking.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leslie Casey, March 3 and will be a morning demonstration lesson on the subject of "Vegetables, Nutritious, Attractive and Delicious." Mrs. Roy Price and Mrs. John Fuiten will be the leaders.

Session Planned By Mothers' Club; Show Announced

West Side Mothers' club will hold the February meeting at the home of Mrs. L. E. Edmonds, Ross lane, Wednesday, February 9, at 8 p.m.

A brief talk will be given by Miss Mary Vandenburg of the Southern Oregon Child Guidance clinic.

The January meeting of the club was held at the West Side school. Games followed the business meeting.

The next basketball game at West Side school will be Friday, February 11 at 7 p.m. and the visiting team will be Applegate school.

Students at the school are looking forward to the annual hobby show to be held Friday, February 18. Parents are also invited to take part.

Two Members Join Lake Creek Group; Agent Gives Lesson

Lake Creek — Mrs. Raymond Meier and Mrs. Cecil Cochran became members of the Lake Creek Extension unit at a meeting held February 2 at the home of Mrs. Foster Swigert on Meridian road. Mrs. J. R. Arens presided and roll call was answered by reading articles on savings bonds and economy.

Mrs. William Harper was welcomed back after an absence for illness.

The finance committee, Mrs. Ed Meyers, collected voluntary donations for the treasury and a surprise kitchen package was sold to Mrs. Kathleen Wells. Mrs. John Davidson displayed a line of all-occasion cards and unit members agreed to buy these as a treasury project.

Mrs. Davidson also gave a detailed report on Associated Country Women of the World on an international day theme. A picture-slide study of Germany will be made in the future.

The unit plans to sponsor an Antelope-Lake Creek area boy for 4-H summer camp.

Mrs. Leland Charlie spoke on tooth decay research and Miss Margaret Pool read an article on health and childhood diseases.

Mrs. Charlie, citizenship chairman, reminded members to study the legislation coming before the present session of the Oregon legislature.

The lesson for the day was given by Miss Eula Wintermote, county agent, and was "Good Weight for Good Health." Many questions were asked. Luncheon was served by the hostess.

The March meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Grace Marshall, Brownsboro.

We're terrible cads! We should have put you straight ages ago on the easiest, prim 'n' proper way to take care of your wood floors. We should have told you how in one oh-so-easy operation Bruce Cleaning Wax thoroughly cleans and waxes floors—without one drop of harmful soap-and-water touching your precious floors... or precious you! And how floors gleam and gleam for months and months. Now that we have told you, try Bruce Cleaning Wax for wood floors, or Bruce Floor Cleaner for linoleum or wood. We'll take the blame for the easy results, too.
