Ashland Man Hurt In Auto Accident

Jack William Ragen, 31, of 299 Garfield st., Ashland, was taken to Community hospital early Sunday for treatment of injuries received in a one-car accident near Phoenix, according to state police.

A state police officer was following Ragen, who reportedly was driving at high speed on Highway 99, when the accident occurred at about 1:50 a.m., police said. Ragen's car went out of control after hitting a ditch. It bounced off a concrete culvert, completely clearing Coleman creek, before coming to rest.

Ragen received several broken ribs and a back injury in the accident. He was taken to the hospital by Medford Ambulance service. Hospital attendants this morning said his condition was satisfactory.
