

Skit Entertains Club Members In Jacksonville

Jacksonville—A skit entitled "The Litterbug Case" was given at a meeting of Jacksonville Garden club held February 3 at the home of Mrs. O. Heckert, Old Stage road. Twenty-two members and three visitors attended.

The skit, patterned after "Badge 714," a radio play, was written by Mrs. Heckert and played by five members. It was on the program for a meeting of Siskiyou district of Oregon Federation of Garden club at Girls' Community club this afternoon.

Mrs. A. O. Floyd, Siskiyou district director, spoke on coming events in the district.

Committee reports include one on the foundation plantings at the new Jacksonville grade school, which the club sponsored. It was stated that a few changes were to be made in the plantings, and annuals added later.

A "white elephant" sale netted several dollars for the club. Mrs. L. N. Sullars was awarded two prizes.

Mrs. C. P. Smets brought as her guest Mrs. Zella Kenner, Medford, and another guest was Mrs. Minnie Krebs, also Medford, who later joined the club.

Roll call was answered with the name of a favorite house plant, with the geranium and African violet apparently the favorites.

Mrs. Heckert and her committee, Mrs. Harold Reed and Mrs. Leonard McKee, served dessert.

The meeting was postponed from January 20, due to a death in the family of a member. The regular February meeting will be February 17 at the home of Mrs. L. M. Hamilton, Route 1, Box 298, Medford. Roll call is to be answered by naming a native cone-bearing tree.

It has been announced that the annual convention of the state federation will be June 14-15 at Reed college, Portland.

Altrusans Plan Dinner Meeting

Don P. McNeil, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will be guest speaker at a dinner meeting of Medford Altrusa club, Thursday, February 10, at 7 p. m. at the Tally-Ho inn on South 99 Highway near Talent. His subject will be the industrial development of Medford and the Rogue River valley, according to Mrs. Maude Codding, public affairs chairman in charge of the program.

Mrs. Mildred McCarty and Mrs. Edna Mole, hostesses for the month of February, are in charge of arrangements for the dinner to which husbands and friends of members have been invited. Mrs. McNeil will be a special guest.

The vocational grant committee will report on the progress of the project to find a Jackson County older woman eligible for the $250 dollar training scholarship offered by the local club. Applications must be in by Monday, Feb. 14.

Demonstration By Missionary Set for Tonight

The Rev. Dr. D. William Caffray, who has spent much time in foreign missionary fields in different countries, will speak of Hindu and Mohammedan women at a meeting tonight at 7:30 p. m. This service will be held in connection with the evangelistic series being continued throughout this week at the Free Methodist church, Tenth street and Ivy streets.

A demonstration will be given, with the participants dressed in native costumes of the Hindu and Mohammedan people of India and Pakistan.

Dr. Caffray, a member of the board of directors of the World Gospel mission, has traveled and preached in 58 foreign countries. Dr. Caffray was one of the first women ever to be ordained to the ministry of the Methodist church.

Student Pledged At University

David Whisenant, graduate of Medford High school and junior at the University of Oregon, has been pledged by Phi Kappa Psi fraternity at the school, a news release states.

Young Whisenant, a speech major, is specializing in radio and television work. He is a son of Mrs. J. A. Hammond, San Francisco, and the late W. D. Whisenant, Medford, and makes his home here with an aunt, Miss Delie Whisenant, 418 Arcadia court.

Record Attendance Marks Annual Braille Tournament

More than 200 valley residents attended the annual Braille tournament held Saturday night at Camp White under the auspices of the three duplicate bridge clubs, Camp White Veterans' club, Medford Duplicate and Riverside Duplicate clubs. Proceeds from the tournament will go to the Red Cross Community Service corps for work with the visually handicapped of Jackson county.

Twenty-three tables of players took part in the duplicate tournament, said to have been the largest duplicate bridge session ever held in southern Oregon. The remainder of the guests played rubber bridge, canasta, pinochle and other games.

About 40 prizes donated by valley merchants were awarded during the evening.

Mrs. Yvonne Dalen was in charge of refreshments.

Players for the duplicate tournament were divided into three sections, and winners were announced yesterday. Section A, north-south winners, were Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and Thomas Munds, first, 52 1/2 points; Mrs. T. J. Fuson and William Isaacs, second, 47 1/2; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyd, third, 46 1/2 points. East-west winners in this section were Mrs. Fred Rehling and Arthur Scarseth, first, 51; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Seely, second, 50 1/2 points; Walter Grow and Mrs. E. L. Miller, third, 48 1/2.

Winning north-south in Section B were Mrs. Margaret Alcorn and Mrs. William Kennedy, first, 67 1/2; Mrs. Frank Baker and William A. Kennedy, second, 62 1/2; Jack Love and Orville Cottier, third, 58 1/2. Section B, east-west winners were Mrs. G. R. Bunch and Dr. W. J. Miller, first, 69 1/2 points; tied for second and third, Mrs. Clay Cornett and Mrs. McClintock, Roseburg; Mrs. Bert Cook and Asa Kimball.

North-south winners in Section C were Mr. and Mrs. Budd Gail, first, 62; Mrs. Paul McDufee and Mrs. George McIntyre, second, 60 1/2 points; Mrs. Mary A. Stennett and Mrs. M. M. Herman, third, 60. East-west winners in this section were Mrs. Clifford Howard and Mrs. Myrtle Wright, first, 79 1/2; Richard Watson and C. E. Chamberlain, second, 65; Mr. and Mrs. Lew Miles, third, 61 1/2.

Roy Pruitt was tournament director, and master points were awarded the winners.

As indicated by the attendance at the tournament, duplicate bridge is becoming increasingly popular in the valley, it is stated. Three clubs meet each week, Medford Duplicate club Tuesday nights at Moose lodge hall; Riverside club Wednesday afternoon at the Roy Pruitt home on South Holly street and the Camp White Veterans' club at the camp each Friday evening.

Interclub Party Set for Friday

A valentine theme has been chosen for the Lions' auxiliaries interclub card party to be given by Crater Lions' auxiliary Friday, February 11, at 8 p. m. in the Medford hotel.

The event is an annual affair begun by the Medford Lady Lions two years ago. Phoenix Lions Auxiliary was hostess for the party last year. All Lady Lions in the district are invited.

Prizes will be presented to players with highest and lowest scores in bridge, canasta and pinochle. Also there is to be a prize given to the auxiliary having the largest representation.

Grange

Upper Rogue Grange

Upper Rogue Grange met February 3 in regular session. Agriculture committee reported the poultry outlook undecided at present with many going out of the business and a lag in buying of baby chicks. Building committee reported that material for the new metal roof for the Grange hall is ready to be installed whenever a suitable time and weather conditions can be arranged. Money for the roof came from funds in the treasury and $170 from generous though anonymous donors.

The March of Dimes dance which was held in cooperation with the Lumberjacks and Jills netted $62. Appreciation was expressed to Eastin's Rogue Haven who donated soft drinks for the occasion.

Home Economics Chairman Dorothy Tockstein, announced that there will be a display table of fancy breads at the next meeting. Members of the group are asked to make something for the table.

During the lecture hour the Harold Barbers told something of their trip last summer to Alaska. Mr. and Mrs. Harding were welcomed back after an extensive trip to California and Nevada desert resorts.

Following the social hour, refreshments were served by the Roy Vaughans and Robert Darrohn.

Coed Grandmother Only 31 Years Old

Fullerton, Calif. — (U.P.) — Fullerton Junior college claims the youngest-coed grandmother in the nation. She is Mrs. E. L. Reid, 31.

Mrs. Reid and her husband, Norman, a psychiatric technician at a state hospital, are grandparents, thanks to 14-month-old Pamela Kay Yokee, daughter of Mrs. Margie Reid Yokee, 17.

Mrs. Reid, whose schoolwork-housework schedule is on the tight side, is a native of Little Rock, Ark.

At Canada's Port Radium plant, just below the Arctic Circle, an endless rubber belt carries coallike lumps of uranium-bearing ore from mine to mill, says the National Geographic Society. Keeneyed spotters hold doubtful chunks before a Geiger counter suspended from the ceiling. A flashing light confirms radio-activity.
