Nazarenes Feature Boys, Girls Clubs Training Program

Boys and Girls clubs, a part of the week day training program of the Church of the Nazarene, will be featured Sunday in the Sunday school session at the church, Holly and First sts. This program is organized under the name "Caravans." The boys and girls are called Indian maidens and braves.

They wear distinctive uniforms and learn handcrafts and receive instruction in religion and life. The program is denomination-wide, although the clubs have been functioning for only a year in Medford. The Nazarenes have five caravans in operation with a total membership of over 50 children.

To Appear

The youngsters will appear in the opening exercises of the adult department to show what has been learned. Older persons of the church, especially those retired will be asked to teach crafts and hobbies to the youngsters. Worship services at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday will include a number by the choir. Mrs. Dorothy Rees will sing a solo. The pastor, the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, will speak on the subject "How to Tell When You Are in Love," in keeping with the Valentine season.

The Sunday evening service will feature music by the newly organized male chorus, a solo by Ed Taylor, the choir, and a mixed quartet. A prelude of music will be presented by the orchestra.

Morning Worship Hour Is Changed

Members and friends of St. Peters Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., are reminded that the morning worship services, Sunday, Feb. 13, will begin at 8:30 o'clock, instead of the usual time. The Rev. E. Paul Riedel, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, Ashland, will be the guest speaker. Sunday school and Bible study begin at 9:30 a.m., following the worship service.

Pastor Leaves

The Rev. Kenneth Korby, pastor of St. Peters, will be in Portland to conduct Bible study for the Lutheran youth group convention. Next week the Rev. Korby will preach at the chapel services of Concordia college, which is beginning the celebration of its 50th year in the training of young men in preparation for the Lutheran ministry.

It was also announced that Rev. Korby will attend the Oregon pastoral conference to be held in Portland during next week.

'Let There Be Light' Theme of Conference

"Let There Be Light" is the theme for the February Missionary rally of the Churches of God in southern Oregon. The Medford church, pastored by the Rev. D. H. Jones, will play host to this rally. The program begins at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 17, in the church sanctuary with delegate registrations.

Program

A Children's hour, area report time, and Fellowship dinner will make up the afternoon program. The Rev. C. Beahm of Klamath Falls will address the rally at 7:45 p.m. on, "Let There Be Light."

The evening offering will be directed to World service for use on the Mission station in India.

The churches of God in Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland, and Klamath Falls will be participating in this rally.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Soul" will be the subject of the sermon-lesson at the Christian Science church Sunday. The Scriptural account of sight restored to blind Bartimaeus, (Mark 10:49-52) will be cited as evidence that the soul harmonizes the body through prayer, church officers explained. A passage will be read from Page 210 of the Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

Farewell Sermons Slated at Baptist

The Rev. F. Carl Truex, D.D., who has served as interim pastor of the First Baptist church since Oct. 10, will give his last two Sunday messages here Feb. 13. At the 11 a.m. worship hour, he will speak on the subject, "Faith, Hope, Love." Music will be provided at the service by the adult choir under the direction of J. Robert Cochran.

At the opening of the service at 7:30 p.m., Dr. Truex will administer the ordinance of baptism to a member of candidates for church membership. His message for the evening will be another taken from the book of Revelation, "The Two Witnesses."

Dr. Truex will leave Medford Feb. 17, for McMinnville, Ore., where he will conduct an 8-day Bible conference. A covered-dish dinner will be given in his honor Wednesday evening at 6:30, in connection with the regular mid-week service. The Rev. Truex will at that time give his closing message to the church. All members and friends of the church are invited to attend this dinner.

The Rev. James Neely of Albany, Ore., has accepted the pastorship of the church and is to arrive here about March 1.

St. Mark's Will Honor Boy Scouts

The 11 a.m. service at St. Mark's Episcopal church on Sunday will observe Boy Scout week. Leaders and members of various units have been invited to attend. They are Scout Troop 8, Explorer Post 8, and Scout Troop 16, together with committeemen, and available members of the Area council.

Explorer Scouts Leon McDougall, Gary Kliever, and Ferris Simpson will participate in the service, during which the coveted God and Country award will be presented to explorer scouts, Scott Philips, Greg Milnes, and Fuller Arney.

Complete Stages

All three have successfully completed the three difficult stages of preparation, in addition to having served considerably over 150 hrs. at the Altar as members of Saint Mark's Acolytes' guild.

Topic Announced for Ministerial Program

"Why do some people die before their time?" will be the subject for discussion on the program recently inaugurated by the Medford Ministerial association, "Ministers' Round Table" to be aired oer KMED at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 13. Participating minister will be Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb of the First Methodist church, moderator; the Rev. Floyd Yates of Temple Baptist church; the Rev. William C. Piper of the First Christian church, and the Rev. Gerald Gear of the Gold Hill Methodist church.

Methodist Men Plan Father-Son Banquet

A Father and Son banquet, sponsored by the Methodist men's group is planned for Wednesday, Feb. 23, at 6 p.m., at the First Methodist church.

Dr. G. A. Dierdorff will provide a ventriloquist act and Dr. J. Scott Heatherington will be master of ceremonies. Johnny Eads will provide magic tricks during the program.

Fathers will be hosts to their sons, and all young men of the church are invited to attend with their fathers.

Dr. Balcomb To Give Lincoln's Biography

A pulpit biography of Abraham Lincoln will be given Sunday by Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb at First Methodist church instead of a usual preaching sermon, church officers announced this week. The biography will be given in observance of the anniversary of Lincoln's birth.

Arrangements of the Civil War hymn, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," will be sung at the 9:30 and the 11 a.m. services by the Youth and Chancel choirs.

"The Marriage Clinic" will again headline the School of Christian Living in the evening. A snack supper will be served at 6 p.m. by the Susannah Wesleyan service guild. Other interest groups at 6:30 p.m. will include a study of the Book of Revelation led by Dr. J. Thomas Dixon and an adult Membership class led by Dr. Balcomb. At the 7:30 p.m. service of Family worship, Stanley Culy, a senior at Medford high school and a licensed local preacher in the Methodist church, will speak on the subject "Fourth Dimension Reality."

Religious Census Will Be Conducted Here on Sunday

Eleven Medford churches will participate in a city-wide religious census here Sunday afternoon, March 6, it was announced today.

Cochairmen for the census are the Rev. Keneth F. Korby of St. Peter's Lutheran church and the Rev. D. Kirkland West, First Presbyterian church.

Other participating churches are the First Christian church, Church of the Nazarene, Congregational, Eastwood Baptist, Medford Friends church, Zion Lutheran, Bethel Baptist, First Methodist and Sacred Heart Catholic churches.

The census is part of a statewide survey to determine church membership in the state and in individual areas, as well as to unearth facts indicating present and future church needs. The census here will also attempt to relate every Medford family to a church as that church's responsibility.

Census takers will ask for names, addresses, number in family, and past and present church affiliation or preference.

600 Volunteers

Some 600 volunteers will help with the census, which is scheduled to begin about 1 p.m., March 6. Census takers will be seeking information only, the cochairmen of the project state, and the cards of church members or those who have church preferences, will be referred to the church of their choice.

Forms duplicating the census cards will be carried in the newspapers before the event, and people who will not be home during the canvass will be asked to fill these out and leave them outside for census takers to pick up.

Presbyterian Men Attend Conference

Nineteen men from the First Presbyterian church are attending a Presbyterian Men's conference in Sacramento this week. Those attending are Dr. D. K. West, Messrs. John Dellenback, Stuart McQueen, Albert James, George Flanagan, Ward Lampkin, Lawrence Clark, Wallace Brill, James Rowan, John Harbison, William Cochran, Sam Harbison, Jack Edson, William Chapman, Winston Carl, James Johnston, Fred Gatter, Hugh McLelland and John Gribble.

Sermon Topic

Sunday Dr. West will speak at both morning services on the subject, "What Makes a Church Attractive?" Music will include anthems by the Chancel and Westminster choirs and the soloist will be Robert Wright.

At the evening service the Senior Westminister fellowship will be led by Jim Martolin and Roy Williams as they discuss the topic "What is Life?" Miss Mary Ellen Bell and Miss Elizabeth McGalliard will speak to the Adult group. Fireplace will be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. West, 52 Ross court.

Adult Religious Classes Planned

Classes of instruction for adults in all phases of the Christian religion will open Sunday at St. Mark's Episcopal church at 9:30 a.m. The classes are open to all interested persons without commitment, and also will serve as a preparation course for those contemplating communicant, membership in the church through confirmation.

The classes coincide with the church's Sunday school hours for the convenience of those wishing to leave their children in church school during the class period.

Owing to congestion in the church buildings the classes will be held in the Chapel of the Perl Funeral home through the courtesy of Frank Perl. Interest in learning more about religion and the church is the only requisite for attendance. The course now starting will continue through until May 1.

Thanks largely to protection of the National Audubon Society, roseate spoonbills have made a strong comeback in Texas. They have also increased in Florida. In 1890 they had disappeared from Texas and almost from Florida.
