

SPORTS

Buck Shaw to Build AF Academy Athletics

By GENE MEAKINS
Denver (U.P.)—The task of building a major football power at the nation's new Air Force Academy...

Possible Duck, Navy Football Game Considered

Washington (U.P.)—Sep. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) said Saturday Navy athletic officials promised "every consideration" for his proposal to have Navy play the University of Oregon football team.

List Final MIBL Rating

MIBL FINAL STANDINGS table with columns for team, W, L, Pct.

Cancellation of two Medford Independent Basketball League games, which were to have been played this week...

Places affected were fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth.

The tussles, if played, would have matched Hawkinson's against Eagle Point, which clinched fourth, and Prospect against Sacred Heart.

Yellow Cab won the title Thursday by lacing Andy's Jewellers. The Cabbies are scheduled to face the Grants Pass champ on February 21 or 24 for the AAU district mantle.

WSC NATATORS WIN
Corvallis (U.P.)—Washington State defeated the Oregon State swim team 52-31 here Friday as Ted Cummings of the Cougars took first in the 100 and 220 yard free style events.

BOWLING

ROGUE VALLEY LEAGUE and ROGUE ROLLERS LEAGUE standings tables.

mean that he will be named football coach when the Academy is ready for varsity competition in 1956. The Academy, located near Denver, will play an eight-game freshman schedule this fall.

Shaw, a star tackle at Notre Dame and a veteran of both college and professional coaching, was named Friday night as "special consultant" to the Air Force Academy's football staff.

Shaw, contacted in Atherton, Calif., said the job "actually fits in fine with my business plans."

Shaw said the possibilities at the Academy were "great," but that it would take time to build.

Tony Morabito, owner of the Forty Niners and the man who led Shaw to the end of last season, wished his former coach "a hell of a lot of luck."

Ninth Grade Edges Crater

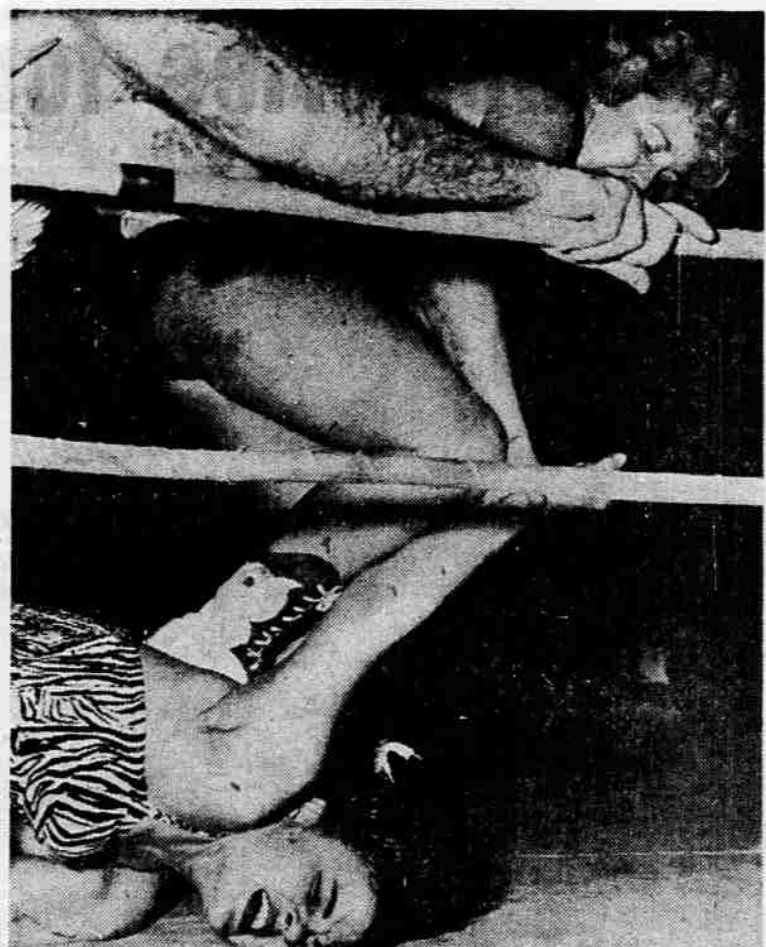

A Medford junior high ninth grade cage aggregation, which had field goal hitting troubles and ran into unexpected opposition, downed the Crater ninth 32 to 27 here Friday.

The Bulldogs were on top 10 to 8 at the quarter but the Comet Frosh from Central Point were leading 15 to 13 at the half.

Medford was cold from the field in both the second and fourth quarters. It didn't score at all from the field in the second and hit only once in the fourth.

Tom Hamlin was high scorer for Medford and Dave Bergman got 11. Kime had nine for the Comets.

Monmouth (U.P.)—Former Eugene high ace Norm Wiloughby scored 29 points Friday night to lead the OCE frosh to a 67-62 win over Portland State's JV team.

HERE SATURDAY—Jerry Hunter, shown above on the mat with a "surfboard" hold on a brunette cuties in a recent wrestling match...

Talent Drubs Rogue River To Deadlock B Loop Chase; St. Mary's, Prospect Win

B LOOP STANDINGS table with columns for team, W, L, Pct.

Talent high's Bulldogs, desperately needing victory in their defense of the Jackson County B League basketball championship, came through with triumph in convincing style at Talent on Friday night by lacing Rogue River 62 to 40.

The outcome not only avenged an earlier Rogue River 64 to 58 win over the Bulldogs but pulled Talent into a first place deadlock with the Chieftains.

Each club now has a 7-win 1-loss standing in the conference. Both are favored to wind up the regular loop slates with victories over their next two foes.

In other Friday games, St. Mary's of Medford, still mathematically in the loop running, strengthened grasp on third position with a 56 to 34 verdict over Jacksonville.

A big third quarter, in which Talent outscored the Chiefs 18 to 6 and took a 45 to 23 lead, brought the Bulldog win Friday.

John McCormick Sets Prep Mark
The Dalles (U.P.)—John McCormick of St. Mary's of The Dalles set a season's high scoring mark for Oregon high school basketball players Friday night by scoring 52 points as his team defeated Dufur 85-41.

Each hour of the day and night, U. S. railroads receive for shipment 4,370 carloads of freight and deliver the same number to their destinations.

How do you think it feels to own this new Dodge? Well, the look in people's eyes tells you that no car at any price has captured America's heart so completely.

CONCRETE FACTS
MURRAH/ ANOTHER BUILDER'S SCORE:
Top scorer in the building game... blocks of tough, durable structural properties.

Vandals Win Over Oregon Ducks 65-50

Eugene (U.P.)—The last place Idaho Vandals needed only five players to score a 65-50 upset over the University of Oregon in a Northern Division basketball game at McArthur court here Friday night.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

The Vandals hit a respectable .370 field goal average to dominate the ice cold Ducks, who could hit on only 18 out of 93 field goal attempts for a miserable .197 average.

Idaho led 30-24 at halftime. The Vandals stepped up the pace in the final period as they scored almost at will from along the baseline.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho led 30-24 at halftime. The Vandals stepped up the pace in the final period as they scored almost at will from along the baseline.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

Idaho Coach Harlan Hodges used his regulars up to the last minute, and substituted only after guard Bob Falash fouled out.

CRATER REGAINS ROGUE TOP SPOT; EP VICTOR

ROGUE LEAGUE STANDINGS (Friday Night) table with columns for team, W, L, Pct.

Crater high's Comets, in an easy romp, were victors by 68 to 37 over Illinois Valley on Friday and took over lone command again in the Rogue Basketball league when Eagle Point knocked Phoenix out of a tie with the Comets.

At Central Point Crater turned in a good defensive game and on offense was able to get in close for its shots and hit a good percentage. The Comets had leads of 19 to 9, 31 to 21 and 50 to 31 at the quarters.

Vern Parent, "really driving" up the middle, was the high scorer for Crater with 17 points. Bob Gray got 13 and Jim Higginbotham 12.

Ability to get in close enabled the Comets to field goal at a 45.0 clip. Crater had the rebounding edge, although not decisively.

Eagle Point's win came just about as hard as Crater's did easy. The Eagles headed at all intermissions at Phoenix but the Pirates climbed on top once in the final quarter.

A 34 to 25 advantage was in the Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Phoenix Heads 39-37
The Eagles favor going into the last chukker. Phoenix closed it to 34 to 30 but the Eagles made it 36 to 30. Then the Pirates pulled up behind 36 to 35. Jim Korth followed with two free

Tucson Golf Play Lead by Bud Holscher

Tucson, Ariz. (U.P.)—Bud Holscher, of Santa Monica, Calif., took advantage of perfect 75-degree weather Saturday to card a 66 and take a one-stroke lead at the end of 54 holes in the Tucson Open.

Holscher, with the help of a 45-foot birdie putt on the ninth hole, went out in 31 and came back in 35 for a third day total of 66-68-66—200, 10 strokes under par.

Tommy Bolt, who won this tournament in 1953 when it was last played, fired an excellent 34-31 for a 65 and a 201 total. In third place was the 36-hole leader, Bobby Rosburg, of San Francisco, who shot a 69 Saturday for a 202 total.

Fred Wampler, of Indianapolis, held down fourth with a 203 while Jimmy Clark, of Laguna Beach, Calif., amateur Stan Mosel, of San Antonio, Tex., Art Wall Jr., of Pocomo Manor, Pa., and Al Mengert, of Mamaroneck, N. Y., were all tied at 204.

Gigantic Races To Upset Win

Arcadia, Calif. (U.P.)—Joe W. Brown's Gigantic, carrying the light impost of 109 pounds, raced to an upset victory by a length Saturday in the $60,000 San Antonio Handicap, the second win at boxcar figures on the day's program for little Roy Lumm at Santa Anita.

Gigantic, winner of the Louisiana derby last year, came from the middle of the pack to catch the pace-setting Imbros in the stretch run of the mile and an eighth race, last big trial for the Santa Anita Handicap.

Determine, the Kentucky Derby winner, raced wide all the way and finished out of the money, but as an entry with Imbros and Allied, his backers got something or their money through Imbros' place finish. Correspondent, who had forced the pace, was third and Joe Jones was fourth while the Irish-bred Pooma II, expected to fight it out with Determine, was also out of the money.

Washington Lashes WSC

Seattle (U.P.)—Big Dean Parsons poured in 25 points here Friday night to spark the hot-shooting Washington Huskies to an easy and crushing 76-40 Northern Division basketball victory over Washington State.

Seventeen points by Parsons, the Huskies' 6-foot-8-inch center, came in the first half. That was only one point shy of Washington State's halftime total, Washington leading at intermission, 43-18.

Washington hit 28 of 69 attempts from the field for a percentage of 406. WSC could make only 12 of 51 attempts good for a .235 average.

Studies of clove oil have shown it stimulates the flow of gastric juices, and is noninjurious to the lining of the stomach.

Large advertisement for Dodge cars featuring the headline 'Steals the "OH's" from the costliest cars!' and an image of a Dodge Custom Royal Lancer.