

Oregon WCTU Grants Pass Couple Married In Grange Hall

Of interest in the Gold Hill and Rogue River vicinities is news of the wedding January 28 of Miss Wanda May Wilde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Wilde, route 2, box 590-K, Grants Pass, and Robert LeRoy McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. McCormick, route 2, box 590-J, Grants Pass.

The Rev. Hugo Gurney of the Grants Pass St. Paul's Lutheran church officiated for the double-ring ceremony, held in Shan Creek Grange hall.

Mrs. Jack Henderson, Gold Hill, served as matron-of-honor and Kenneth McCormick, brother of the bridegroom acted as best man. The ushers were Jackie McCormick, another brother of the bridegroom, and Bobby Wilde, brother of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a yellow nylon dotted Swiss gown and her headpiece was of yellow carnations. She carried a single orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Henderson's gown was of blue faille and her flowers were pink rosebuds formed in a corsage.

Music was furnished by Mrs. LeRoy Barnes, Miss Nancy Bulard and Miss Janet Sutton.

Mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore navy blue dresses and their accessories were white. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Miss Darlene Lehm and Miss Lorna Thompson poured the coffee and punch served during the reception in the Grange dining room. Miss Lucille Biles, a cousin of the bride was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests from Gold Hill included Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dusenberry, maternal grandparents of the bride; Raymond Dusenberry, the bride's uncle; Mrs. A. W. Kendall, aunt of the bride and her children, James, Kenneth and Kerry; Mrs. Ivan Smith, the bride's great-aunt, and Mrs. Nora Wait, great-aunt of the bride. From Murphy were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tucker.

The bride is a 1954 graduate from Grants Pass high school and the bridegroom was graduated from the same school in 1953. He is to return February 17 to Treasure Island, San Francisco, for reassignment with the Navy. He has been on duty with the flagship of the 7th fleet. The bride will remain in Grants Pass.
