LEAVE NOTHING BEHIND—Smoke towers from blasted installation as demolition teams scorch the earth in the final phase of evacuation from invasion-threatened Tachen Island. In the background, landing craft ferry Chinese Nationalists and equipment from the beach to waiting ships. The Nationalists alerted their Air Force to bomb the Tachen Islands once evacuation is completed, but heavy gales lashed the area and brought final stages of the operation to a crawl.

STILL ANGRY after Jockey Eddie Guerin vigorously applied will in winning last start, Boston Doge, unbeaten in eight last races, bares teeth at Trainer Frank Andolino, brother of Owner Paul Andolino, at Hialeah, Fla., stable. (International)

WHERE'D YOU GET THAT HAT?

State Not To Ask For Life of Youth

Hillsboro — (U.P.)—District Attorney James K. Gardner told the jury yesterday the state would not seek the death penalty in the first degree murder trial of Jerry Eugene Dodels, 17.
The youth is accused of the fatal shooting of Peter Ribbers, 65-year-old Timber, Ore., railroad mechanic last Nov. 11 during a burglary of Ribbers' house.
The elderly man was shot to death with a 22 rifle.
The trial, which opened yesterday, saw the jury impaneled, opening statements made four state witnesses testify and 14 state exhibits introduced as evidence.
Irvin Goodman, defense attorney, indicated Dodels would take the stand in his own defense.
Goodman said he would prove that the youth drank "bottle after bottle" of beer furnished by an adult during the afternoon before the shooting.

More Snow Falls In Eastern States
