

BEAVERS CLINCH AT LEAST A TIE; MINNESOTA RETAINS BIG 10 LEAD

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

The Oregon State Beavers today celebrated the basketball season's first "clinching" in a major conference, while Minnesota and West Virginia were simply happy they're still on top in tight league races.

By wallowing Idaho, 80-65, Monday night, the Beavers clinched at least a tie for the Northern Division title in the Pacific Coast Conference and thus took the first step toward a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

If State—unbeaten in league action with an 11-0 mark—can beat the same for again tonight, it will clinch the divisional crown outright. And that will qualify the Beavers to meet the eventual Southern Division champion in a two-of-three playoff for the conference title and a tourney berth.

Minnesota's beefy Gophers stayed a half-game ahead in the hot Big Ten race by trouncing Indiana, 80-70, as dashing Dick Garmaker blazed the trail with 29 points. It was a vital victory, because second-place Iowa kept the pressure on by rallying to beat Ohio State, 79-68.

Ohio State jumped out to an 8-4 lead over Iowa, but then the Hawkeyes surged back to a 26-14 lead and breezed home as Deacon Davis led the attack with 19 points.

Mountaineers Retain Lead
West Virginia clung to the Southern Conference lead with a 95-81 victory over William and Mary, as second-place George Washington kept pace with an 82-57 conquest of Virginia Tech as Joe Petcavich set a G. W. record with 44 points.

If George Washington can beat Washington and Lee tonight, then the stage will be set for a title showdown between West Virginia and G. W. on Saturday—West Virginia's final game of the regular season. However, the NCAA Tourney berth hinges on the outcome of the league's post-season tournament.

The nation's two longest winning streaks were extended Monday night as Marquette scored its 19th straight, 100-81, over Detroit, and San Francisco tallied its 17th straight, 66-52, over Santa Clara. Marquette, the only team so far accepted for the NCAA Tourney, led all the way as Rube Schulz led the attack with 24 points. San Francisco, the nation's top-ranked team, rallied from a nine-point half-time deficit to win as 6-10 Bill Russell registered 30 points.

Wilkinson Gets 45
In other leading games, Kentucky, the nation's No. 2 team, whipped Xavier (Ohio), 66-55, despite 21 points by Xavier's Franny Stahl; Ron Kramer's layup with four seconds left gave Michigan a 72-70 victory over Northwestern.

Purdue downed Wisconsin, 75-62, despite 23 points by Wisconsin's Dick Miller; Illinois came from an eight-point halftime deficit to beat Michigan State, 99-72; Lloyd Aubrey's 30 points led Notre Dame to an 81-71 victory over Butler; Missouri held second place in the Big Seven by beating Nebraska, 76-73, despite 27 points by Nebraska's Willard Fagler; St. Green's 3 points led NIT-bound Duquesne to an 81-67 win over Cincinnati, also NIT-bound; Belmont scored its 15th straight victory, 64-62, over Washington (Mo.); Wyoming took sole possession of second

Landy gave Newland a few of his ideas, told the program he trained under and outlined a program he thought would be good for high school milers. Amazingly modest, the Australian, who ran the world's fastest mile, commented that there are "undoubtedly" better training programs.

The missive was scholarly and one of the finest he has received from outstanding coaches or athletes, Newland reported.

LIKELY OPEN ENTRIES
Add Bob Duden, unattached Portland pro, and Eddie Draper, Seattle amateur and Northwest Open champion, to the list of probable entries in the Oregon Open Golf tournament to be contested next month at Rogue Valley Country club. Johnny Long, Phoenix, Ariz., longtime touring pro, is another possibility.

Two other Washington pros are among those who have applied for entry blanks, Chuck Congdon, Tacoma, and Jim Russell, Walla Walla.

The Oregon tourney is slated for March 25, 26 and 27 on the Medford links with a pro-amateur tussle planned on the 24th. Commitments to play have been received by Bill Johnson, Provo, Utah, champ of the open in his state, and George Schneider, Salt Lake City, Utah, who was on the pro circuit 10 years. A good number of entries are expected also from the San Francisco bay area and all indications are for a strong field with a good number of west coast "name" players.

Copies of the tourney program will be mailed out probably about the first of March to various clubs in the country. It advertises Oregon and the Rogue river valley in particular. Because of the funds derived from publication of Medford High Track Coach Bob Newland, who recently wrote great miler John Landy for information on training methods and got a reply saying the info would be forthcoming, has received a 12-page handwritten letter from the miracle runner. And, Newland says the letter is a "real masterpiece—really a dandy."

Landy gave Newland a few of his ideas, told the program he trained under and outlined a program he thought would be good for high school milers. Amazingly modest, the Australian, who ran the world's fastest mile, commented that there are "undoubtedly" better training programs.

GRIZZLIES STALL
Will the Ashland Grizzlies try the same tactics they used on Klamath Falls last Saturday, when they oppose the Southern Oregon loop pacer Medford high basketball aggregation this week end. The Grizzlies reportedly stalled for more than 15 minutes of the 32-minute fray with the Pelicans. They held the ball for better than four minutes twice and for almost six minutes once. Ashland had a 5 to 4 edge at the end of the first quarter but trailed by 14 to 5 at the half and by 43 to 21 at the end of the scrape.

FIGHTERS INVITED
Medford Police Athletic league boxers, Larry Lewis, Junior McDonald and Bobby Lyons were so impressive in the card last Saturday at Multnomah club that the AAU has invited the three of them and three other members of the Medford organization to meet the cream of Portland PAL on that group's annual show on February 26. The other Medfordites are Loren Christen, Jimmy Evans and Don Wolfe.

The Klamath tournament opens Thursday with the Panthers seeded No. 1 and Malin in No. 2 spot. Chiloquin rapped Sacred Heart 55 to 41 Friday to end its regular loop slate unbeaten.

Jackson's champion is being decided on regular league play with Rogue River and Talent now tied. They may be forced into a playoff on February 25.

Plans for the playoff between the two county representatives have not yet been worked out. Arrangements may be made this week by district committeemen, Leonard Walsh, Rogue River, chairman, Roy Parr, Talent, and Charles Steber, Bonanza.

San Francisco Leads UP Poll

OSC Holds 14th Spot

By NORMAN MILLER
New York (U.P.)—San Francisco, which smothered its opposition with defense and wraps its offense around All-American candidate Bill Russell led the United Press college basketball ratings today by a wide margin for the second week in a row.

The 35-man board of coaches which rates the teams weekly for the United Press moved up LaSalle (18-4) to within a single point of runnerup Kentucky (16-2) and returned Marquette (18-1) to a spot among the top 10 teams after an absence of one week.

Thirty coaches cast a No. 1 ballot for San Francisco, which ran its undefeated string to 17 games and its overall record to 19-1 by downing Santa Clara 66-52 Monday night.

These first place votes combined with two for second and one each for third, eighth and ninth places, gave the West Coast Donors 331 of a possible 350 points.

Wildcats Edge LaSalle
That total represented a margin of 110 points over Kentucky, Kentucky, with two first place ballots, barely edged LaSalle for second place, 221 points to 220.

Utah, ranked fifth this week, North Carolina State ranked seventh, and Marquette 10th were the only other teams that attracted first-place votes, with one each.

Marquette, the first "at-large" selection for this year's NCAA championship, regained its spot in the top 10 at the expense of Illinois which dropped to 11th place. The Warriors from Milwaukee won 18 straight games after dropping their season's opener.

Duquesne, with a 15-3 record and a berth in the National Invitation tournament moved up one notch to fourth place, swapping last week's ranking with Utah (18-3). Two other pairs among this week's top 10 also followed that process. UCLA (17-3) advanced to the No. 6 rating as North Carolina State (21-4) dropped to the next notch; and Minnesota (12-5) took over eighth place with George Washington (17-3) dropping to ninth. Illinois No. 11.

The coaches based their ratings on games played through Saturday night, Feb. 12.

Here is how the teams ranked by points behind LaSalle: Duquesne 172, Utah 163, UCLA 147, North Carolina State 143, Minnesota 121; George Washington 98 and Marquette 79.

Following Illinois in the second 10 group came Missouri, Iowa, Oregon State, Dayton, Cincinnati and Maryland in that order. St. Louis and Holy Cross were tied for 18th and Colorado was 20th.

Patty Berg Wins Play

St. Petersburg, Fla. (U.P.)—Three-putting isn't usually recommended for winning golf tournaments but veteran Patty Berg used that formula to insure herself the $1,000 first prize in the St. Petersburg Women's Open Tournament.

The St. Andrews, Ill., pro carded a 74 Monday for a 72-hole total of 292, which was one stroke better than runnerup Jackie Pung of Honolulu.

Miss Berg started the 369-yard final hole three strokes ahead of Mrs. Pung. Patty deliberately took three "safe" putts for a bogey five knowing that the best Mrs. Pung could manage would be a birdie that would still leave her one stroke short of a tie.

Beverly Hanson, the defending champion from Indio, Calif., began the final round only a stroke behind Miss Berg but took a 41 on the front nine and came in with a 35 to finish with a 76 that gave her a total of 295 for third place.

Babe Zaharias of Tampa, Fla., had a final round 72 to take fourth place with a 302 total.

The university of Minnesota's football stadium can accommodate about 66,000 persons and in its indoor basketball arena can take care of about 19,000, the latter would be a birdie that would still leave her one stroke short of a tie.
