Vienna Choir Boys To Give Operetta For Program Here

The celebrated Vienna Choir Boys, currently on their eleventh U. S. tour arranged by Impresario S. Hurok, will feature a costume operetta on their program when they appear at Medford Senior high school Monday, February 21.

The concert, divided into three parts, will open with a group of sacred songs written in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. After a brief intermission, some of the lads will change from sailor suits to high-heeled shoes, dresses and wigs for their costume operetta "Schubert's Practical Jokes." The program will conclude with secular music and folk songs.

The troupe of more than 20 boys, aged seven to fourteen years, are members of an organization which dates back to July 7, 1498 when Emperor Maximilian I established the choir by Imperial decree.

Subsidized by the Hapsburgs until the first World War, the group achieved fame throughout Europe. Haydn and Schubert were members of the Vienna Choir Boys until their voices changed.

Since the first World War, the choir has been supported by private funds, supplemented by the income derived from concert tours which began in 1926. The group is currently featured in the record-breaking "Cinerama."

Thousands of boys are brought to the institution each year by hopeful parents but only about 100 are accepted. The youngsters are housed and receive training not only in music but in all scholastic subjects. Headquarters of the choir is a former Imperial palace, converted since the war.

The Vienna Choir Boys will be presented locally by Jackson County Civic Music association. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Blue, Green Paint Hurries Kitchen Work, Says Color Expert

New York —(U.P.)— If you want to breeze through kitchen chores, paint the kitchen all blue or all green.

Faber Birren, color expert, says that the cool, retiring colors such as blue and green keep attention concentrated on the job at hand you enjoy literally living in the kitchen, then an all-yellow or all-rose-kitchen will drag out the time, making you linger longer over the chores.
