Your Health and Its Care

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.
Readers should address inquiries to: William Brady,
263 El Camino, Beverly Hills, Calif.

BURBANK ROLLED 'EM AT SEVENTY-FIVE

Now that the mystery of the new degree has been solved—you know, the degree P.H.D., which I dreamed up, but which no institution has seen fit to grant as yet—if any institution has an idea I beg to state that I, much as I'd like to be the first to receive the degree I shall not contribute one red cent for the distinction, but I might go as high as $1,000... I'd like to find out which of our readers has longest rolled what I have for years insisted on calling "somersaults" but now, since my favorite grandson came home from college, acknowledge are just plain old forward rolls.

The late great Luther Burbank celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary, about 1924 doing forward rolls on his lawn, as reported in news movies. He turned up his toes two years later. Just what took him I never learned, but anyway 77 is too young to turn up one's toes, unless by execution or accident. I made it clear, before I proposed the degree P. H. D., that I'd make no contribution, grant or gift, whether I received the degree or not.

Now I beg to announce that I offer no prize or award for the information, but I'll be delighted to hear from readers who have been doing morning rolls for years. I'd like to know how long you have practiced the silly stunt and effect you think it has had on your health. We had such a symposium here about twenty years ago, and some of the testimonials were so strong I dare not print 'em, lest some readers charge me with faking them.

This time I ask your permission to reveal your identity, in private letter, of course, if necessary to prove your statement is yours and not something conjured out of my imagination. In any case, I never take seriously an unsigned communication, opinion, comment or query. On the other hand I have never revealed the identity of a correspondent without his or her written consent.

If you feel too aged, infirm, stuffy or timid to roll your own, don't hold it against me—haven't I been urging you to curl up and roll like a hoop since Tony was a pup? Oh, so

Many Buying Tickets For Gold Hill Benefit

Gold Hill—The Linda Bowen benefit dance will be held Saturday night, Feb. 19, at Gold Hill Grange hall. Tickets are on sale at all business places in Gold Hill, Rogue River and surrounding communities. The response has been gratifying from all communities, however more contributions would be greatly appreciated, according to the sponsors. Money raised will go to the family of Linda to further her treatments and medical care needed before Linda can walk again. Contributions may be sent to Linda Bowen Fund P.O. Box X, Gold Hill. Ladies of the community are asked to bring pies. The pies can be left at any of the grocery stores in Gold Hill or may be brought to the Gold Hill Grange hall Saturday night.
