Rebuffals Opened In Hillsboro Trial

Hillsboro, Ore.—(U.P.)—Rebuffals were opened by the state today in the murder trial of 17-year-old Jerry Dodele, a Timber youth accused of shooting a 64-year-old Timber railroad mechanic last Nov. 11.

Defense Attorney Irwin Goodman rested his case yesterday afternoon after Dodele testified that he had drunk eight or nine bottles of beer against his will the afternoon of Nov. 11.

He testified he then went home and said he didn't remember what happened that night. He said he didn't recall borrowing a .22-caliber rifle from Ricardo Marquez, a Timber neighbor, before going home.

District Attorney James Gardner said the case would probably go to the jury on Monday.

HEC Meeting—Next meeting of the newly organized Willow Spring Home Economics club is scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 22, at the home of Mrs. Roy Colpitts, old Highway 99. Anyone interested in joining the group is invited. The club was organized Feb. 15.

Visit Tribune—Members of Cub Pack 8, Den 6, visited The Mail Tribune offices and plant yesterday afternoon. Making the tour were Robert Taylor, Michael Brown, Bobby Edwards, Danny Turpin, Richard Rose, Larry Shore, with one of their leaders, Mrs. George Edwards.

Beef Weighing—Beef animals of the Antelope 4-H club will be weighed at 9 a.m. tomorrow at the E. A. Malloroy farm near Eagle Point, according to Glenn Klein, 4-H extension agent. Primary purpose of the weighing will be to see who will qualify for entry to the Cow palace exhibition later in the spring at San Francisco, he said.

At Sacred Heart—Four surgery patients were reported today at Sacred Heart hospital. They are Joan Elaine Anders, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Anders, 57 Quince st.; Kathleen Newton, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newton, Ft. Jones, Calif.; Jim Sutherland, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sutherland, Ashland, and Miss Velma Brock, 1415 South Holly st. Listed as a medical patient is Julius Manke, route 2, box 38A, Medford.

Plan Dance—Jackson County Shrine club will hold the annual spring dance tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock in the basement of the Medford hotel. Dancing will be from 8:30 p.m. until 1 a.m. to the music of L. A. Mirick's orchestra and entertainment has been planned. A buffet supper will be served beginning at 11:30 p.m. Women are to wear formal dress, but formal attire is optional for men. The dance is for Shriners only.

Services Saturday At Klamath Falls For John McCall

Klamath Falls—Funeral services will be held here Saturday for John Applegate McCall, grandson of Lindsay Applegate. Mr. McCall died Wednesday in Klamath Falls.

Mr. McCall was born in Ashland on Jan. 9, 1875, the son of Capt. John Marshall McCall and Theresa Applegate McCall.

His grandfather, Lindsay Applegate, and his grandfather's brother, Jesse Applegate, led a party of explorers in the spring of 1846, to locate a wagon road for immigrants to Oregon by way of Fort Hall on the Snake river.

Mr. McCall's uncle, Capt. Oliver Applegate, was for a time editor of the Ashland Tidings, in which Lindsay Applegate's report of the expedition was published in 1877 and 1878.

John Applegate McCall lived in Ashland until his early 20's, when he moved to Redding, Calif., as an agent with the Wells Fargo company. Later he lived in St. Helena, Calif., before moving to Klamath Falls.

Among the survivors are his wife, Ruby Hillis McCall, Klamath Falls; a sister, Lydia T. McCall, and a foster sister, Mrs. Anna Wagner, both of Ashland.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 19, from O'Hair's Memorial chapel, Klamath Falls Lodge 77, AF & AM will be in charge of rites. Grave-side services and interment will be in the old Ashland cemetery.

Liquor Commission Employee Resigns

Salem—(U.P.)—Officials of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission today declined to identify a commission employee who resigned after being charged with solicitation of a bribe. They said the unidentified employee had denied the charge.

A report disclosing evidence of padded expense accounts and acceptance of gifts by employees was made public here yesterday by Gov. Paul Patterson who said he had personally delivered the report to the Multnomah county district attorney.

An investigation was ordered months ago by Gov. Patterson when commission employees were under fire for accepting gifts from distillery interests.
