Southwest Loop Chase In Scramble

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer
A senior one-two scoring punch kept Colorado's stampeding Buffaloes on top of the Big Seven race today, but some sophomore hijinks by a lad named Jerry Mallett threw the Southwest conference race into a tangle.

around by the Klamath Falls handyman for his efforts. However, Hussane says things will be different this time and has promised Davidson a beating he will long remember.
Ella Kowalski and Gerry Hunter, who went to a draw on the inaugural card, returned for an encore over the no-time-limit route with two falls deciding.
Miss Kowalski claims Davidson's refereeing interfered with her best efforts and claims she can defeat the blonde bombshell with another official in the ring. Tickets are on sale at Rogue restaurant, 42 South Central ave.

Portlanders Dominate in Mitt Hassle

Seattle — (U.P.)—Portland boxers dominated the 20th annual Northwest golden gloves championships here last night taking titles in 6 of the 10 divisions.
Fred Robinson, University of Washington, took the heavyweight title when he knocked out Keith Hanson, University of Washington, in 40 seconds of the first round.
Rod Graddon, Seattle, scored a major upset by decisioning Jack Puscas of Eugene, Ore., in the semi-finals then going on to win the featherweight crown with a decision over Burt Singer Ramblers, Portland.
In the bantamweight class, Lloyd Dupas, Vancouver, B. C., topped Max Ableman, Seattle, and in the flyweight division George Hobson of Everett decisioned Al Richardson of Paine field.

Lightweight Jim Cassidy, Multnomah A. C., Portland, started the Portland parade with a title victory over Louis Cappellano of Fort Lewis.
Denny Moyer, Ramblers, Portland, decisioned Wardell Jackson, Fort Lewis, to cap the lightweight-weight crown while Tommy Thomas, Portland Air Base, knocked out Bob Witte, Everett, in the first round for the welterweight title.
Phil Moyer, Ramblers, Portland, decisioned Bill Miller, Century A. C. Seattle, for the light-middleweight title and Chuck Lincoln, PAL, Portland, decisioned Charley Hays, Fort Lewis, to win the middleweight crown.
The sixth Portland winner was Don Murray who knocked out Harlan Harrison, Tacoma, in the second round to take the lightweight-heavyweight title.

Miss Kowalski claims Davidson's refereeing interfered with her best efforts and claims she can defeat the blonde bombshell with another official in the ring. Tickets are on sale at Rogue restaurant, 42 South Central ave.

Colorado thus stands one full game ahead of Missouri, each having three games to play, and the two teams are headed toward a dramatic clash on Missouri's court next Monday.

Lopes Gets TKO Over P. Bassett

Sacramento, Calif. — (U.P.)—Joey Lopes of Sacramento split open the left eye of Percy Bassett of Philadelphia last night to win a surprising third round technical knockout over the featherweight contender.
Lopes, 132, changed from his usual aggressive tactics to counter-punching from the inside to stop Bassett's sharp opening attack in the scheduled 10 rounder.
The California fighter slammed the 130½-pound Bassett with a vicious series of left and right uppercuts. One hard right opened Bassett's eye midway in the first round and ring physician Max Isword halted the bout at the close of the second.
Jarring Blows
Bassett, former interim featherweight champion and number two contender for the crown, smacked Lopes with several jarring blows during the first round. But he was no match for the quick-footed Californian.
Prior to the fight Bassett claimed a record of 40 knockouts in 73 fights. He has been a constant threat to titholder Sandy Saddler.

POINTS HIS AIM
Greenwood Lake, N. Y. — (U.P.) Featherweight challenger Teddy (Red Top) Davis today admitted he hopes to win Friday night's title fight with champion Sandy Saddler on points. "I'm not going to try to knock out Sandy... I'm going to try to outpoint him," Davis said.

Gavilan Warms For Constance

Miami Beach, Fla. — (U.P.)—Cuban Kid Gavilan warmed up his bolo punch today and promised to make Hector Constance of Trinidad the second victim in his bid to regain the world welterweight crown.
The 92-year-old "Keed" was rated a 2 to 1 favorite to whip Trinidad's welterweight king in tonight's 10-round nationally televised bout at the Miami Beach Auditorium. A sellout crowd of 3,700 fans is expected.
Gavilan's trainer, Mundito Medina, said his fighter considers the bout a "stepping stone back to the title" and would go all-out to win. Gavilan lost the welter crown to Johnny Saxton via a decision in Philadelphia Oct. 30.

Tornado Cagers Boost Averages In Series With Ashland Quintet

Medford high's rip-roaring basketball aggregation boosted its per-game point making average and its field goal and free throw shooting marks in its two-game stand with Ashland last week end. Its defensive average, however, slipped a notch.
The Black Tornado's 84 and 82-point productions over the Grizzlies brought its season total to 1331 counters and upped the per-contest scoring figure to 66.55 compared to 64.7 before the two games. Defensive average for 20 games is now 46.4. Before the Ashland series it was 45.9. Opponents have scored 928 points against Medford.
In the second Ashland game the Tornado was off its season average in field goaling with a .407 result but Medford had fired .515 the night before and that upped the season mark to .434. It had been .431. The Tornado has made 501 of 1153 field goal tries.
At the free line the average is .602 up from .597 the week before. A total of 329 free shots have been made out of 546 attempts.
Ashland's 57 points Saturday were the most that have been scored on Medford in the conference.

Coppie Tops List
In individual statistics it still is Larry Coppie leading the team in total points, average per game and field goals. He has 338 markers for the season, an average of 16.9 per scuffle. Coppie has put in 140 field shots.
Frank Rector still ranks as second high scorer with 257 and has a 12.85 game average. Kalapus is on Rector's heels with 251 and a 12.55 standing per game. Kalapus is the top free tosser with 81. He also has the most personal fouls with 64.
Also among the regulars Glenn Peterson has 169 points and Bud Kastner 150.
The Tornado, which plays Klamath Falls this week in its final Southern Oregon conference series, was worried yesterday when Kalapus broke his glasses and got glass in his eye. The particles were cleaned out, however, and the 6-foot 4½-inch hoopman was pronounced okeh.
Except for a squad meeting, Monday was a day off for the Tornado but Coach Frank Rectorland had his crew back at it last night.

Eagle Point high cagers, hampered some by the flu bug, were shaping up today and Phoenix pondered the effects of lack of practice as the two clubs look toward their Little Six conflict.
The Eagles and Pirates open the Little Six subdistrict tournament at Eagle Point on Thursday with a 7 p.m. game. Mo Connolly Will Retire

San Diego, Calif. — (U.P.)—Maureen Connolly, 20 years old and already one of the all-time tennis greats, said today she is retiring from the courts because "that old spark" is gone and because she wants to get married.
Miss Connolly, who has been sidelined since breaking her leg in a horse riding accident last year said she plans to marry Norman Brinker, 23, a member of the U. S. Olympic Games equestrian team, in June.
The three times Wimbledon champion and the youngest player to ever win the U. S. title denied that the leg injury prompted her decision, and indicated she would not give up her women's prerogative of changing her mind at some later date.
Miss Connolly vaulted to the top of women's amateur tennis ranks in 1951 at Forest Hills, N.Y., when she won the U. S. title with the devastating strokes that earned her the nickname "Little Mo." In successive years and until her accident, Maureen won nearly every tournament she entered.
