PROMOTED

Norman G. Bursing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bursing, has been promoted to the rank of Airman second class. He entered the Air Force April 3, 1953, and currently is stationed at Elmendorf Air Force base, Alaska, where he is a mechanic for the 71st air rescue squadron, according to an Air Force release.

IN HAWAII

Marine Pfc. Gerald E. Mercer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Mercer, 948 Kenyon ave., arrived in Hawaii from Japan early in February with the 4th Marines, infantry regiment of the 3rd Marine division, according to a fleet home town news center release. They will be stationed at Kaneohe bay on the island of Oahu, T.H. They formerly were based at Camp Nara, near Osaka, Japan.

RETURNING

Pfc. Garrett G. Stevens, Route 3, Medford, is to return this month from Kaneohe bay, Hawaii, with the 1st provisional amphibious reconnaissance group of the Marine corps, according to a release from the former station. The group will return to its home base at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

AT SCHOOL

Airman Third Class Charles H. Hollis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hollis, 510 Mae st., is attending the Navy preparatory school at the Bainbridge, Md., Navy training center. He is a member of the Air Force. The school provides an intensive nine month course of instruction for members of the Armed forces on active duty who have been nominated for appointment to the Navy academy, according to a Navy release.

AT SAN DIEGO

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nyberg, Old Stage rd., Central Point, have received news from their son, Merle Nyberg, that he has arrived at the Navy training center at San Diego, Calif.
