

Gold Hill Church Scene of Revival

The Rev. Rinke A. Feenstra and his wife will be in Gold Hill for a week of evangelistic meetings to be held at the Methodist church, assisting the local pastor, the Rev. Gerald W. Gear, beginning Sunday night, Feb. 27. Both are ordained ministers of the church, and have served over 30 years in the Oregon conference.

The Rev. Mr. Feenstra was born and raised in Holland. He was 21 when he came to western United States, and secured a homestead in the Quincy basin of central Washington.

Mrs. Feenstra's parents were Oregon pioneers and came here in 1845. They settled near Albany.

After the Feenstra's were married, they attended an interdenominational Bible training school, the Chicago Evangelistic institute.

They are retired from the active ministry.

Sunday night Rev. Feenstra's message will deal with the importance of every person, "There is Gold in These Hills."

Monday night Mrs. Feenstra will give a testimony based on "New Life in Christ" by Charles Lamson.

Tuesday night Mr. Feenstra will speak on "Jacob the Wrestler," and "Names Make News," Wednesday, "David, the Giant Killer," Thursday, "Choose the God who Answers by Fire," and Friday, "These All Obtained a Good Report by Faith."

Baptist League To Conduct Services

The Senior Baptist league of high school and college age young people will have charge of the 7:30 p.m., service of the First Baptist church on Sunday evening. The theme for the service will be "Lower Lights," taken from the hymn, "Let the Lower Lights be Burning."

Youth speakers will be Ted Landers, Darlene Neeley, and Louis Nesberg. Sonja Peterson will be organist; Glen Lamb, pianist; and Ned Landers, song leader.

Stanley Kee, president of the youth group, will give the greeting and lead in the evening prayer. Mrs. Ted Graham will lead the youth choir and other music will be provided by an instrumental trio, male quartet, and solo by Emily Gannaway.

Dr. J. Charles MacDonald, guest minister, will speak at the worship hour at 11 a.m. His sermon will be entitled, "Nevertheless, God!" The public is invited to attend both services, the Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. and Baptist leagues at 6:45 p.m.

Delegates To Attend Methodist Services

About 125 delegates will attend a midwinter conference of the Eugene district Wesleyan service guilds at the First Methodist church, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 26 and 27. Delegates will worship with the congregation on Sunday morning when Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb will preach on the theme, "The Unfinished Business of Peace" in connection with Methodism's nationwide Crusade for World Order.

Miss Deh Hua Hang, a native of Singapore, China, now being sponsored at Willamette university by the Wesleyan service guilds of Oregon, will be a special guest and will offer an organ recital at 10:45 p.m. Sunday. Arrangements for the meeting have been made by Mrs. C. R. Adamson, district secretary.

At the evening School of Christian Living with its inter-district groups for the entire family, Dr. Balcomb will speak to the "Marriage Clinic" on the theme, "Pastoral Counseling"; Dr. J. Thomas Dixon will conclude the study of the Book of Revelation; and Herb Sampert, lay leader, will be in charge of the adult Membership class. Snack supper will be served by the Builders class at 6 p.m. and the Rev. Mrs. Gorbey will be in charge of the family worship period at 7:30, and will speak on "Strength and Courage."

The Rev. David L. Roehl recently arrived in Medford from Whitefield, N. H., to assume pastorate of the local Advent Christian church.

He is formerly of Weiser, Ida., and is a 1949 graduate of the high school there. He attended the New England School of Theology in Brookline, Mass., and at Whitefield he was pastor for nearly two years of the Advent Christian church there. He was active in the New Hampshire conference and he also was president of the Youth in Christ rallies in his district.

Nazarene Musical Series Will Open

The first in a series of monthly musical programs will be presented in the Sunday evening service at the Church of the Nazarene.

Eleven various vocal ensembles will sing only the music of Mrs. C. H. Morris, considered to be one of the greatest of gospel song writers. Sketches of her life will be interwoven between the various musical selections.

Mrs. Morris wrote not only the words to her songs but the music as well, including the harmony. In the Sunday school hour, Homecoming day will be observed as each class rallies to have perfect attendance for the occasion. At the morning worship hour, the choir will sing and Donna Goble will furnish a new gospel song. The Rev. Hurn's message will be, "God's Anointing."

Topic for Lenten Series Announced

At the Congregational church Sunday, the Rev. Thomas McCamant will begin a Lenten series of sermons on the general topic, "Words."

The words to be discussed will be words commonly used in describing the Christian way, but not always commonly understood. The topic of the first sermon will be "Faith."

Future topics to be taken up will depend partly on expressions of interest by members of the congregation, but they may include such words as, "Holiness," "Salvation," "Grace" and "Eternal Life."

The Congregational church will join in a teaching mission beginning this week and the Rev. Walter J. McGettigan, pastor of the Cedar Hills Community church, near Portland, will be the guest leader. His church is also a new church, the Congregational church most recently organized before the Medford church.

Sharing Program Will Open Sunday

The One Great Hour of Sharing program, in which all denominations are uniting, will begin Sunday in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. D. K. West will tell how he distributed to the needy in China the proceeds from these gifts.

He will preach at the morning services on "Men With God-Touched Hearts."

The Churchmanship class, which is open to all who would like to know more about what church membership means, will meet at 5 p.m. At the evening service a film entitled, "What is a Christian?" will be shown. The Westminster Fellowship topic will be, "What is Sin?" and will be led by Miss Deanna Bruning and Miss Janet Jamison. Fireside will be at the home of Miss Deanna Campbell at 206 Girard dr.

Balcomb, of the First Methodist church will be the moderator, and the Rev. Elmore J. Gilstrap, of the Central Church of Christ and Lt. George Johnstone, of the Salvation Army will be members of the panel.

Former Doolittle Flyer Film Subject

Prospect—The motion picture, "De Shazer," will be shown Sunday, Feb. 27 at 7:30 p.m., at the Prospect Church of the Nazarene. It concerns Sgt. Jacob De Shazer, one of General Doolittle's flyers who bombed Japan during World War II and who was shot down and held prisoner by the Japanese with his fellow Americans on the raid. The sergeant now is a missionary.

The story of the men's capture behind enemy lines and the treatment they received is told in the film.

Sergeant De Shazer's sister, Miss Helen Andras, taught school at Prospect for a number of years. His mother lives at Madras, Ore. Last year he was flown back to the United States from his missionary work to attend a Doolittle reunion and they voted to assist him in supporting his work as a missionary.

Fellowship Services Plan at Pines Church

Fellowship services will be held Saturday, Feb. 26, at "The Church in the Pines," located on Blackwell hill two miles south of Gold Hill.

The Rev. Delbert Wesley Casey and the Rev. Catherine Casey, co-pastors, invite the public to attend. The first service will open at 3 p.m. and a basket lunch will be served at 5:30 p.m.

The second service will start at 7 p.m. and a Bible film entitled "The Story of the Prodigal Son," will be shown at 8:30 p.m.

TO CONVENTION
Ashland—M. Homer Thompson, pastor of the Ashland Assembly of God church and several Sunday school workers are to leave Monday for Seattle to attend a regional Sunday school convention of the denomination. The Rev. Mr. Thompson will represent 24 church schools of this section.

Sunday School and Church attendance are at the basis of happy homes. Your desire for a happy family life will be shown by your faithfulness in attending both Sunday School and Church services.
