Moscow, Ida. — (U.P.) — Washington took advantage of its superior height and better shooting to down a hard-fighting Idaho basketball team 84-76 in a Northern Division game Friday night.

Idaho scored first on a field goal by Harlan Melton, but Washington took the lead within two minutes on two field goals by Guard Doyle Perkins and led the rest of the way.

Oregon controlled the early moments of the game, leading 13-7 with the first period half played. The Beavers caught fire, however, and at halftime led 30-18.

At the start of the second period, the Beavers went ahead by 16 points, at 34-18, but Oregon narrowed the score to five points at the ten-minute mark.

With three minutes left, Oregon State went into a stall to preserve its victory.

The Beavers, who have won all three games with Oregon so far this season, led slightly in scoring percentages. OSC sank 38 per cent of its field goals, while the Ducks made 30 per cent.

Loscutt retained the division scoring lead with 287 points. Dean Parsons of Washington, who got 24 against Idaho last night, has 282 and Halbrook has 275.

Saddler Easy Winner Over Teddy Davis

By JACK CUDDY
New York —(U.P.)— Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler, easy conqueror of challenger Teddy (Red Top) Davis, sought a crack at the lightweight crown today.

Agreeing that Saddler would be an excellent lightweight contender, Managing Director Harry Markson of the International Boxing Club said, "We would like to have Sandy challenge Jimmy Carter for the lightweight title in May."

Skinny Saddler lacked his old-time accuracy Friday night as he made his first defense of the 126-pound crown in more than three years; but he won in such lopsided fashion over top contender Davis that he stands out like a giant in the feather class.

His long left jab and bursts of left uppercuts at close quarters won the unanimous 15-round decision like a 100-1 choice instead of a mere 9-5 favorite.

Elongated Saddler, scaling 124 1/2 pounds to Red Top's 126, was unable to floor the 31-year-old challenger, but he had the right side of Red Top's face so swollen that he looked like a man with the mumps. The champion bled from his lower lip after the eighth round.

Johnny Moore scored 21 points for the winners to take high honors, followed by Morrie Taft with 20. Tony Paalis and Roy Irvin each had 17 for USC.

Down south, the Sanford Indians defeated California, 90-84, despite a record-breaking performance by Cal's Bob McKeen. The tall center scored 30 points for a new season record of 249.

USC's Bill Sharman set the old division record of 238 in 1950.
