Two Hurt as Car, Bus Collide; Three Mishaps Reported

Two people received minor injuries Saturday afternoon in a collision between a Trailways bus and a station wagon, according to state police. Two other minor collisions in Jackson county were reported.

The accident in which the bus was involved occurred at about 4:40 p. m. near Siskiyou summit on Highway 99. Police said a station wagon operated by Albert W. Holm, Seattle, collided almost head-on with a Continental Trailways bus driven by Willard E. Wright, Carmichael, Calif. Both vehicles were moving slowly, officers stated.

Vehicle Skidded
The accident occurred as the bus was pulling around a furniture truck, which was stalled at the side of the highway. Holm attempted to slow down, and his vehicle skidded into the bus. Holm and his wife, Lillian, received minor injuries, police said. Ida Peters, Los Angeles, a passenger in the station wagon, was not hurt.

The station wagon, which was heavily damaged, was towed to Ashland. Only minor damage to the bus was reported.

Four Vehicles Crash
Four vehicles, including a large truck and trailer, were involved in a collision Sunday morning at Birdseye creek bridge on Highway 99 west of Gold Hill. Police said cars driven by Donald E. Kusler, Kennewick, Wash., and Lola Roney, Grants Pass, collided at the bridge, and seconds later a Los Angeles-Seattle Motor Express truck and trailer, operated by Harry C. Tummers, Grants Pass, was involved in a collision with a car operated by Donald R. Robinson, Sheridan, Ill.

The truck pulled onto a soft shoulder following the accident, and police said the services of three wreckers were necessary to get the truck back on the road. The vehicle did not overturn.

The third accident happened at about 5 p. m. on Highway 99 south of the Jackson county fairgrounds. Drivers of the cars involved in the mishap were John Oliver Stallings, 20 Portland ave., Medford, and Alvin Lisonbee, Grants Pass.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—NINE

Woman Found Guilty After Three-Day Trial

A woman was found guilty by a jury Saturday after a three-day trial on a charge of drunk driving. Sentencing on the verdict has been set by District Judge Rawles Moore for 2 p.m., Wednesday.

Mrs. Gail C. Watkins, 35, Medford, was charged with the citation by a private citizen, William F. Allen. The complaint grew out of a vehicle accident Dec. 18 at the intersection of Highway 99 and the Jacksonville-Phoenix rd.

The defendant was allowed until 10 a.m., Mar. 12 to file a new trial motion, and Judge Moore set Mar. 14 as the date to hear arguments on the motion.

Attorney O. H. Bengston represented Mrs. Watkins, and District Attorney Walter Nunley and Deputy Gene Piazza appeared for the state.

DYNAMIC, cigar smoking sculptress Fiore de Henriquez, native of Trieste, arrives in U. S. to begin designs for a modern art museum Huntington Hartford plans to build on his Los Angeles estate costing several hundred thousand dollars. (International)
