

Prospect PTA Holds Meeting On Anniversary

Prospect — Prospect Parent-Teacher association celebrated the 58th founding of PTA during the February monthly meeting in the high school gymnasium.

Mrs. George Hubbard, Founder's day chairman and 1952-53 past president, conducted the meeting in the absence of William Hunter.

The buffet table was covered with a hand made lace tablecloth and decorated with yellow daffodils and purple candles, the PTA colors. There was the usual large cake traditionally decorated by one of the local members. Mrs. James Griesevs poured and Mrs. Frances Pearson served the cake.

The refreshments were provided by mothers of pupils in the third grade. Corsages were presented to the honored guests.

One of the past presidents honored was Mrs. Madeline Hailley, high school girls physical education instructor, who was president during 1951-52 at Simi, Calif.

The high school mixed chorus sang, directed by Darrell Langevin, music instructor. There were two solos, one by Darwin Beans on the trombone and the other by Ron Harrigan on the flute.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Clarence Hedgpeth, Mrs. William Gaines, Mrs. William Wheeler, and Mrs. Dave Neville were elected to the nominating committee.

House Brothers Quartet Plans Radio, TV Shows

Klamath Falls — The House brothers of Klamath county, well-known quartet who have appeared throughout southern Oregon several times in SPEBS-QSA annual harmony shows, have been engaged to record, appear in television shows, and on radio and make personal tours. They will headquarter at Sacramento, Calif., and will move there this week with their families.

The brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. House of Langell valley, have been singing together publicly since 1948, with the quartet society and for various groups. They have ranches for the past 10 years in Klamath county except for periods of service in World War II.

Society and Clubs

Evans Valley Club Plans Luncheon

Evans Valley—Evans Valley Garden club has planned a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Claire Douglas March 23. A charge will be made. Mrs. John Goldt will be cohostess. Dessert will be angle food cake baked by Mrs. Robert Wales.

Thirteen members and two guests, Mrs. Ernest Runyon and Mrs. Calvin Chancier, attended the February meeting at the home of Mrs. Louise Bond. Mrs. Thomas Mauchline was cohostess.

Mrs. Ernest Runyon explained that gloxinia tubers should be planted with the round side down and leaving one half the tuber out of the soil. Mrs. Runyon presented slides showing the form and color of her hybrid American, Belgian and Dutch gloxinias.

Mrs. Claire Douglas showed a streptocarpus plant from her greenhouse. The streptocarpus is a stemless South African herb with blue or purple gloxinia like blooms commonly known as the cape primrose.

Mrs. Louis Bond accepted the chairmanship of the coming flower show after Mrs. Douglas' resignation.

Mrs. Runyon invited everyone to exhibit spring flowers in the coming spring festival to be held at the fair grounds in Grants Pass, April 2 and 3.

Girl Scouts

Ceremony Held

Brownies of Troop 181 received their pins at an investiture service held in Sacred Heart church February 14. Flag bearer was Michele Ely and color guards were Linda Strobel and Jeanne Rossi. Mothers were invited to attend the service.

A valentine party was held in the Parish hall after the ceremony. The Brownies served their mothers coffee and heart-shaped cookies made by Mrs. Lewis Simpson, Mrs. John Doughtery, Mrs. Charles Ely and Mrs. Harry Duncan.

Mrs. Cecil Hendricks is leader of the troop with Mrs. J. J. Lydon, Ms. Arnold Depner and Mrs. Lyle Jarmin as assistants.

Brownies Meet

Brownie Scout Troop 168 of Jacksonville met at the home of Mrs. Pete Sumner February 22. Second year pendants were awarded and two new members, Crystal Johnson and Judy Stewart were invested into the troop. Mothers of the girls were guests for the tea which followed. Mrs. Pete Zimmerman is their leader and Mrs. E. L. Rasmussen assists.

Troop 19 of Roosevelt school observed "Thinking day" by a visit from Mrs. A. H. Hiebert, a native of Germany who has lived here four years. Thinking day is one day in the year when all Girl Scouts think of other countries. Mrs. Hiebert answered questions about habits and customs of her native land.

Later the girls of this troop gave a tea for their mothers at the home of Mrs. Walter Andersen. They had charge of making introductions, serving refreshments and arranging decorations of pussy willows and yellow carnations. Mrs. R. B. Temple, neighborhood chairman, was also a guest.

Mrs. W. E. Acord is leader of this troop.

VFW Auxiliaries Sponsor Program; Visit Camp White

Shady Cove—The auxiliary to Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has joined auxiliaries throughout the nation in sponsoring a series of radio programs about American heroes entitled "The Man and the Moment."

The first broadcast will be March 2 at 6:15 p.m. over KMED and the series will continue for 13 weeks. The first program is entitled "The Winter of Despair" and is about George Washington.

Steelhead auxiliary has contacted schools in Eagle Point, Butte Falls, Prospect, Trail and Shady Cove with suggestions for their students to report on the broadcasts, and to hold discussions and contests based in the program material.

Several members of Steelhead auxiliary paid a visit to the Camp White domiciliary Friday to join in games and songs with members of the domiciliary.

Attending were Mrs. Jim Cassal, auxiliary hospital chairman; Mr. Cassell, post hospital chairman; Mrs. Ed Leaming, Francis Miller, Mrs. Clara Thurman and Mrs. Russ Stelle, who played the piano for group singing. The visit of the auxiliary to the domiciliary will be March 11.

Scout Unit Reactivation

Jacksonville — Reactivation of a Boy Scout troop in the Jacksonville school district will be discussed at a meeting set for Friday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. in Jacksonville community hall.

Bruce Blew, member of Jacksonville Lions club, is chairman of the reactivation, and he urges all parents and interested persons to attend. Unless a program and meetings are started at once the troop will lose its charter, Blew stated.

Anyone interested in further information may call Blew at 3-3980, Medford.

Our fault

We did it and we're sad! We left you in a mess, up to your elbows in hot, soapy water trying to get those dirty wood floors clean—simply because we thought everyone had heard about Bruce Cleaning Wax. How in one neat 'n' easy operation Bruce Cleaning Wax thoroughly cleans and waxes floors—without messy, harmful floorwashing of any kind. And how floors sparkle with joy for months afterward. Try Bruce Cleaning Wax for wood floors or Bruce Floor Cleaner with lighter wax base for both linoleum and wood. Just remember those wonderful easy results are our fault too!
