More than 392,000 Camp Fire Girls from coast to coast will join in observing the 45th anniversary of the founding of their organization during the week of March 13 to 20.

Keyed to the theme, "Let Freedom Ring," birthday week activities will set the pace for the year's program, according to Mrs. Harold H. Hartman, national president of Camp Fire Girls, Inc.

"In selecting the freedom theme for our year's activities, we will help our junior citizens to appreciate the fact that we must all work together to keep freedom strong," Mrs. Hartman said.

"If our cherished ideals are to remain the bulwark our forefathers envisioned them to be," she added, "every individual will have to make himself responsible."

Birthday week will be highlighted by special projects which will serve to make American history come alive for the three age groups served by Camp Fire (Blue Birds, seven to 10; Camp Fire Girls, 10 to 15, and Horizon clubs, 15 to 18).

At group meetings and parties, "We Are There" pageants will depict great moments of America's past. Short skits based on the lives of the country's "freedom bell ringers" will introduce the girls first-hand to the struggles of the founding.

Camp Fire Girls will have adult guidance in carrying out their birthday project. There are more than 4,000,000 interested "alumnae" of Camp Fire, as well as thousands of adult leaders, counselors and volunteers.

Camp Fire Girls, Inc. is the oldest youth organization in America serving the leisure-time needs of girls from seven to 18 of every race and religion with a program designed to help the individual girl realize her fullest potentialities. Founded in 1910 by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick and other distinguished educators, Camp Fire has groups in more than 3,000 communities in the United States and has made its program available to youth in Alaska, Canada, Spain, the Philippines, Saudi Arabia, England, Austria, El Salvador, Chile, Japan, Germany, Indo-China, Java and Mexico.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower is honorary president of Camp Fire Girls, and honorary vice-presidents are former presidents Harry S. Truman and Herbert Hoover.

Two Women Win Grants From Altrusa

The names of two Jackson county women who have been selected to receive vocational training grant awards from the Medford chapter of Altrusa International, service club, were announced today by Mrs. Bertha Haskins, president of the local chapter.

Mrs. Mildred Marshal, Rogue River, a grade school teacher before her marriage, will receive a grant to enter Southern Oregon college March 21 to obtain credits sufficient to renew her teaching certificate. She expects to be ready for teaching at the beginning of the fall term. Widowed by the death of her husband, Frank Marshal, last year, Mrs. Marshal, who has raised seven children, was left with the responsibility of supporting herself and her remaining two dependent children, a boy age 14 and an invalid daughter, age 17.

Mrs. Gladys Chapin, 227 Laurel street, Medford, the wife of a disabled WWI veteran, has raised four children the youngest of whom has been called to military service. In order to give her husband needed daytime care, Mrs. Chapin will receive a grant to enter night school at Robertson Business college to take a refresher course in preparation for reentering the stenographic field to earn her living.

Besides these two local training grants, the vocational committee is forwarding the applications of two women, one from Medford and one from Ashland, to the international Altrusa vocational committee as recommended candidates for national grants to train as practical nurses. If approved, these two women will enter a training school in September. Two other applicants of the 14 received were found eligible for the Oregon state rehabilitation program and will soon begin training under that program, to which they were referred by the committee.

The work of Altrusa in behalf of the older woman who must seek reemployment after several years absence from the business world has been highly commended by local social agencies.

Mrs. Enid Rankin heads the local vocational committee which selected Mrs. Marshal and Mrs. Chapin, and the committee is composed of 10 business, professional and executive women of the city.

Gown From Hollywood Movie To Be Worn in League Show

One frock to be shown at the spring style show of Medford Junior Service league will not be for sale. To add interest to the event, league members asked permission of Warner Brothers to show a dress worn by Dorothy Malone in "Young at Heart" and it will be modeled in the coming show by Mrs. Robert C. Taylor. The dress was designed by Howard Shoup.

The style show, with "Printemps au Paris" as the theme, will be held the afternoons of March 17 and 18, and the evening of March 18, with all three performances to be at Rogue Valley Country club. Funds earned will go for the support of the league's kindergarten for hard-hearing children.

Reservations are now being made at the club, telephone 2-5965. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. for the afternoon shows, and dinner at 7:30 p.m. for the evening show. The public is invited to attend.

With a Paris sidewalk scene as the setting, clothes from several valley shops will be modeled by league members and their children. Mrs. George Lewis will model for Bert Pree; Mrs. R. B. Thierolf for Jean Hart; Mrs. Frank Hopewell, Town and Country; Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr.; Mrs. C. H. Buffington, Adrienne; Mrs. Richard Reum, Burelson's; Mrs. Robert Cunningham, Pick's; Mrs. Walter A. Graff, Leon's; Mrs. Donald Herried, Fashionette; Mrs. Edward Collins, Hadley's; Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, Mrs. T. N. Tibbitt, Mrs. Ralph Hibbs and Mrs. Fred Spiegelberg will make up the wedding party to model bridal clothes from Adrienne's shop. Children modeling will include Christine Bartels and Gregory Graff for Big Y Tot shop; Mark Spiegelberg and Mary Lynn Ellis, Mann's; Allan Collins and Sherry Baker, Needlecraft; Connie Herman and Lee Wimberly, Penny's store; Debbie Temple and Jimmie Cummins, Leon's.

In order that the modeling may be of a professional nature, league members are being coached by Mrs. Hopewell and Mrs. Buffington, both of whom are former professional models. Another innovation for the show this year will be special hair-styling for all models, and co-operating on this will be Cook's Beauty clinic, Lady Medford salon, East Side and Mann's salons, Victor's Craterian and Burelson's Beauty shop.

Jewelry for the shows will be provided by Brophy's store.

Junior Club
Degree of Honor Junior club will meet Saturday, March 12, at 10 a.m. in the Lincoln school gymnasium. Ritual practice will be held with a prize for members who have their memory work completed. Mrs. H. G. Wilson, director, states.
