

Minger-Padgett Ceremony Held in Central Point Home

Central Point—Miss Nola Ruth Padgett became the bride of Melvin Earl Minger in a ceremony held March 5 in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Padgett, 44 South Fourth street, Central Point. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Minger, 158 First street, Central Point.

Rites Wed Miss Barnes, Californian

Phoenix—Miss Lillian Jennie Barnes, daughter of Mrs. Agnes Barnes, 1545 Camp Baker road, became the bride of Eugene A. Sinks at an 8 o'clock evening ceremony March 5. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. J. Morris at Phoenix.

The bridegroom is a son of Claude A. Sinks, Chowchilla, Calif.

The Rev. Everett McGee of the First Christian church performed the rites which were attended by about 5 guests.

Miss Margaret Sinks, a sister of the bridegroom, was here from Seaside to be the maid of honor. Weston Barnes, a brother of the bride, was best man.

George Barnes, Ashland, another brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a light blue suit and carried a bouquet of red roses on a white ribbon.

Miss Sinks wore a pink nylon dress and her flowers were lavender carnations.

A reception was given by Mrs. Morris and the bride's mother. The bride was graduated in 1954 from Phoenix schools and the bridegroom, now serving with the Navy, attended schools in Medford.

The couple now are visiting with relatives at Seaside while on their wedding trip. They plan to return here Tuesday. The bride will remain to live at the home of her mother for the present while the bridegroom will return March 17 to his station at Norfolk, Va. He has been on a 30-day leave.

Mothers Plan State Meeting
The Oregon department convention of Blue Star Mothers of America will be held in Grants Pass Thursday, April 28, it has been announced. Mrs. Audree Joneschat, second vice-president of the national organization, will be our guest representing the national president, Mrs. Emma Hoffman.

The regular meeting of the Medford chapter will be held Thursday, March 17, at 2 p.m. in Carpenters' Local Union hall, 123½ West Main street. This will be a temporary meeting place until a vote can be taken. Delegates to the convention will be elected at this meeting.

Society Makes First Plans for Annual Luncheon

Plans now are being made for the annual Easter Monday luncheon which members of St. Anne's Altar society of Sacred Heart church give each spring.

This year the luncheon will be served at St. Mary's gymnasium to accommodate a larger crowd and will be served buffet style, as the annual event has been done for the past 30 years.

Mrs. John Laden has been named general chairman and she in turn has appointed her committees. Mrs. Thomas Eslinger will have charge of reservations; Mrs. James Miller, decorations; Mrs. David Lowry and Mrs. Clark Thomas, buffet table; Mrs. Paul Haviland, food; Mrs. William Scruggs, kitchen; Mrs. Frank Roelandt, hostesses, and Mrs. John Boyle and Mrs. Maurice Spatz, prizes.

Card table decorations will be directed by Mrs. R. A. Naumes; Mrs. Jerry Clarke, coffee; Mrs. James Finegan, cards, and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Betchard, transportation.

The Sunday committee chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Duff, and Mrs. James Dunlevy in charge of publicity.

Rogue Rangers Is Name for Riding Group

"Rogue Rangers" was selected as the name for the newly formed riding club in the area and the drill team will be known as the Rangerette drill team, according to an announcement made last week by the members.

The group decided on the names at a meeting March 10 at the Walt Young ranch house on Barnett road.

The next meeting to the club will be March 17, at 7:30 p.m., at the Young home.

During the meeting dues and liability insurance were discussed and a field day to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gibson on Barnett road was planned for Sunday, March 20. Members, invited guests and parents will attend.

Prospective members attending will be Jim Young, Aileen Dorn, Ann Baker, Pat Hilton, Carol Ballard, Carol Moldovan, Winnie Gorr, Lin May, Jack Hoffer and Danny Bergman.

League Show On Calendar This Week

Most important social event of the week is the annual spring style show of Medford Junior Service League. With "Printemps au Paris" as the theme, the show will be produced three times as a benefit for the league's kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children.

Dates and hours of the show are Thursday and Friday, March 17 and 18, with luncheons both days at 12:30 p.m. and an evening show Friday at 7 o'clock. All will be at Rogue Valley Country club.

Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels, Mrs. C. H. Buffington and Mrs. Floyd H. Baker are general chairmen for the show, which promises to be the most entertaining such event ever given by the league. Mrs. Emil Mohr is food chairman and Mrs. Buffington, Mrs. Frank Hopewell and Mrs. Lawrence Ellis are models chairmen, with the latter to take charge of the children in the show.

Decorations, Parisian in spirit, are being planned and executed by Mrs. John Reid, Mrs. Donald B. Whalin, Mrs. Donald Wood and Mrs. James Cummins. Mrs. Wright A. Scoville is invitations chairman, and Mrs. George Lewis and Mrs. Emil Mohr are program chairmen.

Mrs. Fred Spiegelberg and Mrs. Gordon Hudson are listed as chairmen of miscellaneous details and Mrs. Scoville will take charge of lighting.

The sale of flowers and perfume is an innovation for the show, and selling flowers will be Mrs. David Holmes and Mrs. H. S. Deuel Jr. Mrs. Robert Rector, Mrs. C. H. Herman Jr., Mrs. O. J. Halboth and Mrs. C. B. Collins will sell perfume.

The general public is invited to attend, and reservations may be made by calling the club, 2-5965.

Barnetts Attend Wedding of Son; Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Martin R. Barnett and children, Bruce and Barbara, 608 Stewart avenue, left Saturday for Chico, Calif., where they will attend the wedding today of their son, Richard Martin Barnett, to Miss Wynne Morton.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Phillips of McCleod, Calif., and the wedding is set for 2 o'clock this afternoon at Chico First Presbyterian church.

Saturday the group attended a reunion at Chico of Mrs. Barnett's family when four generations were together. The four generations included her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taber of Los Angeles, Mrs. Barnett, the Barnetts' eldest son, Wally Barnett, and his infant daughter, Sheri.

The Tabers will return here this evening with Barnetts to visit for several weeks. This will be their ninth annual visit to Medford.

The newly wedded couple also plan to visit here next week after a week's honeymoon trip. The bridegroom recently returned from Korea and Formosa on the USS Yorktown. He is a storekeeper with the Navy and was in the Far East for eight months. He took part in the Tachen evacuation. He has been with the Navy for about 3½ years.

Society Pledges Three Freshmen

Forest Grove — Three Pacific university freshmen from Medford were tapped for Intercollegiate Knights, national honorary service fraternity, at the IK Queen's ball last Saturday night.

Terrance Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hayes of 1307 Queen Ann avenue, Blake Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Maddox, 340 South Grove-land avenue and Ronald Wolff, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Wolff, 512 North Holly street, were selected on a basis of character, leadership, scholarship, activities, and willingness to be of service.

All three are graduates of Medford high school and are majoring in optometry.

Leaves
Mrs. John A. Lynch has returned to her home in Pasadena, Calif., after spending several days in Medford as a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lynch, 139 Kenwood avenue.

Student Nurse Air Force Officer Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Callahan, 607 South Holly street announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon L. Callahan, to Lt. James F. Moore of the United States Air Force. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Moore, formerly of Medford and now of Portland.

Miss Callahan is a junior at Portland university and St. Vincent's school of nursing in Portland. She is a member of Beta Beta Beta, national biology honor society, and Alpha Tau Delta, honor society for women in nursing. She was graduated from Medford High school in 1952.

Couple Here

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hanchett are weekend guests of Mrs. Hanchett's sister, Mrs. Bernice Kunzmann, 607 West Eighth street. They will leave tomorrow for their home in Wenatchee, Wash.

The Hanchetts are en route home after having visited relatives in Santa Clara county in California.

Dinner Honors Medford Woman

A dinner February 27 honored Mrs. Bettie Porter on her 82nd birthday. Mrs. Porter has lived in Medford since 1947, her home being on Sunset drive next door to her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hess.

The dinner was at the Hess home and attending were Mrs. E. B. Powelson, Castle Rock, Wash., another daughter; Mrs. Irene Albro and Mrs. Frances Pfouts, both from Eugene, sisters of Mrs. Porter; and a grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hess, a granddaughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. John Bean, Johnnie and Jayne Bean, are Mrs. Porter's only great-grandchildren.

Gifts were presented to the honored guest during the day. She is a native Oregonian and was born and lived at Eugene. Her parents were Andrew and Mary Ware Carson. Her father crossed the plains in 1850 and he mother in 1851. Mrs. Porter recalls Eugene as a small collection of four buildings.

Unable to be here for the occasion were a sister and brother also of Eugene, Mrs. Lila Adams and Henry Carson.

Elect
Joyce Gilinsky was named president of Freshman Tri-Hi-Y at elections held recently at the YMCA. Kathy Morse is the new vice-president; Wanda Oetken, secretary; Sharon Zundel, historian; LeAnna Bell, treasurer and Leilani Kunkel, chaplain.
