

Newlyweds Now Living In Ashland

Ashland — Miss Joyce Lynn Roberts of Ashland and Robert James DeGroot of Phoenix were married February 26 at Ashland Methodist church. After a wedding trip to California the newlyweds are living at 436 Wightman street in Ashland.

The bride, a teller at the Ashland branch of the First National bank of Portland, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Roberts, 265 Sixth street, Ashland. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph De Groot, live on south Pacific highway near Phoenix.

About 40 guests attended the 8 o'clock evening rites which were read by the Rev. Ross Knotts.

Mrs. Bonita Rettew, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Bruce Ryan was best man. For her wedding the bride wore an ice blue faille dress with matching hat and her bouquet was formed from pink rosebuds and a pink orchid.

Mrs. Rettew wore a navy blue dress with navy blue and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and miniature ivy.

The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and pink stock with white candles. The wedding reception was held in the church rooms and the refreshment table was decorated with pink and white carnations.

The bride attended schools in Klamath Falls, and Dunsuir, Calif. The bridegroom received his education at Wilmet and Salem, Wis. He is a barber and is employed at the C. L. Saylor shop.

Phoenix Women's Missionary Society Disbands After Thirty Year's Work

Phoenix — Women's Missionary society of the Phoenix Presbyterian church was disbanded at a meeting of the group March 7. The society has existed for many years and two women who had been members for 30 years were at the meeting. Others there had served the group for a number of years and were asked to speak giving a resume of the work done during their membership.

Housewarming Honors Couple

A housewarming party March 5 in the form of a surprise honored Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross at their new home on Old Stage road overlooking Highway 99. Over 45 persons attended and games were played during the evening.

Mrs. Robert Buckles of Medford made the cake served for refreshments which she decorated in an appropriate motif for the housewarming event. Other refreshments also were served and the couple was presented a gift.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Force, Mr. and Mrs. Don Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gail, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Densmore, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ritter, Glenn Miller and his mother, Mrs. Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson, all of Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vincent, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckles and daughter, Diana, Mr. and Mrs. William Reed and sons, Terry and Tommy, all of Medford; Mrs. Susie Coy, Mrs. Maude Coy, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moser, Mr. and Mrs. John Jaksch, and son Johnny, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Richardson, also all of Gold Hill.

Dr. and Mrs. William Roney formerly of Medford and now of Grants Pass, also were at the party.

Hundreds Attend Potentate's Ball In Klamath Falls

About 1,000 persons were expected to attend the annual potentate's ball of Hillah temple of the Shrine last evening at Klamath Falls. The ball honored the present potentate, Don Kenyon, Mrs. Kenyon and members of Mr. Kenyon's divan. Many valley couples were in Klamath Falls for the event.

Elective divan officers from here are Leonard Mayfield, high priest and prophet, and C. A. Hubbard, oriental guide. On the appointive divan from here are J. E. Jorgensen, second ceremonial master, and Glenn L. Linn, director. Rey E. Frisbie is assistant director for the potentate's appointive assistants. Paul Rynning is a trustee.

Officers of the Jackson county Shrine club are Fred M. Gatter, president; A. K. Morse, vice-president, and J. A. Thompson, secretary-treasurer.

Eight Shrine temples of the northwest were to be represented at last night's festivities.

Al Hartman was general chairman for the ball and Charles Mack was in charge of the decorations. Both are from Klamath Falls.

A cocktail hour was held at the Willard hotel early in the evening and a hospitality hour from 8 to 9 p.m. was held at the Klamath Falls Armory. The ball also was held at the armory and a midnight supper was served there.

Four Employees Honored at Party

Four women employees of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company were presented service emblems at a buffet luncheon served Thursday in the women's parlor of the telephone building. About 70 women attended.

Honored were Mrs. Lola Boomer, who was presented a 25-year pin; Mrs. Barbara Norcross, who received a 10-year pin; Mrs. Bonnie Vernon and Mrs. Ida Thompson, who received five-year pins. The presentations were made by Miss Myrta Otterdale, chief operator.

R. R. Brockway, assistant traffic superintendent from Eugene, was also a special guest.

The buffet table was centered with an arrangement of green and white carnations and white candles, and St. Patrick's day provided the theme for other decorations. A decorated cake was served.

Those at the meeting during the day were Mrs. Caster, Mrs. Floyd Jarman, Mrs. W. M. Caldwell, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. John Kesler, Mrs. J. W. Webster, Mrs. Emma Keith, Mrs. Jennie Atkinson, Mrs. Warran Haggard, Mrs. Maude Haskins, Mrs. Poling, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Clafin. Mrs. Clafin was the hostess.

A meeting of the new Women's association is set for Thursday, March 17, at 10:30 a.m. A program will take place during the morning, luncheon will be served at noon and a business session will be conducted during the afternoon. An invitation is extended to women of the church and the vicinity to attend the meeting.

New School Group Chartered At Banquet on Wednesday

A chapter of the Junior Classical league for Medford Senior High school became a reality Wednesday night at a costume banquet which combined aspects of education with fun and hilarity. The banquet, held in the school cafeteria, was attended by about 80 former and present students of Latin classes in Medford Junior and Senior High school. The young people wore Roman costumes, sang songs in Latin, said a prayer and saluted the flag in Latin and ate their food without benefit of knives, forks or spoons.

Mrs. Maxine Smith, teacher of Latin in the senior school, presented a charter of the Junior Classical league to five straight A students who will be listed as charter members. They are Bill Frake, Sue Donna Doolen, Georgia Hicks, Marilyn Olson and Vicki Robertson.

Other students with grades of A with the exception of one B are Jane Barker, Ann Garner, Diana Getchell, Ken Arnold, Marelee Chisholm, Carol Denman, Janet Jamison and Shirley Stafford.

Miss Janet Perry, who presided Wednesday night, is "consul" or president of the new group and Miss Ramona Baugh "scriba" or secretary. Any student taking Latin classes will be eligible for the league, a national group, and there are no scholastic requirements.

Class officers and others assisting with banquet plans were Mike Hawkins, senator; Sandra Laing, quaestor; Denise Bruning and Bob Bright, praetores; Jane Barker, Sue Donna Doolen, sub-scribas; Judy Lobdell and Margaret Selby, aediles. Janet Jamison planned the program and was song leader and other committee workers were Miss Chisholm, Miss Stafford and Barbara Cox.

The program included an altar ceremony depicting a rite of the followers of Vesta, goddess of health and home. Greg Milnes and Bob Bright gave readings from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" and Jerry Close related interesting facts of early Roman days. Harold O'Connors commented on a display of books of interest to students of Latin. Miss Laing gave a solo dance.

A group of students from junior high school taking Latin became "slaves" for the evening. They served the meal and provided basins and towels for the guests. Mothers of students assisted in preparation and serving of the banquet.

Miss Dorothy Wilson, foreign language instructor at high school, was a guest.
