

Open House Set Today By Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dale Hanna are entertaining today at open house from 2 to 6 p.m. at their new home at 102 Portland avenue. Friends of the couple are invited to call during those hours.

The couple's wedding was an event of February 23. Mrs. Hannah is the former Miss Frances Elizabeth Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Price, 2702 Buckshot road. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hannah, Eagle Point.

The ceremony was read at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Ellmore J. Gilstrap, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, at his home at 702 West Fourth street.

Miss Edith Price, a sister of the bride, was her honor attendant and E. J. Hannah of Eagle Point, served as best man for his brother.

The bride wore a pink silk afternoon dress and her flowers were pink hyacinths. Her sister wore a blue taffeta dress and her flowers were white carnations.

Only members of the families of both the bride and bridegroom attended the rites.

Both the bride and bridegroom have lived in the area their entire lives. The bride attended Lone Pine grade school and Medford Senior high school. She is an operator for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. The bridegroom attended Eagle Point High school and is employed at White City.

Gardeners' Meeting Held in Central Point

Central Point — Pussy willows and geraniums made up the arrangement of the month for Central Point Garden club members when they met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hixson, Old Stage road. Mrs. James Cornutt furnished the arrangement.

The meeting was devoted mainly to a corsage workshop. Mrs. John Wisely was the instructor and dessert was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. R. D. Kay and Mrs. A. T. Lathrop.

Mrs. Wally Day, Mrs. Cora True and Mrs. W. D. Jackson were guests.

Prizes were won by Mrs. C. W. Anhorn and Mrs. Kay.

Rebekahs to Hold Friendship Night

Olive Rebekah lodge members planned a Friendship night, to be held at their first meeting in May, during a session Monday evening. All Rebekah lodges of the district will be invited to the observance.

Also decided at the recent meeting was the purchase of a $50 bond for the Odd Fellows home.

Other plans include initiation for the first meeting in April, and a card party for April 30.

Men of the group will have charge of the entertainment for the meeting to be held March 21, with W. H. Dwyer as chairman.

Mrs. Riley Applegate, chairman for the good of the order, gave a history of Schuyler Colfax in his memory. She also gave a resume of the history of Olive Rebekah lodge which was organized March 14, 1887. The obligation was given by Mrs. J. D. Brummond, vice-grand.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Homer Vinzant, Mrs. Lee Garris, Mrs. Rozella Theefeld, Mrs. J. A. Thomasson and Mrs. John Daniel.

The March 21 committee will be made up of Mrs. Lewis Thompson, Mrs. Mabel Grigsby, Mrs. Annie Gorbey, Mrs. Helen Gillmore and Mrs. Margaret Erskine.

Mrs. Frank Chapman, noble grand, presided.

Club Announces Show Committee

Rogue River—A nominating committee and committees for a flower show set for April 16 were named at a meeting of Laurel Garden club March 2. The session was held at the civic improvement club room with Mrs. Bill White as the hostess. Mrs. Claude Willoughby and Mrs. Jerusha Moore were the co-hostesses.

The nominating committee is made up of Mrs. White, Mrs. Herb Brooks and Mrs. Andrew Guffin.

The flower show will be sponsored jointly by the Rogue River Garden club, Evans Valley club and the Laurel club. Mrs. White and Mrs. Shade Combs are in charge of entries; Mrs. Walter Kasworm, Mrs. Dudley Fabric, Mrs. Doris Demary and Mrs. Sophia Thieson, placements; Mrs. Gus Ruehling, Misses Greta and Louise Simeson and Mrs. Leora Mitchel, tea table; Mrs. Anna Clasick and Mrs. Isa Forsyth, plant sale; Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Claud Willoughby, potted plants and junior display; and Mrs. Guffin, guest book.

The horticulture display consisted of heather violets, primroses, anemones, geraniums and begonias.

A dessert luncheon was served to 20 members and Mrs. Charles Babcock, president, presided for the business meeting.

The next meeting will be April 5 at the home of Mrs. Henry Bonney with Mrs. Guffin and Mrs. Forsyth as cohostesses.

Nurses Present Institute Report; Offer Speakers

Mrs. Mabel Cram and Mrs. Sue Monteith reported on the recent nurses' institute held in Eugene at a meeting of District 4, Oregon State Nurses' association, held Tuesday in the Community penthouse.

They spoke of the newer discoveries in the care of patients, particularly in brain and chest surgery, and also in the care of infants and children.

Miss Florence Woodward and Mrs. Nellie Laing presented a paper on anesthesia bringing out the importance of the related nursing care for patients before and after surgery. The various agents used for anesthesia were discussed.

The group agreed to furnish speakers for any county school which requests this for vocational day programs. Mrs. Martha Donahue will speak March 23 at Phoenix and Talent on "Nursing as a Career."

The scholarship committee reported that letters had gone to all the county high schools telling of the scholarship that will be available to one senior girl in Jackson county. Students are asked to write a letter telling of their interest in nursing. A card party is planned for April at St. Mark's Guild hall to help finance this project.

Mrs. Brooksie Johnson reported on plans for a cooked food sale to be held March 26 at the Home Appliance store in Medford.

Women's Society Announces Study

Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church will begin a mission study of India, Pakistan and Ceylon at a meeting set for March 16 at 10 a.m. in Room 102 of the church. The primary text to be used by the class is "Under Three Flags" by Stephen Neill and the leader will be Mrs. Vern Wilson.

The Woman's society has completed three study classes this year, and has received jurisdiction recognition for each of them. The texts "The City," taught by Mrs. O. P. Taylor; "Crowded Ways," taught by Marjorie Hopkins; and "Christianity and Wealth," taught by Mrs. Lyle Schoppert.

All women interested in this subject are invited to attend.

Group Attends Recent Banquet

Mrs. Don Anderson, junior vice-president of the department of Oregon, United Spanish War Veterans, Auxiliary, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnston, Mrs. James Cech, president of Colonel Sargent auxiliary, and Mr. Cech all Medford, attended a banquet and meeting of the Rogue River auxiliary in Grants Pass March 6.

The banquet and meeting were held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pendergrass and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Gullickson, Portland. Mrs. Pendergrass is department president and Mr. Gullickson is department commander. The two were making their official visit to Grants Pass. During the meeting Mrs. Cech served as musician in the absence of Mrs. Rene Grosh.

Mrs. Cech states that the local auxiliary will hold its regular meeting Sunday March 20 at Redman hall. The meeting will be preceded by a potluck dinner with Mrs. Frank Widner and a committee in charge.

Plans will be made for a reception and banquet to be held April 17 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Pendergrass and Mr. and Mrs. Gullickson when they made their official visit to the Medford camp and auxiliary. Final plans for the annual carnation sale to be held May 6 and 7 will also be discussed, Mrs. Cech states.

Hot gingerbread, freshly made, tastes delicious with a topping of whipped cream flavored with molasses, cinnamon and a touch of clove.

VFW Auxiliary Announce Party In Shady Cove

Shady Cove—Plans for a "fun party" Saturday, March 19, were made at the last meeting of the auxiliary to Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. The party will be at VFW hall and Mrs. Jim Hopkins, chairman, asks members to attend and take a friend.

Mrs. Jim Cassal reported on the "turn-about party" at the Camp White domiciliary. Mrs. Frank Busch, president, received a certificate of appreciation for the auxiliary. Three hundred-hour certificates were issued to Mrs. Cassal, and Mrs. Harry Birch, and 100-hour certificates to Mrs. John Jones and Jim Cassal of the post.

Mrs. Cassal announced the next visitation to Camp White March 11.

The auxiliary voted to donate to the Camp White flower fund and the prize fund for the hobby fair.

A "traveling basket" has been started and those receiving it reported on the way it was brought to them, and the interesting articles it contained.

Mrs. Harry Birch reported on the radio series "Man and the Moment" which is broadcast on KMED Wednesday at 6:15 p.m.

MICE PREFER THIS

Kingston, R. I.—(U.P.)—Zoologists at University of Rhode Island recommend a peanut butter and rolled oats mixture for catching mice. Two reasons—mice prefer it to cheese; it's easier to stick to a trap.

After the meeting the post and auxiliary were served refreshments by Mrs. Robert Vincent, Mrs. Louella Smart and Mrs. Leo Tuttle. Next meeting of the post and auxiliary will be March 18 at 8 p.m. at VFW hall, Shady Cove.
