

High School News Notes

By CYNTHIA RUKOVINA
 "On to Eugene—Support the Team!" This was the slogan for the week as the Medford Black Tornado prepared to enter the Oregon A-1 State Basketball Tournament in Eugene next week. A blazing red sign lettered with the slogan was hung in the front hall and S-T-A-T-E was spelled out a letter a day in one corridor.

A short but noisy pep assembly was held Friday afternoon with an impromptu serpentine through the halls at the beginning. Lorin Jacobs, senior class president, reminded the student body of the Good Sportsmanship trophy given each year to the rosters showing the best sportsmanship in the tournament action. He urged Medford Hi "to come home with two trophies instead of one."

Coronation Held
 The Pep Club and Order of M combined to give the team a "State Sendoff" dance Saturday night. The gym was decorated with a big schedule of the tournament and pennants naming the other teams that will participate. The annual coronation of the King of Hearts and Queen Tornado was held midway in the dance. Dorothy Rhymes was crowned Queen Tornado by her escort Larry Cople, vice-president of the Order of M. Larry was, in turn, crowned King of Hearts by the president of the Pep Club, Dorothy McGraw and Mike DeVore were chairmen for the affair.

The Medford Hi yearbook staff announced Monday that they completed the last pages of the Crater and mailed them to the publishers Sunday night. Barbara Roach, editor, said the books are expected to arrive around the last of May.

Student teams from the public speaking classes gave parliamentary procedure instruction in several home rooms Thursday. The classes are studying the procedures of a business meeting and gave the demonstrations as a part of the regular Thursday home room programs.

Tesis Administered
 The Oregon State Employment service gave a series of employment tests this week to seniors who do not plan to attend a college or university next year. The examinations were given to assist the students in obtaining a suitable job.

All seniors in the upper grade division of their class are eligible to compete for the State Federation of Labor scholarships. The organization is offering three $500 and three $100 awards distributed state wide. Funds for the scholarships are provided by voluntary contributions from organizations affiliated with the Oregon State Federation of Labor. The scholarships will be awarded to the students making the highest scores in a competitive examination on labor and industrial problems and who also have good scholastic records.

Eight Medford Hi art students, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wolf, attended an exhibit of the Regional Division of National Scholastic Art Awards in Portland last week end. Those who attended are advanced art students, several of whom submitted work to the contest. During their stay they also visited the Portland Art Museum, Sieberts, modern furniture dealers, Kahruha Art Gallery, and Crossroads, importers of glass and ceramics. The Art Student's League raised the funds for the trip by painting signs for various school activities.

Those who attended were Carl Gordon, Joan Strowbridge, Betty Jamieson, Ron Wisdom, Carol Ballard, Dorothy Allen, Hope Herriott, and Lorita Jennings. Two students, Dallas Smith and Pat Crofoot, received awards but were unable to attend.

Chapter Announces Friendship Meeting

Jacksonville — Friendship night will be observed at a meeting of Adarel Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, to be held Thursday, March 17, in the Masonic temple in Jacksonville. A potluck dinner is planned for 6:30 p.m., with the meeting to follow.

Girl Scouts

Brownie Program
 An evening with the Brownies was presented by Brownie Scout troops of Roosevelt school March 4. The flag ceremony was presented by fourth grade girls followed by a welcoming speech by Mrs. R. B. Temple in which she said that fun and pleasure can be combined in working out various projects by the scouts.

The program, in two parts, was a style show with all the Brownies as models and was followed by skits depicting the meaning of each day of Girl Scout week. The wearing apparel was loaned by J. C. Penney company and included the regulation Brownie and Scout uniforms with accessories, camping, sleeping and sports wear. Mrs. B. L. Wood, Mrs. R. E. Hibbs, and Mrs. LeRoy Smith, leaders, were narrators for the show.

The days of Girl Scout week, showing various services, portrayed for Sunday a church window in front of which girls of Troop 114, directed by Mrs. W. G. Myers, sang "For Health, and Strength." Monday, Home-making day, showed Troop 149 preparing a party for their mothers. Leader is Mrs. Charles Nelson. For Tuesday, Community day, a flag ceremony was acted out by Troop 185, led by Mrs. Vincent Bevie.

For Wednesday, Health and Safety day, Troop 171 depicted various first aid applications. Leader is Mrs. Maurice Tedrow. Thursday, international Friendship day, was an act showing the making of layettes by Troop 138 to send to Brazil. Leader of this troop is Mrs. Waldo Tucker. For Friday, Arts and Crafts day, the girls of Troop 192 displayed gifts made for their parents and friends under the direction of their leader, Mrs. D. P. Hemmingway. To depict Saturday, Out-Of-Doors day, girls of Troop 184 portrayed a camping scene, singing as they camped. Leader is Mrs. L. S. Miller.

Miss Mary Aldrich, Girl Scout executive, invested the new leaders and a Juliette Low birthday ceremony presented by Troops 78 and 140 concluded the program. Leaders of these troops are Mrs. R. W. Root and Mrs. B. J. Rowbridge.

Give Square Dance

Recently the Scout troops of the fourth and fifth grades of Roosevelt school gave a potluck dinner and square dance for their fathers. A baseball game has been planned for the future.

Hold Ceremony

Troop 36 of Washington school observed the 43rd birthday of scouting with a cake and candle lighting ceremony March 8. A film on "Trees" was shown by Mrs. Glenn Linn, assistant leader, which applies on their badge work. The story of Juliette Low was read by Carol Cooksey and the program ended by all giving the scout promise. Mrs. E. M. Cooksey is the leader of this troop.

Donna Johnson, Scribe.

Visit Station

Mrs. Roger Clark's Girl Scout Troop 26 visited Radio Station KMED March 7 and were informally interviewed by Russ Jamison concerning Girl Scout week. Accompanying the troop were Mrs. Frank Tamney, assistant leader, and Mrs. Walter Garner, area public relations chairman.

4-H Club News

Homemaking Class, Shady Cove
 Our 4-H club has its regular meetings every other Friday afternoon at the Shady Cove school. There are 18 girls in the club.

At our past meetings we have appointed officers, learned to set tables, make beds, and iron properly, also how to keep our record books in correct order.

We are planning a trip to the Jacksonville Museum during our spring vacation.

Our president, Diana Allen, conducts our meetings. Our leader is Mrs. Della Littlefield and her assistant is Mrs. Ola Houston. Linda Eccleston, Reporter.

Upper Rogue Sewing Club
 The "Cut and Sew" 4-H club of Upper Rogue met at the home of the leader, Mrs. Orage Houston, March 10 after school. During the meeting Nancy Blackman gave a demonstration on darning socks.

Members have completed their garment protectors and are ready to begin work on their apron project.

Games were played and refreshments were served by Letha Zerbee. Next meeting will be March 24.

Kathleen Houston, Reporter.
