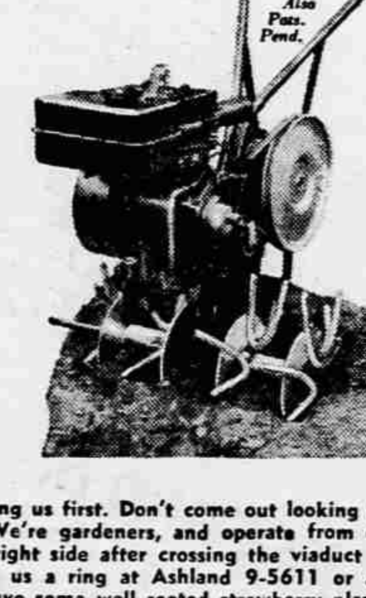
"Don't Buy a Merry Tiller"



Last week a gentleman dropped in and told us that a "friend" had advised him never to buy a Merry Tiller, that it was a man-killer and would work him to death. Well, we thought that was a good one so gave this gentleman a free demonstration. Result! He bought a Merry Tiller for cash and got his Green Stamps. If you are afraid that we might sell you one of these so-called "terrible" machines, better not come out. They did outsell all others in the U. S. year before last. Over 2,400 sold in Oregon too, in one year. We can't tell you the whole story here but we'd sure like to have you consider or possibly reconsider the new 55 models. They'll outdig anything on the market. Prices start at $149.50. Just another friendly tip, you can save money by seeing us first. Don't come out looking for a big business establishment. We're gardeners, and operate from our residence. It's the sixth place, right side after crossing the viaduct on Hiway 66. If you get lost give us a ring at Ashland 9-5611 or ask anyone out here. Oh yes, we have some well rooted strawberry plants, reasonable prices too and fresh dug, with several varieties to choose from.

"Is proof American is slave worker, Comrades. Is picture showing U. S. Citizen forced to carry bales by Capitalist named Pete Moss"

New, Granular HI-PRESS Peat Moss Saves You Time and Labor. Here's why:

New HI-PRESS peat moss is different! It's concentrated and granulated — but expands many times when wetted. This means that a 70 lb. bag of HI-PRESS covers the same area as a big, awkward bale of regular peat moss. Thus, HI-PRESS is easier to handle, easier to store. And HI-PRESS can be applied with a fertilizer spreader or by hand.

Because HI-PRESS is virtually dust free and because it may be applied with a spreader close to the ground, it stays out of your eyes; doesn't ruin fresh paint. Compressed granules of HI-PRESS don't blow away.

Available in 5, 20, 50 and 70 lb. bags at all leading nurseries and garden supply stores.

Satisfaction or your money back.
