Two Valley Men Back From East

Two valley army men are scheduled to arrive today at Seattle Army port of embarkation on the USS General Mitchell, which is returning 2,285 passengers from the Far East. The men from here are Pfc. Kenneth L. Finley, son of Mrs. Harriet B. Finley, 2250 Crater Lake highway, and Cpl. James A. Steele, son of Mrs. Osa Waggoner, Phoenix.

Finley has been in the Orient for about 17 months. He attended school for three months in Ita Jima, Japan, and served in Korea for about 14 months, with the 73rd engineer combat battalion as a construction engineer with the X corps. He completed basic training at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and entered the Army in May, 1953, after attending Medford High school.

Steele attended Phoenix High school. He entered the Army in March, 1953 and left for overseas in November, 1953. He served as a rifleman with Company A of the 24th infantry divisions 21st regiment in Korea.

Both Finley and Steele are eligible for discharge soon from the service.

Swallow Flight Arrives At San Juan Capistrano

San Juan Capistrano, Calif. — (U.P.) — A flight of swallows arrived today at the San Juan Capistrano mission 48 hours ahead of schedule and in time to celebrate St. Patrick's day.

Veteran observers were not certain whether the small band of early birds were of Irish descent or just had their saints mixed up. Diehards in this small community shrugged the arrivals off as "scouts" for the main flight, which is supposed to arrive Saturday, St. Joseph's day.
