

Corral Plans Jubilee on Anniversary

The fourth birthday anniversary jubilee will be held at Camp Corral on Sunday, March 27, beginning at 1:30 p.m. During this four years, Camp Corral has been under the sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robertson with Mrs. Robertson instructing classes in round and square dancing. Many of the square dancers in the valley have taken her courses and dance clubs have been formed at the Corral for the continued pleasure of the dancers.

All square dancers are invited for an afternoon of dancing and 16 out-of-town callers will be present. The Oregon callers will be Bud Baker, Eugene; Dick Ford, Warrenton; Chris Klein, Hal Haskins, Norval Cockeram, Hans Stelzen Mueller and Curley Reynolds of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Al Downs of Sutherlin; Winnie Travis, Winchester; Paul Graham, Grants Pass; Ray Hageman, Rogue River; Eldon Bean, Prospect; B. M. Antle and Bill Mayhew, Klamath Falls and Jim Munyon of China Lake, Calif. Local callers may also be used.

The anniversary jubilee promises to be one of the largest square dances of the year.

Hogans Return From Vacation Stay in South

Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Siskiyou court, arrived home Friday afternoon after being away since January 21. They spent much time in Florida and visited en route at Las Vegas, Nev., with their son, Michael Hogan.

The couple drove about 10,000 miles in all and their visit in Georgia was timed so they saw the famed Georgia peach orchards in blossom. At Houston, Tex., they attended a livestock show and they also visited in Phoenix, Ariz., New Orleans, La., Oklahoma City, where they visited for a week, and Wichita Falls, Tex.

Their Florida vacation included visits to St. Petersburg, Miami, Key West, Ft. Lauderdale, St. Augustine, Cypress Gardens, Bok's Singing Tower, Silver Springs and Daytona Beach.

They also made stops at Chattanooga, and Memphis, Tenn., and Fort Smith, Ark.

Sojourners Club Plans Guest Day

Medford Sojourners club will sponsor a "guest day" party at the Medford hotel March 24 at 12:30 p.m. Dessert luncheon will be served and cards will be the diversion of the afternoon. Both active and inactive members are invited to take one or more guests.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. A. L. McClure, telephone 3-3924, or Mrs. George Lovenborg, telephone 2-4781, not later than noon on March 21.

All women living in or near Medford less than two years are invited to attend and to become members.

Miss Carol Smith Becomes Bride of Robert C. Cooper

Miss Carol Le Smith and Robert C. Cooper were married March 5 in Reno, Nev. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith, 3435 Jacksonville highway, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert L. Cooper, Central Point.

The newlyweds are living in San Diego since Mr. Cooper, a fireman in the Navy, is stationed at Coronado, Calif.

Ceremony Weds Miss Monaghan To Nick Saimons

Miss Elaine Marie Monaghan became the bride of Nick E. Saimons in a ceremony held March 4 at First Methodist church here. The Rev. Raymond E. Balcomb of First Methodist church read the double-ring rites at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Twenty guests were present. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Monaghan Jr., Grand Forks, N.D., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Saimons, 1035 Winchester avenue, Medford.

Mrs. James Beiter was the bride's attendant, and Gary Lee Hawk was best man for the bridegroom.

For the ceremony the bride wore a beige suit with pink accessories and her corsage was a pair of pink orchids.

A reception was given at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride attended Crater High school, Central Point, and is a clerk at the Big Y market, Medford. The bridegroom, personnel management specialist for the United States Army, also attended Crater High school. He will leave later this month for duty in Sendai, Japan, and Mrs. Saimons will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. R. G. Davidson, 556 Midway road.

Chapter Observes Friendship Night; Degrees Conferred

Jacksonville—About 120 persons attended a Friendship night observance of Adare chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Thursday evening in Jacksonville.

The event was held at the Jacksonville Masonic hall and among the visitors were Mrs. Ed Pease, grand representative of Alabama in Oregon; Mrs. Ben Alberts, worthy matron of Josephine chapter at Grants Pass; Mrs. Luther Day and Merritt Swing, worthy matron and worthy patron of the Nevada chapter, Central Point; Mrs. Carl Harris and Thomas W. Laird, worthy matron and worthy patron of Alpha chapter, Ashland, and Morris Boughner, worthy patron of Reames chapter.

During the presentation of degrees to Fred M. Gardner, three members of his immediate family participated. They included his father, Fred H. Gardner, worthy patron of Adare chapter, and his wife, who fills the Star point station of Esther. As a courtesy the candidates' mother, a past matron of Adare chapter, presided as worthy matron during the initiatory work.

The meeting was preceded by a potluck dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Menno Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. George Drorbaugh, Mrs. Frank Root, Mrs. A. L. Schrack and Mrs. Michael Beck made up the dinner committee.

Decorations for the dinner were in the St. Patrick's day theme, with shamrocks on the table. Members of the serving committee wore shamrock aprons.

Medford Teacher Named to Office By OEA Group

Mrs. Maxine (Paul R.) Smith was elected vice-president of the Classroom Teachers' association, a department of Oregon Education association, during the annual meeting in Portland yesterday.

Mrs. Smith will succeed to the presidency of the association, largest of the OEA units next year.

Mrs. Smith, who has been on the teaching staff of Medford junior and senior high schools for the past eight years, has served as president of the Jackson county unit of Oregon Education association for two years and will retire this spring from that office.

The teacher is also a member of the advisory committee for the Oregon State Board of Education. Her group affiliations include Delta Kappa Gamma, professional sorority for women in teaching; American Association of University Women, Medford League of Women Voters and Kappa Delta, national social sorority. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Prior to coming to Medford, Mrs. Smith taught in high schools in northern and eastern Oregon. The Smiths live on Spring street.

Bruce Matheny Visits Relatives

Bruce C. Matheny, former Jacksonville resident, visited over night last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ludwig, 511 Austin street. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Matheny of San Diego, Calif., and Jacksonville. He was on a stop-over here en route to Annapolis, Md., where he is an instrument flight instructor for link trainers at the Navy air facility at Severn River command.

With him on the visit to the Ludwigs was E. E. Bartlett Jr., a Navy lieutenant commander, whose home station is at Annapolis, Md. They arrived Thursday and left Friday morning.

The two had been to Whidby island, Wash., from where they are flying a JRF-6 Grumman plane to the east.

While here they also visited other relatives of Mr. Matheny, including the Marshall Sweets and Ernest Ludwigs.
