Camp Adair Acreage Declared Surplus

Corvallis — (U.P.) — Nearly 50 per cent of the acreage at Camp Adair, 10 miles north of here, has been declared surplus to the needs of the Oregon National Guard, it was announced today.

Gen. Raymond Olson, assistant adjutant general, said the World War II confinement area would be reduced by some 138 acres, leaving 190 for the National Guard's use.

Gen. Olson said the announcement was expected to open up federally-owned warehouses and other buildings for industrial use.

Wall Street

New York — (U.P.) —Stocks eased slightly in a dull market today.

The industrial department led the decline and lost nearly two points on average. Rails and utilities had smaller recessions.

Metal shares, strong in the early trading, lost their gains. Some wide gainers in other departments cut their advance which ranged to more than 5 points at the highs.
