Ada Stager Funeral At Ashland Thursday

Ashland — Funeral services for Mrs. Ada Beatrice Stager, 58, of 204 Old Pacific highway, will be held at Litwiler's Mountain View chapel here Thursday at 1:30 p.m. with the Rev. John Thompson of Trinity Episcopal church officiating. Interment will be in Jacksonville cemetery. She was born in Marshall, Minn., on Oct. 30, 1896, and had been a resident of the Rogue valley since 1928.

Survivors include her husband, Guy; a daughter, Mrs. Dan Favors, Medford; a sister, Evelyn Hunecke, Anoka, Minn., and two grandchildren.

Jailed — Peter Allen Key, 32, Bakersfield, Calif., has been arrested by city police and lodged in the Jackson county jail on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, according to county jail records.

Surgical Patients — Those reported today at Sacred Heart hospital as surgical patients are Alvin Lehman, 2055 Sunset dr., and Linda Ann Ammons, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Ammons, 425 Columbus ave.

Building Permits — D. L. Pickell has obtained building permits to construct a $10,500 residence at 1508 Stratford way, and an $11,000 residence at 401 Barnes ave., according to records in the city building department.

Flue Fires — Firemen reported chimney fires at 3:25 p.m. yesterday at the William Townes residence, 918 Newtown st., and at 9:15 a.m. today at the home of Thomas B. Hicks, 319 Mary st. They said there was no damage.

Runaways — Three juvenile boys are being held in the Jackson county jail as runaways. They include a 14-year-old from Washington county, who was picked up in Eureka, Calif., and a 17-year-old and a 16-year-old both from Napa, Calif., picked up in Ashland.

Fined — Dennis Melvin Burns, 19, of 410 North Bartlett st., pleaded guilty in district court yesterday to charges of disorderly conduct and was fined $50 and court costs. The charge involved breaking a window at the home of Walter Froreich, 303 Berrydale ave.

Medical Patients — Mrs. James Stewart, 336 Plum st.; Thomas Buck, Central Point; William Arthur Watson, Allen hotel; Mrs. Mose Patnode, 411 Woodstock ave., and Mrs. Fanny Lynch, 137 South Ivy st., are reported as medical patients today at Sacred Heart hospital.

Vehicles Collide — Francis A. Deneke, Salem, and Floyd S. Stacey, 1415 West Eighth st., were drivers of vehicles which collided yesterday at the intersection of Eighth and Holly sts., according to city police. The accident happened at about 2:55 p.m. There were no injuries and Deneke was cited for failure to yield right of way.

Acceptance Said Shown By Growth of Jaycees

Portland — (U.P.) — E. Lamar Buckner, Ogden, Utah, president of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, last night said the growth of the Jaycee organization was indicative of national acceptance of its program.

Buckner spoke last night at the Columbia Athletic Club. He came to Portland from San Francisco, after a stopover at Ashland, Ore. He said the Jaycee had attracted 250 new chapters and 15,000 new members this year.

Injured — William Vines, Central Point, was treated and released about 3 p.m. Tuesday, at Sacred Heart hospital, for badly lacerated lips and facial cuts which he suffered when hit in the face by a logging chain, according to a report from the hospital. He was working in the woods near Copper for Mike Ober Logging firm when the accident occurred, the report indicated.

Homemakers' Class — The Homemakers' class of the First Methodist church and their families will meet for a potluck supper Friday at 6:30 p.m. in the dining room of the church. Wives are to bring a main dish and either a dessert or a salad, and their own service. After the supper Dr. W. W. Howard will show slides of a trip made from Cincinnati down the Mississippi to New Orleans, across country to Florida, and to Cuba; also a river trip into the Everglades of Florida, returning west by car via the Grand Canyon and Los Angeles.
