

Student to Leave For Washington

Alex Hamilton will leave Thursday for Washington, D. C., where he will take up his duties as a page in the United States senate. Young Hamilton, who completed the winter quarter of his junior year at Oregon State college last week, received the appointment through Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon.

In Washington he will join Paul Barkla, Willamette university student who has received a similar senate appointment.

Young Hamilton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, 43 Rose avenue, motored to Corvallis Sunday and the three returned to Medford Monday evening. Sunday the student was in Portland where he attended the wedding of Miss Janotta Nottingham and Lee Merklin at Rose City Presbyterian church. The two young men are Chi Phi fraternity brothers.

Up to 1934 about one-third of all patients with lobar pneumonia died, but new drugs have cut the toll drastically.

Serious Dental Situation In Jackson County-Subject Of Health Group Sessions

Dr. Lee Mellish, representing the dental society on the board of the Jackson County Public Health association stressed the seriousness of the dental situation at a meeting of the board of the association held recently.

Quoting from a recent survey of teeth of children in the county made by Dr. D. M. Hadjimarkos of the Oregon Dental school Dr. Mellish stated only one child out of 200 examined in the 14 year old bracket was free of dental defects which did not need correction. He also stated the survey which was made on a statewide bases showed Jackson and Josephine county children to have the highest dental decay rate of any area in the state and Oregon rates high in the nation.

Urging parents to become concerned about the matter he stated dental decay is occurring six times faster than local dentists are able to cope with. He also stated that the 10-year study of fluoridation of municipal water supplies is now completed with no evidence of harmful effects and with a 65% reduction in decay among children living in areas where the element fluorine is added to the water.

Mrs. Tom Shearin was appointed chairman of the nominating committee for the association. Serving with her will be Mrs. Norman Gail, Gold Hill, Point, Eugene Thorndike and E. Mrs. Stanley Parrish, Central Chandler Drew, Medford, Mrs. Russell Fowler, Medford and Mrs. Elmo Stevenson, Ashland. Budget committee appointments included, Seth Bullis, Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Mrs. John Cotton and Mrs. George Schuler.

Mrs. R. B. Knight reported on the chest x-ray clinics being operated by the association in the two Medford hospitals and stated an average of 70 persons have been coming to the Community hospital each week. She also stated considerable chest pathology is being found.

The Sacred Heart hospital clinic begins operation this week. Both hospitals are now giving chest x-rays to patients as a part of routine laboratory tests.

Elk-Trail PTA Hears Travel Talk At Last Meeting

Elk-Trail — Miss Mary Ellen Bell, who visited Europe and the British isles recently, showed colored pictures and spoke informally at a meeting of Elk-Trail Parent-Teacher association last Friday in the Elk-Trail school recreation room.

Miss Bell stressed the friendliness and courtesy of the people she met in the many countries she visited, and was enthusiastic over the beautiful, well cared for gardens of the British isles, which thrive in the constant rainfall.

She spoke of the extremes of poverty and wealth in Spain, of the cleanliness evident in Holland and of the vineyards of France.

During the business meeting Mrs. Chester Willson reported on the choir robe project. Twenty-five robes are completed and will be worn by the student singers of the Elk-Trail school for the first time when they appear on television April 5 at 4:30 p.m.

Buying the material and making the robes was a major PTA project for the year. Women working on the project are Mrs. Alma Mallory, Mrs. Frank Dolenshek, Mrs. E. Meyers, Mrs. Willis Hawkins, the chairman, Mrs. Chester Willson and Mrs. Thomas Smith.

Mrs. Ralph Willson was re-elected chairman and Mrs. Smith provided child care.
