

Competition on Team Basis In Pan American Games Said Mistake

By HAL WOOD
Mexico City—(U.P.)—Patricia McCormick, holder of more diving titles than any woman in history, said today that persons connected with the Olympic and Pan American games were making a mistake in putting competition on a team basis.

"In both the Olympic and the games here," said Mrs. McCormick, "everything should be on an individual basis. The nations should not be pitted against each other. That makes it political."

"That is not a good policy and leads to a lot of misunderstanding." The stately champion who right now holds five United States diving crowns and is a heavy favorite to win here, is not the first one to make this observation. In fact, AAU officials from the United States are opposed to making it a nation vs. nation affair.

Eagles Rap Cougar Nine

Eagle Point—Eagle Point high school baseball season yesterday with a 13 to 4. The Eagles picked up runs in every turn at bat but the sixth, getting four in the first and three each in the third and fourth. Errors hurt the Prospect cause. Each team got six hits.

Dennis Boren, Eagle Point and Joel Walls, Prospect, each collected two for three. Walls triple was the only extra baser of the game.

Satisfaction Gained In Beating Brooklyn

St. Petersburg, Fla.—(U.P.)—Come what may this season, Manager Charley Dresen of the Washington Senators has the satisfaction of beating the Brooklyn Dodgers—the team he led to two National league championships.

Indian Rowers Subdue Beavers

Redwood City, Calif.—(U.P.)—The Stanford university varsity rowing crew defeated Oregon State by 2½ lengths in the 1955 season opener held at the yacht club yesterday.

Family Troubles Delaying Return Of Ted Williams, Cronin States

Sarasota, Fla.—(U.P.)—The Boston Red Sox officially admitted for the first time today that Ted Williams intends to return to baseball.

"I guess everyone knows by now Williams would have been here March 1, if he weren't involved in family trouble," said General Manager Joe Cronin of the Sox early today.

Another club official, not Cronin, indicated that an unforeseen hitch has delayed Williams' return, which has been expected here momentarily since early Tuesday.

"Ted made up his mind on Sunday," said the official. "Then he changed it again on Monday."

Things All Set
Williams had indicated he would be here Tuesday, and Johnny Orlando, the Red Sox clubhouse attendant, had things all set for the 36-year-old out-

Californians Wallop OSC

Berkeley, Calif.—(U.P.)—University of California baseball team walloped Oregon State college, 7-2, yesterday, at the expense of the Beaver starting pitcher who blew up in the second frame.

The Bears scored four unearned runs in the second off OSC hurler Syl Johnson, who issued five walks. A booming single by left fielder Don Walker accounted for two of the runs.

Johnson allowed another three Bear runs in the third on a homer by Don Musser and a double by Walker.

Cal pitcher Doug Weiss held the Oregon Staters to six scattered hits.

Kip Taylor Seeks Rec Center Job

Portland—(U.P.)—LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, football coach at Oregon State college last season, is an applicant for the post of manager of Portland's planned $8,000,000 recreation center.

James E. Polhemus, chairman of the recreation center commission, said it would be some time before a decision is made on the several applications for manager.

Taylor resigned as Beaver coach at the end of the season.

WOODS VICTOR

Sacramento, Calif.—(U.P.)—Irish Bobby Woods of Spokane, Wash., ended what had been a close fight last night by scoring a seventh round TKO over San Francisco's Jimmy Savala. The battlers were fighting on even ground until the closing seconds of the sixth round when Savala, 134 pounder from Sid Flaherty's stable, was dazed by a sudden onslaught by Woods. He wobbled to his corner and the bout was stopped.

Bob Morris Ousts 1954 Champion In 2nd Round of Spring Handicap

Play in the men's spring golf handicap at Rogue Valley Country club advanced into the third round this week with the defending champion out of the running in the topmost flight.

Bob Morris downed Justin Smith Sr., 1954 winner, by a 2 up count in the second round. Medalist Everett McGraw advanced with a 4 up win over V. W. Hammond.

Championship flight losers of the second round dropped into the second flight to continue action. Next round's losers in the top flight will drop into the first flight.

Portland Beavers Serve Notice That They Will Be Tougher Than During 1954

By SCOTT BAILLIE

Glendale, Calif.—(U.P.)—Portland Beavers, bolstered by six player deals in the past three months, served notice today that they will be a lot tougher in the Pacific Coast League race than last year's eighth-placers which were left at the post.

Manager Clay Hopper, who had never finished lower than sixth in 21 campaigns until 1954, is certain the Beavers will cause a lot of woe around the circuit.

"The club will have a lot more power at first base in Ed Mickelson, whom we drafted from Shreveport of the Texas League," Hopper said. "And we'll be a lot faster with Artie Wilson, whom we got from Seattle for Rocky Krsnich and Jehosie Heard. Sam Calderone is down from the Milwaukee Braves to catch and will do most of it."

Purchases From Montreal

Those three players were obtained after General Manager Joe Ziegler took office in mid-December as Portland residents bought the club from Vancouver brewer George Norgan and turned the Bevos into a home-owned team.

Ziegler also purchased outfielder Dick Whitman and pitcher Wally Hood from Montreal along with outfielder Russ Sullivan, who hit .333 and clubbed 17 home runs with Little Rock of the Southern Association in 1954.

Mickelson batted .335 at Shreveport, also hit 17 home runs and drove in 104 tallies. He is taking over the vacancy created when Hank Artt, a .261 hitter with Portland last year, decided to hold out. Artt wound up with his outright release.

"Mickelson will help us at first even if he has his worst year," Hopper said.

Wilson's A Comer

Good, grey Clay also warned Wilson, who hit .336 last year at Seattle and led the PCL in three-base hits with 16, may run Eddie Basinski right off second.

Basinski has been custodian of the middle sack at Portland for 7½ seasons without too much competition but he has it now. Hopper said the gentle violinist may be better on double plays than swift Artie but
