Unit Members Give Program On Vegetable

Central Point — A lesson on vegetables was given at the last meeting of Central Point Home Extension unit, held at the home of Mrs. Leo Ghelardi, Old Stage road.

Leaders were Mrs. Paul Snook and Mrs. Gene Snook. They cooked fried carrots with cornflake crumbs, vegetable soufflé, broccoli with a Mock Hollandaise sauce, and green string beans with a sweet-sour sauce.

Luncheon was served and the dishes prepared earlier were included so they could be tasted by all.

After luncheon Mrs. Gene Snook briefed the members on what vitamins, minerals and calories were derived from the meal.

The business meeting followed. Guests attending the meeting were Mrs. George Geddis and Mrs. Gerald Whaley.

Mrs. Howard Davis, Mrs. Tracy Muse and Mrs. Earl Sands were named on the nominating committee.

A workshop for the refinishing of furniture will be held Tuesday, March 29 at the home of Mrs. L. C. Gordon. The meeting starts at 9 a.m. and everyone is to bring a sack lunch.

The next regular meeting will be held April 20 at Central Point Grange hall. The project "Living Within 24 Hours" will be given by Miss D. Eula Wintermote.

Mrs. Ted Jantzer Hostess for Group

Shady Cove — Mrs. Ted G. Jantzer was hostess for a meeting of Shady Cove-Trail Lions club auxiliary at her home on Trail Creek March 16.

At the business session, the members planned to sponsor a movie in the near future, to raise money for the school for the blind.

After refreshments were served by Mrs. Jantzer, several of the members played organ selections.

The next meeting will be April 6 at the home of Mrs. Floyd Kelley, Shady Cove. A potluck dinner at 7:30 p.m. will be followed by the annual initiation of new members. Mrs. O. L. Williams and Mrs. Frank Allen will be in charge of the initiation ceremony.

Lesson on Vegetables Given for Howard Unit

Howard Extension held the last meeting at the home of Mrs. Ruth Stocks, 2411 Table Rock road. In attendance were 24 members and one visitor.

Mrs. L. C. McCay and Mrs. Peterson gave the lesson on "Vegetables."

Mrs. L. R. Bailey and Mrs. J. S. Lydiard made plans to begin the lessons on "Refinishing Old Furniture" for members of the group who are interested.

Adult Bible Class Holds March Meeting

Adult Bible class of First Christian church held the March meeting in Fellowship hall. Dessert was served by Mrs. J. T. Davis and a committee, and table decorations were in the St. Patrick's day motif.

Auxiliary Plans Several Events In Shady Cove

Shady Cove — Several coming events were announced at a meeting of the auxiliary to Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, last Friday. Mrs. Frank Busch, president, presided.

A letter from Mrs. Tom Laferty, district junior vice-president, informed members of a rummage sale set for Saturday, April 2 at 322 East Main street, Medford. Proceeds from the sale will go to the Oregon Cottage, VFW project, as a gift from District 7. Clothing, furniture and other articles are acceptable, and are to be taken to the building Friday, April 1, preceding the sale.

Mrs. Dale Sawyer urged support of the treasure chest project by all members, whether or not they attend meetings. Proceeds go to the relief fund.

A sewing party will be held March 29 at 10 a.m. to make Easter favors for a party at the Camp White dormitory. Mrs. Jim Cassal is chairman. The auxiliary will also serve an Easter breakfast at the VFW hall in Shady Cove from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Mrs. Gene House is chairman and will be assisted by Mrs. Ed Leaming.

The post and auxiliary will sponsor a dance at VFW hall April 16. A five-piece orchestra will play and the public is invited. Auxiliary members will take charge of refreshments.

Following the last meeting refreshments were served for the post and auxiliary by Mrs. Francis Miller, Mrs. Dave Bergen and Mrs. Zella Tullis. Next meeting will be April 1 at 8 p.m.

Washington PTA To Hold Election

Washington Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday, March 25, at 2:15 p.m. in the school gymnasium, according to Mrs. Harold Hubler, president of the group.

Program for the meeting will consist of several numbers by the school chorus, under the direction of Miss Laura York, and a tumbling, gymnastics and physical education exhibition by a group of students under the direction of Roy Gilbertson. Miss Dorothy Collard, supervisory nurse of the Jackson County Health department, will also discuss the proposed Salk anti-polio vaccine program being considered for use for the first and second graders in Jackson county.

Mrs. Hubler also added there will be a short business meeting during which the nominating committee will present the slate of officers it has prepared for the coming school year, and officers will be elected.

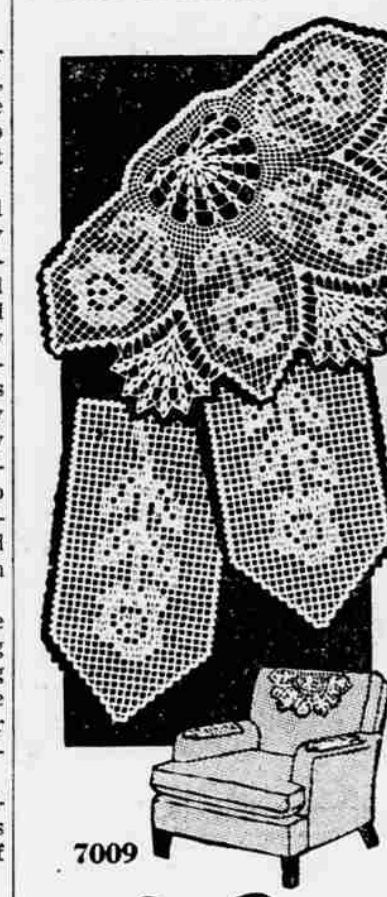

Free child care will be provided in Room 1. Refreshments will be provided by mothers of children in the third grade.

Lodge Will Observe Past Chiefs' Night

Pocahontas lodge will observe past chiefs' night when the group meets Friday, March 25, at 8 p.m. Officers appointed for February will conduct the meeting.

A card party and refreshments will follow the meeting.
