

Convention Dates Set in September For Sunday Schools

The date for a Sunday school convention in Medford were set this week for September 20 through 22 by representatives from several local churches who met with the Rev. Ulphie O. Davis, northwest regional representative of the National Sunday School association.

It is planned that outstanding speakers and workers in the Sunday school field would be brought to this area for the convention. All phases of Sunday school programs would be studied in workshop sessions during the day and an inspirational service will be held each night.

Officers Elected

Officers were elected to complete the planning and work for the convention. They include the Rev. Clayton Crisman, chairman, the Rev. Sherman Moore, the Rev. Perry Johnson, the Rev. Wilton Colbaugh, and Mrs. Grover Corum on the executive committee.

Committees of the program committee are the Rev. Rolf Hansen, chairman, the Rev. Homer Thompson, the Rev. Sherman Moore; publicity, the Rev. Raymond Hurn, chairman, the Rev. Wm. Tillman, Mrs. S. D. Earhart, the Rev. Wilton Colbaugh; finance, H. C. High, chairman, the Rev. James Neely; housing, the Rev. Harold Matthewson, chairman, Mrs. Kornstad, Mrs. F. A. Daugherty, and the Rev. Lawrence Krause; contact, the Rev. Perry Johnson, chairman, the Rev. James Krieder and the Rev. Neumann.

First Baptists To Hear Albany Choir

Music for the 11 o'clock morning worship service of the First Baptist church Sunday will be provided by the male chorus of the First Baptist church of Albany, Ore. The group is composed of 27 laymen of the Albany church who have been singing together as a chorus for about two and a half years. The men with their leader, Arie Grotenhuis, have been singing in a number of churches in the state and will come to Medford from Klamath Falls.

The chorus will sing during the service and will take the place of the usual choir. The Rev. James W. Neely will use as his sermon subject for the morning, "Planning Without God."

The four Baptist league groups, junior through adult, will hold their regular meetings at 6:30 p.m., and the evening service will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Nazarenes Announce Music Series Program

The last Sunday of each month has been designated as music night at the Church of the Nazarene. Next Sunday evening the second program of this series will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday's program will consist only of request numbers submitted by the congregation. Included will be selections by the Sanctuary choir, male chorus, ladies' sextet, and a male quartet.

Sunday morning the Rev. Hurn will speak on the theme, "Keeping The Victory." Mrs. Dorothy Rees, lyric soprano, will present a solo.

Of interest to children of junior age and to high school students are the instruction classes which are held each Saturday in the educational building. The general theme of these classes is, "What We Believe." The junior group meets at 10 a.m., and the young people at 11 a.m. Anyone interested in the classes is invited.

Services Continue at Central Point Church

Central Point — Special services with the Rev. Peter Wittenberg as evangelist and missionary speaker will continue through tonight and Sunday at the Community Bible church in Central Point. Mr. Wittenberg has spent the last five years in Germany, Italy, Norway, France and England under the European Evangelization crusade. He has been speaking and showing colored pictures of Europe.

Mr. Wittenberg has been in close contact with clerics who have been permitted to travel back and forth from Western to Eastern Germany and speaks authoritatively as to conditions as they exist today in Europe, the Rev. Rolf H. Hansen, pastor of the church, states.

Mr. Wittenberg will speak Friday and Sunday at 7:45 p.m., and at the Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Wittenberg will speak at the Ladies Missionary society meeting, Friday, at 1:30 p.m. at the church.

Cavalcade Will Open Sunday at Eastwood Church

The American Baptist convention, with some 7,000 churches in the United States, is sponsoring an Oregon Baptist Missionary Cavalcade, with about 30 home and foreign missionaries touring the state. Of this number, five will be in the southern Oregon and Medford area from Sunday, March 27 to Wednesday, March 30.

Four of these missionaries will be in the Eastwood Baptist church of Medford during this time, according to the minister, the Rev. Willis J. Loar. The first of the group, the Rev. Earl Brock, comes from Assam, and will speak at the Sunday morning service at 11 a.m. He will be in the costume of his field for this service.

On Sunday evening about 50 members and friends of the church will attend a missionary rally at the First Baptist church of Grants Pass to hear Dr. Reuben Marc, preacher of the Portau-Prince church at Haiti. The Linfield College a cappella choir will be present for this service, with approximately 800 attending from six churches in the area.

On Monday evening the Rev. Thorlief Watne, Ongole, South India, will be guest of honor at an open house at the Eastwood Baptist church, sponsored by the Rev. and Mrs. Willis Loar, commencing at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Watne will show colored slides of his mission field at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

The Rev. Basil Williams, director of South Chicago Neighborhood house, Chicago, will speak to the Women of the Eastwood Baptist church, Tuesday, at 1 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Al Sorensen, 816 Church St., Phoenix.

The closing missionary speaker will be the Rev. William Webber, missionary to the Keams canyon Indians, Ariz. He will speak at a prayer meeting Wednesday at the church, commencing at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Webber also will be in costume, and will show curios and slides.

Friends in the vicinity who are interested are invited.
