

Beta Sigma Phi Gives Reception For Field Officer

Miss Elsie Anderson, field representative from the international office of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, was a guest of the Medford-Ashland Area council of Beta Sigma Phi last weekend. Friday, a reception was held for Miss Anderson at the home of Mrs. Nick DeWitt, 320 Keeneway drive, president of Alpha Beta chapter of the sorority. Members from Xi Mu, Alpha Rho and Alpha Beta chapters were present during the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. DeWitt and Mrs. Nils Edin.

Saturday afternoon Miss Anderson presided for a business meeting at the Jackson hotel. Officers of Xi Mu, Alpha Sigma, Alpha Rho and Alpha Beta chapters as well as the officers of the Medford-Ashland Area council, attended this meeting. Discussion was held regarding the proposed silver anniversary chapters and it was decided that both the Ashland chapter and Medford chapters would organize a silver anniversary chapter.

Mrs. Curt Butterfield, extension officer of Alpha Rho chapter, signed the silver anniversary scroll for Medford and Mrs. Doris Lassen, president of Alpha Sigma chapter signed the scroll for Ashland. This scroll will be presented to Walter Ross, founder of the sorority, and will be framed and hung in the international headquarters of Beta Sigma Phi at Kansas City, Mo.

Members of the Medford-Ashland Area council served coffee and cookies to the members at the Camp White Domiciliary center Wednesday evening. Members and guests from Xi Mu, Alpha Rho, Alpha Sigma, Alpha Beta and Nu Phi Mu chapters also gave a program. On the program were Miss Krista Baker, Miss Laura Lamberty, Miss Betty Hawkins, Miss Carol Slater, Mrs. Wilson Slater, Miss Delores Meyer, Miss Vernola Hutchinson, Miss Adabee Seiler, Mrs. T. R. Lytle and The Delazo Trio from Ashland.

Noble Grands Club List Activities At Recent Meeting

Members of the Noble Grands club met last week with Mrs. Helen Chapman in charge. Mrs. Katherine Fleming was recommended during the business session for the degree of chivalry. The members received a note of thanks from Mrs. Byrle E. Drury, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, thanking them for their gift of dimes which they gave during the last March of Dimes drive.

Mrs. June Hoskin, a Rebekah lodge member from Myrtle Creek, attended the meeting. A cake walk was conducted by Mrs. Rozella Theesfeld and Mrs. Charles Weingel furnished piano music. Mrs. Lewis Thompson, degree staff captain, announced a practice for March 31 at 7:30 p.m., to prepare for initiation ceremonies.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lewis Thompson, Mrs. O. S. Walden, and Mrs. Margaret Davis.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon, Saturday 1 a.m., Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

JEAN HART SUGGESTS:

for
EASTER
and After

So distinctive, so feminine... designed to go everywhere and bring you compliments!

DAVIDOW... OURS EXCLUSIVELY

Shop at the Pink Store Where You Park at the Door

617 East Main • Phone 2-8992

Four Willamette university students from Medford who were elected to important class and student body positions this semester, are pictured in the Bearcat Cavern. They are (left to right) Tom Gail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Gail and vice-president of the freshman class; Miss Margaret Huson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorell Huson, president of Associated

Women Students; Miss Nancy Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dale Newton, first vice-president of Associated Women Students; Keith Mirick, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mirick, president of the senior class. Miss Newton will attend the national AWS convention to be held April 6-10 at the University of Kansas. (Willamette University photo.)

Club Women Discuss District Convention

A district convention to be held in Ashland on April 21 was discussed at a meeting March 24 of the Mistletoe club. A discussion also took place regarding the coming Medford Pear Blossom festival in which one of the juvenile members, of the Royal Neighbors of America lodge, Linda Chew, is a queen candidate.

The meeting was held at the girls community club and a covered dish luncheon preceded the business session. Potted pansy plants centered the luncheon tables.

A guessing game was conducted by Mrs. W. H. Arnold and was won by Mrs. Ana McCormack who was presented a prize. Another prize won during the session was received by Mrs. Art Johnson.

The next club meeting is set for April 13 when a dessert luncheon will be served by Mrs. Randy Huggdahl, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. A. R. Allen and Mrs. McCormack.

Accordion Students Entertain Veterans; Presentation Made

A group from Eve Prentice's accordion band entertained the Veterans of Foreign Wars in the Camp White veterans hall, Wednesday evening with an hour of music. Sandra Charters, 7, directed and band sang several numbers.

Other soloists were Lea Padgett, Oveta Walden, Melody Pierce, Virginia Walters and Richard Cooper.

Post Commander Young presented Eve Prentice with a hand tooled leather mat which had won five blue ribbons in exhibitions in Texas. The presentation was made by Ivan Lusk.

Mrs. Freda Lawrence and Mrs. Ivan Lusk of the Auxiliary VFW served refreshments.

Annual VFW Essay Contest Winner is Nancy Hamilton

Nancy Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, 43 Rose ave., is the winner of the annual essay contest sponsored by the auxiliary to Crater Lake Chapter 1833, Veterans of Foreign Wars, it was announced last week.

Miss Hamilton is a senior at Medford High school. She will be presented with a bronze medal and a prize of $25 by the auxiliary.

Theme of the contest was civilian defense.

Second prize goes to Stanley Culy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale Culy, 21 Washington st. He will receive $15. Third prize will go to Miss Susan Devoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. DeVoe, 2200 Woodlawn dr., who will receive $10.

All three contestants and their parents will be invited to be at a meeting of the auxiliary in the near future, for presentation of the awards.

Miss Hamilton's winning essay will go to the state headquarters, where it will compete with other winners throughout the state. Winner of the state contest will be entered in the national

St. Marks Guild

St. Mark's Evening guild will meet in the Parish house Monday, March 27 at 8 p.m. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Ralph Cutshall, Mrs. Louis Thurman, and Mrs. James Armstrong.

essay contest for the top award of $1,000. The top state prize is $50 and a medal.

Mrs. R. E. Schulz was contest committee chairman, and judges, who selected the winners without knowing who the contestants were, included Attorney James V. McGoodwin, James Dunlevy of radio station KYJC, and Mrs. Bren Starcher of the Mail Tribune.

Medford Society To Make Plans For Rose Show

Plans for a rose show to be held in early June will be made at a session of the Medford Rose society Monday, March 28 when they will meet at 8 p.m., in the Jackson county courthouse.

Wayne P. Grier, president, invites all persons interested in growing roses to attend the meeting.

This will be the first meeting presided over by the newly elected officers.

Church Council

Mrs. Claude Sparks, president of the Medford Council of Church Women, has announced a business meeting of the council for Monday March 28 at 2:00 p.m. at the Methodist church. Officers, committee members and representatives of the local churches will attend.

Beauty on a budget

Beauty Box Ensemble

- Prelim Consultation
- Preliminary Shampoo
- Special Rinse
- Styled Set
- Cold Wave Permanent

from 750

And if you are not yet one of our regular patrons you'll want to be one. Let us create your next new hairdo and you'll agree it's the loveliest you've ever had.

Phone 2-6133 or 2-6434 for your appointment

Marni's
MEDFORD

Beauty Salon

Style Revue of Tudor Guild Attracts Capacity Audience

"Reflections in the Glass of Fashion" was the theme of the spring style show given by Tudor guild Monday evening at Tally Ho Hunt room on the highway between Medford and Ashland. The event, attended by a capacity audience, was a benefit for the actor's scholarship fund of the Oregon Shakespearean festival.

The show was lifted from the realm of the ordinary by H. Paul Kliss, Portland, Shakespearean actor and director who served as commentator, and Rod Barrows, Portland, who prepared the script. Lines from Shakespeare were used to put sparkle into the commentary, and during intermission the two men entertained with songs and dialogue from the show "Kiss Me Kate." The number "Brush Up Your Shakespeare" from the show proved especially popular with the audience. Mrs. Wallace Sousa, Ashland, was accompanist for the numbers, and Mrs. Loren F. Flannery of Medford provided background organ music for the show.

Models for the show included small children, teenagers and adults. Included in the list were Mrs. Harry Skerry, president of the guild, Mrs. William Dawkins and Mrs. Beverly Cope, who were to be chairmen for the show. Suzanne and Betsy Cope, Christopher and Michael Dawkins, Mrs. John Thompson, George Harrington, Richard Graham, Mrs. Aubrey Hill, Pam Kaegi, Kathy Ingle, Chris Cotton, Jeanne Eberhart, Lucy Keating, Mrs. William I. McKinney, Miss Fran Barta, Mrs. Herbert Specht, Mrs. Donald MacDougall, Mrs. Virgil Bolton, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. Rose Robinette, Carole Singmaster, Mrs. Gerald Martin and Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr.

The show, in five scenes, opened with "at home" wear and included streets and sports clothing, Easter and "Sunday best" for the children and more formal clothing for adults.

Mrs. Skerry closed and opened the show, and for her final appearance wore a Don Loper original in white lace with fox stole. Appearing with her in the closing number was Richard Graham in a tuxedo suit.

Cooperating shops were Burelson's, Big Y Tot shop, Barker's, Jean Hart's, Adrienne's, Mann's, Bert Pree, Hadley's, and the Anticipation shop, all Medford, and Carole Anne shop, Ashland.

Serving as ushers during the evening were Mrs. C. Reese Braley, Mrs. Max Wimmer and Mrs. Myron Root, Medford, and Mrs. E. W. Jermarck and Mrs. Frank Davis, Ashland. Mrs. Braley was chairman.

Cut and potted flowers, and parakeets in cages provided a colorful setting for the show.

Rotana President On Annual Visit Installs Officers

Miss Beatrice L. Crewdson of Portland, National Rotana president, made the annual president's visit to Medford Rotana club Wednesday evening.

A dinner meeting was held in the Rogue room at the Medford hotel. Following dinner, candlelight installation services were conducted by Miss Crewdson for new officers of the Medford club.

Those installed were Mrs. Robert L. Powell, president; Mrs. Hugh F. Friel, first vice-president; Miss Jane Hansen, second vice-president; Mrs. William O. Blackledge, secretary; Mrs. Marvin F. Trautman, treasurer, and Miss Mabel Nye and Mrs. Jess G. Vincent, board members.

The national president was presented a gift from the Medford club and a past president's pin was presented to Mrs. Vincent, retiring president.

Miss Crewdson made suggestions on betterment of Rotana clubs and spoke on the history, aims and accomplishments.

Guests for evening in addition to Miss Crewdson were Mrs. E. J. Klimko and Mrs. Dora Car-nall. Mrs. Florence Lance became a member.

When using a paint roller to apply an oil-base paint, line the roller tray with aluminum foil. The lining makes cleaning up easier once the painting is done.

Auxiliary Conducts Installation Rites; Vote to Aid Project

Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. George Nichols were installed as right and left supporters to Mrs. E. C. Dameron, vice-president of the auxiliary to the Canton Siskiyou, Patriarchs Militant, during a meeting of the canton and auxiliary Friday evening.

Also installed were Mrs. Eber Weed, as flag bearer and Mrs. E. W. Pease, officer of the guard.

Mrs. Blanche Robinson, past president of the auxiliary, did the installing, assisted by Mrs. O. S. Walden, adjutant.

Frank Mannis, captain of the canton, presided for the men's meeting and Mrs. Fred Daugherty, auxiliary president, took charge of the women's meeting.

The women voted to present a gift of money to the state auxiliary president, Mrs. Nellie Rogers, for use in her project of the year, an electric stove for the IOOF home hospital. A gift of money has been sent for a family night program and to the Heart fund.

Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Weed were in charge of dinner arrangements. The April committee appointed is made up of Mrs. Pease, Mrs. W. H. Dyer and Mrs. Lewis Thompson.

To pack neckties wrinkle-free in your luggage, try folding them flat in a magazine.

It's from Brophy's Medford

Medford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths

Exciting New International Sterling Pattern Silver Iris

Deep-sculptured in solid silver by International Sterling. Combining the bold new look with the timeless charm of a beautiful flower, the natural beauty of an exquisite iris is deep carved and magnificently pierced for rare richness.

Place Setting $37.50 tax inc.

Pin $20.00
Bracelet $33.00
Bracelet $37.50
Bracelet $33.00

International Sterling
HOLLOWARE AND JEWELRY

La Paglia
DESIGNED

New splendor in sterling silver design by one of today's most talented silversmiths, La Paglia. These—and many other—extraordinary La Paglia designs at selected stores across the country.

Water Pitcher $250.00
Coffee Pot $285.00
Gravy Boat $110.00
Nut Dish $27.50

To cherish all your life your pattern in the solid silver with beauty that lives forever...
International Sterling

Shown are just seven of the many lovely International Sterling patterns available. Visit our silverware department and pick your favorite.

Brophy's JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century