FOURTH DOWN—BACK TO PUNT—At least it looks like a bit of football as USF's Hal Perry (23) settles to the floor after going up high to catch this rebound. This all took place in the NCAA semi-final game between San Francisco and Colorado at Kansas City, Mo. Colorado Guard Charlie Mock (5) is at right. The Dons kept their winning streak intact by downing Colorado, 62-50.

OILERS NAB AAU TOGA WITH WALSH AS HERO

Denver — (U.P.) — A full scale collegiate invasion of the National AAU basketball tournament dislodged the National Industrial Basketball League's three time champions, but the Phillips Oilers killed the Crew-Cut's hopes with two unbelievably well-timed shots.

The Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., probably will name a gusher after Jim Walsh. On Friday night in the NAAU semifinals, he beat San Francisco's Olympic Club with a 40-foot set shot, which he let fly precisely in the last second to break a 51-51 tie.

The Saturday night, in the finals against Luckett-Nix of Boulder, Colo., the Oilers found the score at 64-all, with 18 seconds to play. They flipped the ball to Walsh who again waited until the timer's finger began to tighten on the trigger, and canned a 45-foot field goal.

The Oilers were second-seeded behind the Peoria, Ill., Caterpillars who had won the NAAU title for three straight years. The Oilers, however, were this year's NIBL champions, on the strength of the steady work of such stars as Arnold Short and Chuck Darling.

San Francisco's team was a collection of West Coast college stars, generalised by Stanford's Ron Tomsic.

The Luckett-Nix club was no more, and no less than the eight seniors of the Colorado University team which placed third in the NCAA finals.

Monti Cops Miami Open 18 Strokes Under Par

Miami Beach, Fla. — (U.P.) — Pro Eric Monti, whose "vacation" from movie-land now has paid off in his first major tournament victory, planned today to make one more tourney appearance before heading back to Hollywood.

Monti, who teaches divot-digging to many of the movie stars, picked up a $2,200 check Sunday when he captured the $12,500 Miami Open with a 18-under-par score of 270 for the 72 holes.

That put the Los Angeles pro two strokes ahead of a fellow Californian, Bob Rosburg of San Francisco, and three strokes ahead of both Sammy Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Shelley Mayfield of Westbury, N. Y.

TRABERT LICKS SEIXAS

Miami Beach, Fla. — (U.P.) — Tony Trabert, anxious to regain the U.S. tennis championship en route to becoming the "world's best" player, now has three straight victories over reigning U.S. champion Vic Seixas. The two stars who combined to regain the Davis Cup for the United States in December clashed again in the final round of the Good Neighbor tournament Sunday and Trabert conquered in straight sets, 6-4, 8-6, 6-1.

Sun Valley, Idaho — (U.P.) — Stein Eriksen, world champion slalom skier from Norway, suffered a compound fracture of his right leg while working out on Baldy Mountain here yesterday.

BOSTON BUILDUP — Ted Willis, former ace southpaw with Fresno State College, signed a contract with the Boston Red Sox. He will get his basic training with San Jose of the California Baseball League this season.

Ford, Grim Shine for Yanks in Doubleheader

St. Petersburg, Fla. — (U.P.) — Add lefty Whitey Ford and righthander Bob Grim today to the New York Yankees' rapidly-growing list of pitchers who seem about ready for the American League campaign.

Ford, a 16-game winner last season, became the first Yankee to go eight innings in a 7-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday. And then Grim spun a two-hit, seven-inning shutout in the nightcap of the doubleheader.

Catcher Yogi Berra sparked the Yankees' attack in the opener with three singles and a double.

Ithaca, N.Y. — (U.P.) — The Oklahoma Aggies rule college wrestling for the second straight year, although Penn State matched the champs in the number of individual championships. The Aggies successfully defended their NCAA championship in the competition that concluded here Saturday night by rolling up 40 points to 31 for runner-up Penn State, 28 for Pittsburgh, 25 for Lehigh, and 24 for Oklahoma University.

Baseball Briefs

Fullerton, Calif. — (U.P.) — The inspired Los Angeles Angels defeated the Hollywood Stars, 4-2, yesterday after piling up 10 hits off three Hollywood pitchers.

RAINERS RALLY

Palm Springs, Calif. — (U.P.) — Seattle and Sacramento were exposed to 90 degree temperature here for 10 innings yesterday as the Rainiers rallied for two runs in the bottom half of the final frame to defeat the Solons 4-3.

PADRES HALT OAKS

San Diego, Calif. — (U.P.) — San Diego snapped an Oakland winning streak here yesterday by scoring a decisive 8-3 win over the Oaks on 11 hits.

BEAVERS WINNERS

Glendale, Calif. — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers edged by the Hollywood "B" team, 8-7, yesterday in an exhibition game that found a pitcher driving in the winning run. Hurler Royce Lint went to bat in the bottom half of the ninth with Walt Judnich on second base. Lint connected for a single to win the game.

TRIBE WHACKS SEALS

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The San Francisco Seals headed today for their spring training quarters in Brawley after losing a three-game exhibition series to the Cleveland Indians in their home park. The Indians, aided by Larry Doby's three homers, won a 14-0 victory over the Seals yesterday in the final game of the series, which attracted a total of 27,720 paid admissions.

JINGLE CLYDE VICTOR

Corvallis — (U.P.) — Jingle Clyde won top honors in the all-age stake at the Willamette Amateur field trial club's spring trials at Camp Adair near here over the weekend. The dog is from Visalia, Calif., and is handled by Jim Mcrath of Knight's Landing.

SLIDING INTO third base with spikes high, Al Smith, Cleveland outfielder is safe as Mike Baxes (1) leaps to avoid spikes. Indians beat San Francisco in exhibition, 8-2. (International)

Haney Thinks Pirates Playing in Wrong Loop

Fort Myers, Fla. — (U.P.) — Manager Fred Haney was just about convinced today that the Pittsburgh Pirates' biggest problem is that they're playing in the wrong league.

The Pirates finished a dismal eighth in the National League last season but they've compiled a 7-1 mark against American League teams this spring. They scored their seventh victory over an A.L. foe Sunday when Frank Thomas' three-run homer sparked a 7-6 win over the Baltimore Orioles.

Eagle Pointers Beat St. Mary's

Eagle Point — Eagle Point high, playing its first game under the new lights of its home field, defeated St. Mary's of Medford 16 to 12 in a baseball fray Saturday night.

The Eagles enjoyed an eight-run fourth inning and the Crusaders threatened in the seventh with six tallies. Bob Stewart hit three for four for Eagle Point.

LINESCORES:
St. Mary's — 120 300 6-12 7 8
Eagle Point — 122 812 x-18 7 0
Jones, Mike (4) and Darland; Caldwell, Schaube (2); C. Christian (4); W. Christian (6); Tuttle (7) and Boren.

DeMarco Faces Manzo In St. Nicholas Bout

New York — (U.P.) — Former lightweight champion Paddy DeMarco of Brooklyn, knocked out in his last two fights, meets young Libby Manzo of New York tonight in a widely telecast 10-round bout at St. Nicholas arena.

Tonight's other TV bout, from the Eastern Parkway arena in Brooklyn, pits Jimmy Martinez, Phoenix, Ariz., middleweight against Danny Giovanelli of Brooklyn.

Marion, Rivera Spark White Sox 4-3 Victory

Tampa, Fla. — (U.P.) — Manager Marty Marion has and his worries over the Chicago White Sox this spring but he's satisfied with the showings of Minnie Mino and Jim Rivera.

Mino and Rivera collaborated to bring the White Sox from behind to a 4-3, 11-inning victory Sunday over the Brooklyn Dodgers. Mino singled and Rivera homered in the ninth for a 3-3 tie and they paired doubles in the 11th for the win.

Clearwater, Fla. — (U.P.) — Just in case Manager Walt Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers had forgotten—Jackie Robinson made it plain today he "came to play" this year.

Robinson, overshadowed all spring while Alston showed great interest in young infielders Don Hoak and Don Zimmer, broke out Sunday with four hits and stole home. The Dodgers bowed in 11 innings to the Chicago White Sox, 4-3, but Robinson stole the show with his electric performance.

Americans spend 1.2 billion hours each year playing various card games.

Some electric light bulbs for special uses are no larger than a match head.
