Japan Negotiating for Purchase of U.S. Rice

San Francisco —(U.P.)— Japan is negotiating with the United States government to buy 100,000 tons of rice, which should clean up California's rice surplus, reports indicate.

Nathan Cummings, chairman of Consolidated Foods Corporation, told the Security Analysts of San Francisco that the transaction will be payable in Japanese currency, if completed.

"Prices and profits will not be as satisfactory as we would like," Cummings said.

"However, in view of the competition of world markets and the tremendous surplus that our government is taking over from the south, we believe that we will come out fairly well in our rice operations."

Rice is the largest item in consolidated's business. Last year the company handled 2 1/2 million bags of rice at 160 pounds each.

Establishment of labor unions on a permanent basis was apparent for the first time during the depression of 1893-1896, says a Twentieth Century Fund report. It was then that unions for the first time weathered a major economic setback without loss of membership.

ANYWAY THE EOs TRIED

Dr. Brady several times since then and he says the boys and their tonsils are perfectly normal. But for your "harping"—more power to you—we might have made a dreadful mistake. . . (Signed).

You know, if I could get a 5% cut of the take of the EOs (ever-ready operators) for unnecessary tonsillectomies in the state of Pennsylvania I could take the curse off the fee-splitting deal by using the money to communicate to every parent of a school child in Buck's County the fact that Children's tonsils normally enlarge in the winter and spring, and, if parents or guardians have the wisdom to wait, the tonsils will shrink again to what even an EO must regard as normal, in the good old summer time when parents and guardians don't mind so much letting the youngsters play outdoors.

Well, maybe I wouldn't try to teach the dumb—the smug parents all this in one lesson, but I could teach 'em something, if some philanthropist would . . .

For that matter, I distribute to parents and guardians in the U. S. and Canada, some 8,000 or more pamphlets in a year at my own expense—which amounts to 6 cents each, representing the cost of preparing, printing and distributing the pamphlets. Not bad, for a wicked old . . .

Come, now, there must be eight times 8,000 parents, guardians, teachers, uncles, aunts, big

We are reliably informed that Crater Lake will be drained this summer to relieve the water shortage.

If that isn't reason enough, the park superintendent lost his upper plate from a boat last summer and is getting tired of mashed potatoes.

Springfield Councilmen Recall Petitions Filed

Springfield, Ore. —(U.P.)— Recall petitions were filed at the city hall here Monday. They are aimed at ousting two city councilmen from municipal posts.

Listed on a "routine" charge, that they were incompetent to serve as councilmen because they were more interested in their own welfare than that of the city, were councilmen Paris B. Breedlove and Ralph Nicholas.

The petitions were filed by Jack D. Lively, local attorney, on behalf of Donald McElhany, who listed himself as treasurer of the two recall movements.

The petitioners would have 90 days in which to obtain the minimum 628 signatures, after which a recall election would be mandatory within 20 days.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Hey, Knuckheads! Jane and Henry Field, we'll call em, sent a pleasant note informing me that a copy of a booklet I sent them was defective—pages 27 to 34 missing. But there's nothing I can do about it because Jane and Henry, the dopes, omitted their address.

Every day a dozen letters that I'd like to answer go into the chucker unanswered because the writers give no address. And every day two or three correspondents include stamped, self-addressed envelope, all right, but addressed not to themselves but to me. Now, folks, don't you think it might bring on a nervous breakdown.

In Little Lesson No. 2 you recommended a real heart tonic. Well, sir, it did wonders for me. My heart is in fine condition now . . . (H. J. T.)

Answer—Thank you. Anyway, the tonic I recommended can do no harm in any circumstance. Little Lesson No. 2 is the booklet C.V.D. about heart and artery troubles. For a copy send 2c and a stamped envelope bearing YOUR address.

The Gray Look

Anemic ten years . . . now find that as long as I take plenty of vitamin C every day (200 mg. a day) my blood count remains high and I get by without liver shots. My skin has lost that "gray look." The doctor just laughed at me, but I'm satisfied my improvement is due to taking a half pint (large glassful) of freshly expressed orange juice daily . . . (Mrs. A. T.)

Answer—Thank you. Your suggestion is a good one. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet THE GRAY SICKNESS. Protected 1955 by John F. Dille Co.
