

Kaufman and Hart Comedy Will Be SOC Spring Drama

Ashland—"The Man Who Came to Dinner," George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart's hilarious comedy, has been selected as the major dramatic production for the spring quarter at Southern Oregon college. It will be presented in Churchill hall auditorium, May 5, 6 and 7.

Kaufman and Hart, who have written plays separately and with others, have combined their talents for such successful plays as "You Can't Take It With You," "Once in a Lifetime," "George Washington Slept Here," "Merrily We Roll Along," and "I'd Rather Be Right."

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" was a "smash hit" during the 1939-40 season. It opened in New York on Oct. 16, 1939, and closed on July 12, 1941. The play also enjoyed successful runs in other cities and was made into a movie. Since that time it has become a favorite with college and little theater groups.

Director Dorothy Stolp said that tryouts were to be held at the college this week and that reading rehearsals were also to start later in the week.

Herbs Recommended For Hearty Soups

New York — (U.P.)—Turn to the herb race to perk up hearty soups. Oregano, for instance, gives the gourmet touch to tomato or bean soup.

Mix a 1 1/2 ounce can of cream of tomato soup with an equal amount of beef broth. Add 1/2 teaspoon of crumbled whole oregano leaves. Heat to the boiling point, add salt and ground black pepper to taste, and serve piping hot.

Or, to a can of black bean soup—prepared according to directions on the label—add 1/2 teaspoon of crumbled oregano and 1 tablespoon of fresh lemon juice. Salt and pepper to taste, heat to boiling and serve. Garnish each bowl with a thin slice of lemon, dusted with paprika.

NEW PIE TIN

Detroit — (U.P.)—Hardware stores have replaced the traditional round pie pan with a new type in the interests of equality.

The battles which formerly raged over whether the pie was cut into equal slices have been made obsolete by the new pan.

Shaped roughly like a rectangle, the pan holds seven cuts of pie and has notches on the rim to make sure that all seven cuts of pie are mathematically equal.

Always cook cheese at low temperature to keep it from becoming tough and stringy.

Among the numerous valley residents who plan European trips this summer are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Krows, 1215 East Main street. They left Tuesday on a two-month tour which will take them to England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France.

Mr. and Mrs. Krows left from here for Vancouver, B.C., where they will entrain on the Canadian Pacific railway for the trip across this continent.

The travelers are scheduled to embark April 7 at New York City on the Holland-American liner, "Ryndam." The ship will dock at South Hampton, England, and at London where they will join a small group for a visit to Stratford-on-Avon. They will be guests there at the Alveston Manor hotel April 21, and that evening will attend a Shakespearean play, at the Shakespearean theater.

From Dover the Medford couple will go by steamer to Ostend, Belgium and continue then by rail to Amsterdam, Holland. They also expect to make a visit to the Island of Marken where old Holland customs are observed and Dutch costumes still are worn.

After visiting at Cologne and Bonn, Germany, the Krows then will go by river steamer up the Rhine river and then on to Heidelberg.

The remainder of their trip will be through the Black Forest to Lucerne, Interlaken, and Zermatt at the foot of the Matterhorn in Switzerland; Milan, Venice, Florence, Perugia, Assisi, Rome, Naples, Pompeii, Sorrento, Capri, and Pisa, all in Italy; then on to Nice, Monte Carlo, Grenoble, Geneva, and Paris.

Good kneading bread needs plenty of kneading. Knead until you can see small bubbles under the surface of the dough as you stretch it gently. Cooking experts say it is almost impossible to over-knead.
