CELEBRATING A "GREAT COUNTRY"

floors. Hubbard Bros. have expanded and progressed in step with a growing community . . . more important to us, the number of good friends and customers has increased through the years. As the years have gone by, more and more folks have come to learn that fair dealings and quality merchandise are traditional, here at Hubbard Bros. . . . that they can always anticipate a friendly welcome and courteous service when they visit our store. We are proud of our progress during the past 71 years, and we want you to help us celebrate a history as old as Medford itself. We're offering some real values to make your anniversary visit here a really profitable one!

Hubbard Brothers' store at Main and Riverside as it is today. In this modern store, with up-to-the-minute, complete stocks of merchandise, 71 years of progress will be celebrated during the next 10 days. The farm equipment phase of our business, operated as Hubbard-Wray Company at 25 South Riverside, joins in anniversary observance and special celebration values.

So you want to be a writer? Is your major interest art or money? If it is the latter, try to originate a character that can go through a series of short stories, films, television plays, etc. Such as Sherlock Holmes, Craig Kennedy, Boston Blackie, The Cisco Kid, Tarzan or Hopalong Cassidy. Incidentally, Edgar Rice Burroughs was a floorwalker in a Chicago department store when he figured out the character of Tarzan of the Apes. Hopalong Cassidy was created by Clarence E. Mulford when he was a clerk in the Brooklyn License Bureau. As you probably know, millions of dollars have been realized from the sale of and royalties from the various rights to these two characters.

Asking
Queries from clients. Q. I claim that when the noble and courageous thoroughbred Determiner was sent to the post staggering under a weight of 129 pounds to run in that grueling mile and three quarters race at Santa Anita he was only three years old. Right? A. Quite right, sir; Determiner will not actually be four years old until April 7 this year. He was foaled April 7, 1951 . . . Q. Did Lionel Barrymore ever appear in a "cliff-hanger," as silent film serials were called? A. Yes, sir. Lionel portrayed one of the villains in Pearl Whites' serial titled "The Exploits of Elaine."

Passing By
Lynne O'Neil, beautiful bistro ballerina from Baltimore. Now the darling of the Greenwich Village cabarets. She is the modern counterpart of that highly torrid entertainer of the yesterday who was billed as "The Girl in Blue." Yes, sir, Miss O'Neil also throws garters to the customers.

Over There
For the stage or screen star who is most pleasant and co-operative in the matter of interviews, etc., the journalists of Paris have an award called "The Orange." For the most unpleasant and most difficult star to get along with there is an award called "The Lemon."

New Noses
That the nose is a major factor in feminine facial beauty is currently receiving widespread recognition in the British Isles. London's Harley street specialists in plastic surgery are booked for months ahead by women wishing to have their noses altered. The price of this operation is the equivalent of about $425. Incidentally, females who have undergone such an operation talk of the result as if it were the acquisition of a new dress, hat or hair-do. They ask everybody, "How do you like my new nose?"

Unusual Mother
Woman I know of married for the first time at 33. She had her first blessed event at 34 and after that gave birth to a child each year for four successive years. So despite the fact that she did not marry until 33, she was the mother of a large family before she was 40. Incidentally, she now looks younger than when married.

Literate Attorneys
Dispute Quotation
San Francisco—(U.P.)—Erudite Government Atty. John Lockley, during the immigration trial of Cesare Rossi, said in his summation:

"Oh, what a tangled web we weave
When first we practice to deceive."
"That's from Shakespeare," he said.
Defense Atty. Joseph Alioto shouted, "It is not: It's Alexander Pope!"

One million cubic feet of air contain only one-tenth of a cubic foot of krypton, a gas which is used in the manufacture of television tubes.
