

Mullin-Thoreson Wedding Held in Methodist Church

Talent — An afternoon ceremony Sunday, March 20, wedded Miss Gayle Jeannine Thoreson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith V. Thoreson, 113 South First street, in Talent, and Donald Garry Mullin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Mullin, 209 South Orange street, Medford. The ceremony took place at First Methodist church in Medford. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb read the double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock, and about 175 guests attended.

Floral decorations for the ceremony and the reception were of white gladiolus, red and white roses and carnations. Prelude music was furnished by Mrs. Charles Adamson, organist, and Glen Lamb, soloist.

The bride wore a gown of chantilly lace over pleated nylon tulle and satin, designed with close fitting bodice, and lace paneled skirt. The train was of matching lace and tulle panels. Her fingertip veil was held by a headpiece of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with red rosebuds on a heart of white satin.

Miss Bonnie Leeper was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Carol Coghill, Verlee Zemke and Nancy Lee Olson. Miss Gwen Stephens, a cousin of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid. They wore princess style ballerina frocks of white flannel over red taffeta. Their headbands and bouquets were of red carnations.

Best man was Donald Schneider. Seating the guests were Gordon Thoreson, a brother of the bride, Norman Loop and Frank McKeown Jr., of Seattle, Wash. The ringbearer was Dale Metzger, a nephew of the bridegroom.

Melody Mullin, a niece of the bride, and Susie Cooper, a cousin of the bride, were the flower girls. Their dresses were of red nylon organza and their headpieces were of white carnations.

Lighting the candles were Miss Nancy Coghill and Miss Rose Murray who wore red ballerina length gowns and wristlets of white carnations.

The bride's mother was dressed in a melon colored dress with black and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress and dusted with white accessories. Both mothers had corsages of white orchids.

During the reception at the church rooms Mrs. Merrill Thoreson, grandmother of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Jerry Stephens, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Reuel Riens Jr., a sister of the bridegroom, served the punch.

In charge of the guest book was Miss Betty Ann Taylor, and gifts were received by Miss Donna Mullin, a sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Schneider.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Ellen Sutton, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom from Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kuikman, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom from Riddle; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swindler, Gold Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Alexander and children, Ardelle and Victor, Klamath Falls.

The couple made their wedding trip to San Francisco and after Easter Sunday will be at home at Twenty-nine Palms Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Marine corps.

Farewell Party Given by Sorority For Mrs. Wilson

Members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority met at the home of Miss Dolores Lee, Loring court, March 28 to hold a farewell party for Mrs. Donald Wilson, who is leaving Medford soon to make her home in Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Wilson was presented a jeweled pin in a traditional candlelight ceremony and was also given a farewell gift by her sorority sisters.

A short business meeting was held to discuss the state convention to be held next month in Eugene, and delegates were appointed.

Reports on the Easter seal campaign were presented and Mrs. Chester Peterson, chairman of the Lily Day parade, designated committees to assist with this project.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.

The next meeting of the sorority will be April 11 at the home of Mrs. Russell Roseboro, 151 Highland drive.
