Kimble-Casey Wedding Held At Home of Bride's Parents

Miss Vera Mae Casey became the bride of Lloyd Charles Kimble of Coos Bay at a ceremony held March 26 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Casey, 1409 Cunningham avenue, Medford. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kimble were here from Coos Bay for the ceremony which was read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. J. Thomas Dixon of the First Methodist church read the double ring rites. About 30 guests attended. Pink and white stock decorated the rooms.

Mr. Casey gave his daughter in marriage.

For her wedding the bride wore a white suit and blue accessories and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible. Mrs. Henry Tygart, Butte Falls, the bride's sister, was the honor attendant. With her tan suit Mrs. Tygart wore pink accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

Robert Kimble, Coos Bay, was best man for his brother. Music was furnished by Mrs. James Edge, who sang, accompanied.

Luncheon, Cards Planned for Group

Lady Elks will meet at the Medford Elks club party lounge Tuesday, April 5 at 1 p.m. A complete luncheon will be served and an afternoon of cards will follow.

Mrs. Robert Forbes, new chairman of the group, will be introduced during the luncheon. She succeeds Mrs. Frank Little, who has served as chairman the past season. Wives of all Elks club members are invited. Bridge, pinocle and court whist will be in play.

Committees Named for Easter Party

Final plans will be completed this week for the annual Easter Monday luncheon of St. Ann's Altar society. It will be held April 11 at 12:30 p.m. in St. Mary's gymnasium.

Over 60 women are on the committees preparing for this event. In addition the entire student body of St. Mary's High school will assist as baby sitters, handymen, chauffeurs and hostesses.

Mrs. John Laden is general chairman and the hostess committee is headed by Mrs. Frank Roelandt. Assisting her are Mesdames John Cooney, Lawrence Neer, William Driscoll Jr., Abner Clark, C. F. Metz, Frank Dorian, Fred Spiegelburg, Joseph Neumes, John Daugherty, Joseph Barrett, John Jensen and Russell McKeehnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Duff and Mr. and Mrs. James Finegan make up the tables and chairs committee and Mrs. Gerard Clark is coffee chairman.

Lady Lions Give Benefit Party

Twenty-four tables of cards were in play at the Medford Lady Lions club auxiliary card party Tuesday evening at the YMC building. The event is an annual one in connection with the state Lions club auxiliary project to assist with benefit work for the state school for the blind.

Prizes were awarded for high and low scores at each table, and refreshments were served.

Among those winning prizes were Mrs. L. G. McLaren, Mrs. Theodore Garhart and Mrs. S. B. Collins, Denver, Colo. Mrs. Collins is in Medford to visit her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Temple.

Mrs. Lee Mellish was chairman of the party with Mrs. J. A. Tomjack assisting. Included in the decorations was a poster which introduced the group's candidate in the pear blossom festival, Lorill Rae Minkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Minkler. The Easter theme was used in decorative place cards and tallies, and spring flowers also decorated the room.

Former Resident Visits in Valley

Carl W. Ringer left for his home in Madera, Calif., after spending a week in the valley with friends. Mr. Ringer visited Mr. and Mrs. William vonder Hellen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl vonder Hellen, George Vilas and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott.

Mr. Madera, who at one time was employed by the Pacific and Eastern Railway company which operated trains between Medford and Butte Falls, left here in 1917 with a company of men who served together in World War I. Since that time he had returned here only once, making a brief overnight visit.

When Mr. Madera was with the P E R, the station stood where Hawthorne park is now located.

New Group Plans Promotion Dinner

Plans for a promotion dinner were made at a meeting of the auxiliary to the Milk Producers' league held Tuesday noon at the Jackson hotel. The president, Mrs. Wilfred Davis, presided.

Reports from various committees were given. The dinner will be held the latter part of May.

The next meeting will be held April 26 at the Jackson hotel.
