Rogue River Tops EP in Track Meet

Eagle Point — Rogue River high, taking eight first places and tying for first in another, downed Eagle Point 65 23 to 51 13 yesterday in a track meet. Ted Stanfield paced the Chiefs to victory by winning the high hurdles in :18.3, the low hurdles in :22.01, the broad jump with 20 feet 4 inches, and tying with Eagle Point's Gale Friend at 5-7 in the high jump.

Jack Herburger and Bob Hoover were double winners for Rogue River and Jerry Eastgate copped both distances for Eagle Point. Herburger put the shot 45 feet and threw the discus an unmeasured distance. Hoover ran the 100-yard dash in .11 and the 23.7. Eastgate ran the mile in 5:10 and the half mile in 2:23.

Eagles Missing Friend won the pole vault at 10-3 and Adrian Eldrod took the 440-yard run for the Eagles in :60. Bill Hedrick, Rogue River, nabbed the javelin at 155-10. There was no relay.

The Eagle team was without the services of Ken Bitterling, who is in San Francisco as a 4-Her for the livestock exposition, and Frank Reich, who was working. Eldon Mason was on the hobbled list with a knee injury.

Oregon Staters Lick Linfield

Corvallis — (U.P.) — Oregon State baseballers defeated Linfield 7-1 here yesterday afternoon.

Sophomore Syl Johnson Jr. held Linfield to only six hits, one of them a home run by centerfielder Dick Shaw.

Record-Breaking Entry In NW Bowling Tourney

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — A record-breaking number of teams are entered in the 39th annual Northwestern International Bowling tournament to be held here April 30-May 22, it was announced today by the tourney committee. There are 414 teams to take part in the tourney, and 800 doubles entries and 1,600 singles are registered.

Teams from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Alaska and California will take part. NEW SCHOOL PLANNED Corvallis — (U.P.) — Voters here yesterday approved a $140,000 bond issue for the start of the first new elementary school here since 1923. The vote was 434 to 131.

IW Official Sees Backward Step If Measure on Water Resources Passes Senate in Present Form

Eugene — "Oregon will take a backward step in fish and wildlife conservation if the water resources measure, House Bill 25, passes the state legislature at Salem in its present form," Dan P. Allen, state president of the Izaak Walton League of America, advised 30 chapters of the league in Oregon this week.

Allen stated he is requesting a public hearing on the bill, which is now being considered by the Senate Natural Resources committee, after having been passed by the House last week. Sen. Paul E. Geddes of Roseburg is chairman of the committee.

Ducks Win Two From Portland

Portland — (U.P.) — Oregon's Ducks took two seven-inning baseball games from the Portland Pilots at Vaughn street park here in sunny weather yesterday 3-0 and 6-5.

Pitcher Bill Blodgett held Portland to three hits in the first game while Oregon got but four off Bill Witala and Joe Ercog. One of these was a 335-foot homer by George Shaw.

Oregon rallied for two runs in the final inning to take the second game with Ercog, who also relieved in this one, the losing pitcher. Bill Garner was the winning Duck moundsman. Ted Norbert hit a pinch homer for the Pilots.

Player Representatives Vote To Modify Rule On Training Deadline

Cincinnati, Ohio — (U.P.) — Major league baseball player representatives, unhappy over the the March 1 spring training deadline, have voted to modify the ruling to permit volunteers to begin workouts at an earlier date.

The deadline was adopted this season at the players' request. It forbade training before March 1 and met opposition from players and club owners alike when it went into operation.

Representatives of 15 of the 16 major league clubs, meeting here to discuss the wage minimum problem and others, reversed their earlier attitude on spring training. They voted to retain the March 1 deadline, but recommended that players could volunteer to open training before that date.

Indian Education Proposal Introduced

Salem — (U.P.) — Representatives from Lane, Yamhill and Marion counties have introduced legislation calling for an educational program for Indians in western Oregon on the same basis as that recently provided for Klamath Indians.

Funds for the program would be appropriated by the state but it would be reimbursed by the federal government. Klamath Indians were the subject of a bill which passed both Houses earlier in the session to educate them in the mechanics of self government.

Sam Snead Razor Sharp For Masters

Augusta, Ga. — (U.P.) — From far and near, the greats of golf gathered today for a nostalgic crack at par-as-Bobby-Jones figured it should be in his own Masters tournament and Sam Snead appeared to be the hungriest of the lot.

With practice rounds of 65 and 67 under his belt over the par 72 Augusta National course, Snead seemed razor sharp in his bid to set two precedents in the 19th Masters tournament.

Seeks Fourth Win First, if he won, he would be the first player ever to capture two straight masters titles. Second, he would be the first ever to win it four times.

A possible field of 80, one more than last year's record 79, shaped up for the four days of 18-hole play starting Thursday. Names like Gene Littler, Mike Souchak and Bob Toski dropped abruptly from the pre-Masters talk Tuesday.

Pistons Deadlock Play-Off Series

Indianapolis — (U.P.) — "That was the best game the Pistons have played against Syracuse in the current series."

So spoke Fort Wayne Piston Coach Charley Eckman following Tuesday night's "crucial" victory over the troublesome Nats. The win gave the resurgent Pistons an even 2-2 cards with the Nats in their best-of-seven NBA basketball title series.

The 109-102 triumph, the highest score of the present series, was a must for Fort Wayne, which will seek to pick up a 3-2 edge in their final home game here Thursday.

COAST BOXERS WIN

Vallejo, Calif. — (U.P.) — Navy boxers representing the West Coast won eight of the 10 decisions over the Pacific Fleet in 1955 all-Navy Pacific area boxing championships at the Mare Island Naval shipyard. Winners of last night's matches will meet the Atlantic-Mediterranean champs in the world-wide Navy finals at the Oakland auditorium April 12. Proceeds from both matches will go to the Navy relief society.
