

Come to Church Easter Sunday

Apostolic Faith Orchestra, Chorus Will Be Featured

Music by the Apostolic Faith church orchestra and chorus will be featured for Easter services, the pastor, the Rev. C. W. Frost, has announced.

Good Friday service will be held at 8 o'clock tonight, opening with selections by the orchestra entitled, "Cujus Animam" by Rossini, and "Lamb of God," by Bizet. The chorus will sing, "Blessed Redeemer."

Prelude
The prelude to the Sunday worship service at 11 a.m. will include, "Easter Fantasia," by Lake; "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," by Handel, played by the orchestra; "Jesus, Prince of Life," by Brown, and "He Rose Triumphant" by Ackley, sung by the chorus.

The service at 7:50 p.m. will feature a cantata, "From Darkness to Light," compiled by Ellen Jan Lorenz on the music of P. I. Tchaikovsky, under the direction of the Rev. Norman Allen.

Soloists will be Mrs. Cecil Owen, contralto, Mrs. Duane Jones and Mrs. Randy Nichols, sopranos, and Duane Jones, baritone. Duets will be sung by Mrs. Ray Robinson and Warren Hanlin, and Mrs. Randy Nichols and Efton Jones. A mixed quartet and male chorus are also featured as well as the 40-voice chorus.

No collections will be taken.

THE REV. PATRICK MAJOR At First Baptist

Dual Theme Sunday At First Baptist

Along with the Easter theme, the First Baptist church will emphasize on Sunday, April 10, the theme of carrying out the commission of Christ to carry the gospel to every nation, according to church officers.

The Rev. Patrick Major, who has served for 12 years as a missionary to India and plans to return with his family to that country this summer, will speak at the 7:30 p.m. service.

At both the morning and night services an Easter offering will be taken for the purpose of aiding the Majors to get back to the mission field for another term of service under the Conservative Baptist Mission society. The evening service also will feature the Easter story in song by the youth choir, directed by Mrs. Ted Graham.

Sunrise Service
Other services for the day will include the sunrise service for all members and friends of the church, at a viewpoint on the Old Military road. Those planning to attend should meet at the church at 5:30 a.m., and transportation will be provided for those needing it. The Rev. James Neely will give the message.

The pastor will use as the subject of his message at the 11 a.m. service, "The Glory of His Resurrection." J. Robert Cochran will lead the adult choir in the singing of two anthems, "The Message of Easter" by Wilson and "Ah, Holy Jesus" by Peery.

The Rev. Mr. Major will speak to the young people of the church at 6:30 p.m.

Young People Plan Sunrise Services; Parties Scheduled

Easter observance at the Friends church Sunday will begin with a sunrise service for young people at 5:30 a.m. at the J. W. Smith home on Old Stage rd. As a part of the program, Kenneth Kumasawa will read Van Dyke's poem, "God of the Open Air," and Dr. Wayne Roberts will give a devotional message. Following the service breakfast will be served in the Smith's patio.

Two worship services are scheduled at the church, the first at 8:30 a.m. and the other at the usual 11 a.m. hour. Pastor Clynton Crisman will deliver an Easter message and the choir will sing at both services. New members will be welcomed into the church at the second worship hour, and Mrs. Raymond Brood will conduct junior church during this service.

Easter Program
At 9:45 a.m., children of the beginner and primary departments of the Sunday school will present an Easter program to the adult department in the sanctuary. Intermediates and juniors will meet in Harmony hall to see a film, "The Lord is Risen."

The church choir will present a concert at 7:30 a.m. of Easter music directed by Mrs. Crisman, with Mrs. Orrin Ogier accompanying. A film depicting the resurrection of the Lord will conclude the program.

Children of the Sunday school will participate in a series of Easter parties today and Saturday which will include egg hunts on the church lawn. Primary boys and girls, grades 1 to 3, and their mothers will meet today after school, juniors and intermediates, grades 4 to 8, Saturday, from 1 to 3 p.m. and preschool children and their mothers, Saturday, 2 to 3 p.m.

Nearly Identical Services Planned

Two nearly identical services will be conducted at the Congregational church on Easter, at 9 and 11 a.m. The sermon will be on the topic, "Why Are You Weeping?" The choir will present the anthem, "Alleluia, Christ Is Risen" at both services and a women's trio will sing, "There Is a Green Hill."

Egg Hunt
Between the two services at about 10 o'clock an egg hunt will be held for the children of the Sunday school on the lawns of the church property. No class sessions will be held for the Sunday school children, except for the nursery and lower primary groups. Their classes will be at the same time as the first service, at 9 o'clock.

All the older Sunday school children are invited to attend the first church service with their parents. During the second church service the usual nursery cars will be provided for small children.

AGE OLD, yet ever-new, is the transcendent glory Easter. And where else can you find its true meaning so beautifully expressed as in Church? Here, as you join with family and friends in song and prayer, you will experience anew in your heart the miracle of Easter, and return to your work-a-day world refreshed in spirit and strengthened in faith, hope and courage. Medford Churches have planned inspiring services for Easter Sunday. A warm welcome awaits you at the Church of your choice and your faith.

Young Boys Group Will Open Program

The newly organized boys school facilities has been accomplished to accommodate a larger attendance. These additional facilities will be ready for use Sunday morning. Persons wanting transportation to the church may telephone 2-4292 or 2-5328.

EASTER FILM
The Easter story episode in the "This Is The Life" series produced by Lutheran television productions will be shown Sunday over KBES-TV. The cast will appear in authentic costumes and surroundings to portray the events during Christ's last days on earth. The story is a departure from the regular Sunday modern-day family portrayals.

The Great White Throne Judgment," will be the subject for Dr. Edwards' sermon at the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service Sunday. Easter music also will be furnished by the various musical groups of the church.

Tonight at 7:45 p.m. Dr. Edwards' message will be on the topic, "A Well of Water." Remodeled
Extensive redecorating has been done of the church annex and rearrangement of Sunday

Methodists Will Televise Services

Two of the Easter services of morning worship at the First Methodist church will be televised on a closed circuit to other rooms in the church, according to Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb, minister.

Anthem will be sung by the Chancel choir under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Adamson, at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services. Included will be "Easter Carol of the Trees" by Gaul; "Resurrection" by Gounod. The Youth choir, under the direction of Mrs. George Sloniger, will sing the anthems, "Joyous Easter Hymn" and "The Strife Is O'er" by Peery, at the 8 a.m. service.

Dr. Balcomb's sermon subject at all three services will be, "From Here To Eternity."

A service of baptism will be held at 3:00 p.m. with the Children's choir assisting. Sunrise Services
Youth of the First Methodist church will join those of the First Christian church, First Presbyterian church, First Church of the Nazarene, Central Church of Christ, and Church of the Brethren for a sunrise service at 5:30 a.m. on Heuner's hill.

New Church Will Be Opened Sunday

The new Forest Acres Community church, non-denominational, will be open to the public for the first time next Sunday. The Rev. Ernest F. Post is the pastor.

The building, although not entirely finished, is sealed with wall board on the inside and painted. Sunday school supplies now are on hand as are 50 church service hymnals with the name of the church imprinted on them. A piano has also been donated.

The church property, valued at $10,000, will be almost free of debt when it opens Sunday. The pastor's address is Route 2, Box 213B, Central Point.

Lutherans Announce Early Morning Rites

Sunrise services will be conducted at 6 a.m. Easter Sunday, at the Starlite theater sponsored by St. Peter's Lutheran church. The Rev. Kenneth Korby will speak.

Those who attend also are invited to the church at 1020 East Main st., after the services when coffee and doughnuts will be served. Sunday services at the church will include Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., and worship at 11 a.m.

Group From Medford Attending Conference

The Rev. and Mrs. James W. Neely of the First Baptist church and eight messengers from the church traveled Thursday to Newell, Calif., for an annual meeting of the Shasta-Cascade Conservative Baptist association, held there April 7 through today.

The meetings consist of business and inspirational sessions. Missionary speaker is the Rev. Ralph Gorsline, of Brazil. The annual sermon was given by the Rev. Neely.

The messengers attending the sessions from Medford are Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, S. T. Brannock, Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Mrs. A. D. Mitchell and Mrs. E. E. Wilson.

Resurrection Will Be Portrayed in Program

An Easter program will be presented Sunday by the Sunday school department of the Apostolic Faith church, North Central ave., at Third st.

The young people's orchestra and chorus will participate and musical selections will be given by the primary, junior, and senior departments.

A portrayal of the resurrection will be presented entitled, "The Empty Tomb." The story will be depicted in scenes, recitation, scripture, and songs. Those representing the characters in the scene will be: Ronald O'Neill and Marilyn Overstreet, angels; Bernice Froehrich, Mary Magdalene; Deanna Brown, the other Mary; Jerry Iverson, Peter, and Danny Andrews, John. The program is under the direction of Mrs. Coy Bailey, and the garden scene was painted by Mrs. Isaac Shults.

A favor will be given to each child in the primary and junior departments.

Interdenominational Sunrise Service Set

An interdenominational Easter sunrise service will be held at 5:30 a.m. Easter Sunday at Heuners hill, one mile west of Arnold lane on Belling rd.

Speaking on "What Easter Means to Me" will be Lily Bodenstab, Richard Arnold, and Nathan Douthit. The participating churches are First Christian, First Presbyterian, First Methodist, Church of the Brethren, Central Church of Christ, and Church of the Nazarene.

Virgin islands have a land area of 133 square miles.

SPECIAL EASTER SERVICES

Old Historic Church
Jacksonville, Ore.
Across from Museum
At 11 o'clock A.M.
Sunday school at 9:45

Hell Hath Enlarged Herself

Isa. 5:14
Never was religious hypocrisy so prevalent, nor false prophets so plentiful as they are today. What is a false prophet? One who pretends to be called of God yet who refuses to hold up HIS infallible word.
HE THAT BELIEVETH SHALL BE SAVED. Mark 16:16. Believeth what? Every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Mat. 4:4. Be not deceived.
Frank Howell

THE REVISED STANDARD VERSION BIBLE

wonderful to own or give at Easter
More than 3 million people have already turned to this inspiring version because it's written in the language of our time.
AVAILABLE IN MANY FINE EDITIONS

Genuine leather$10.00
Buckram 6.00
Black limp binding-illus. 3.50
Blue cloth-illus. 3.25

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Groveland Avenue and Oakwood Drive

IDENTICAL SERVICES FOR EASTER
9:00 a.m. 11:00 a.m.
Easter Music and Sermon

Easter Worship Services CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

"Medford's Singing Church"
HOLLY AT FIRST MEDFORD, OREGON

9:45 A. M. friendly Sunday School classes will discuss "Our Assurance of Eternal Life."
Vibra-harp and Organ prelude begins at 9:35 A. M.

Rev. R. W. Hurn, Pastor

10:50 A.M. SERMON—"APPOINTMENTS IN THE HEREAFTER."
CHOIR: "Were You There." Arranged by Lovan with Soprano obligato by Dorothy Rees.
BARITONE SOLO: "Open the Gates of the Temple," by Ed Taylor.
7:30 P.M. EASTER CHOIR PROGRAM
"PETER AND THE RESURRECTION."
The Story of Easter, as seen by the Apostle Peter, includes 35 mm film strip in full color, varied musical selections, and a narrator.

(Free Nursery Available for All Services)

Ed Taylor, Minister of Music

First Presbyterian Church

8th and HOLLY STREETS

THREE EASTER SERVICES

8:30 • 9:45 • 11:00

GLORIOUS EASTER MUSIC
A CORDIAL CHRISTIAN WELCOME TO ALL
DR. D. K. WEST
PREACHING
"You, Too, Shall Live!"
7:00 P.M. — EASTER EVENING SERVICE
"TILL DEATH DO US PART"