Zion Congregation To Conduct Series

The congregation of the Zion Lutheran church, corner of Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., will celebrate Easter with a series of special services, the first one at 6 a.m.

The early service and the later service at 11 a.m., will be identical services. Pastor G. H. Hillerman's sermon topic will be titled, "Attested Power." The choir will sing, "Break Forth into Joy," by Barnby, and Mrs. Margaret Blaar will be soloist, singing "Art Thou the Christ."

The Intermediate Luther league will attend the early service in a group and then have breakfast together at the C. C. Slessler home.

Sunday school, with a special program, will begin at the usual hour, 9:45 a.m., in the church.

The final service of the day will be the service of Holy communion at 12:15 p.m.

"They BOWED Their Heads and Worshipped"

. . . these Israelites did. And why not? Word had just come that deliverance was at hand.

Ought we not also to bow our heads and worship? A greater deliverance than theirs is for us. The Bible declares that the risen Lord Jesus Christ is able "to save them to the uttermost who come unto "God by Him." Come!

Eagle Point Youth Will Present Spring Investment Program

Eagle Point — A spring investment program will be presented by the young people of the Eagle Point Seventh Day Adventists church Saturday, April 9 at 10 a.m., in the Eagle Point Grange hall.

Individuals and groups representing 16 different families in the area are participating in an investment for missions program. Pledges have been made in chase and from the returns of projects conducted by the individuals or groups. These include proceeds from milk sales, original paintings sold, garden produce sales and other means.

Easter Musical To Be Presented

The Sanctuary choir of the Church of the Nazarene will present Sunday at 7:30 p.m., the Easter musical entitled, "Peter and the Resurrection." In addition to the choir, included is a narrator and a film strip in full color. The musical selections are varied, including words by Teschner, Stebbins, Bach, Palestrina, and Faure.

Mrs. Ethel Kornstad, organist, will present an organ prelude of Easter music prior to evening program. As a part of the prelude, a mixed quartet, with Mrs. Donna Goble as soloist, will sing Rodney's "Calvary." The choir will present an arrangement by Wilson of a familiar hymn, "Hallelujah! What a Saviour."

In the worship hour at 10:50 a.m. the choir will sing a version of the song, "Were You There?" A soprano obligato will be sung by Mrs. Dorothy Rees. Ed Taylor, minister of music, will sing Knapp's, "Open the Gates of the Temple." The Rev. R. W. Hurn will speak on the theme, "An Appointment in the hereafter."
