

Service Weds Jackie Prall, Milo Grubb

Ashland—Of interest in the Rogue valley is news of the wedding March 20 at Salem of Miss Jackie Prall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Prall, Salem, to Milo W. Grubb, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Larkin Grubb, Ashland.

A number of relatives of the bridegroom from the valley, including his parents were in Salem for the wedding.

The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. C. Warren Hoveland of Oregon State college, at First Congregational church.

Music included a solo by the bride's uncle, George Prall of Concord, Calif., and lighting the tapers were the Misses Linda Walls, Seattle and Marianne Beagle, Ashland.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was styled with a lace bodice and full tulle skirt over taffeta and the skirt extended to a chapel train trimmed with panels of lace. Her fingertip veil of tulle fell from a pearl crown and she carried a white orchid and white carnations.

Miss Jane Anderson, Spokane, Wash., was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Billie Jean Beagle, Ashland, and Miss Sandra Scheuerman, Portland. Miss Anderson wore a white lace and net gown over taffeta, and the bridesmaids wore white net over wine taffeta. Their crescent bouquets were of carnations.

Jurhee Zeller, the flower girl, was dressed in a white organdy gown over rose taffeta.

John Grubb, O'Brien, Ore., was best man for his brother. Bob Prall, a brother of the bride, George Goodman of Medford, John Bowne, Oregon City, and Dan Horstkotte, McLeod, Calif., were the ushers.

For the occasion Mrs. Prall wore a mauve suit with pink accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a grey dress with avocado accessories. Both had pink rose corsages.

The reception was held at the church rooms. Those from this area who assisted were Mrs. William Beagle and Mrs. Dick Westerfield, both of Ashland, who cut the wedding cake, and Miss Jeanine Findley, Medford.

The bridegroom's mother arranged the flowers for the wedding and reception.

The couple will live at Corvallis where both will graduate in June from Oregon State college.

The bridegroom, member of a pioneer Jackson county family, attended Ashland schools. He served with the Army of Occupation in Germany after World War II, and before and after that time worked at the Medford Mail Tribune and the Ashland Tidings as a linotypist.

Four generations of the bridegroom's family from Ashland and Medford were at the wedding. They are Mrs. Jack Beagle, Ashland, aunt of the bridegroom, her daughter, Mrs. Steve Whipple, Medford, Mrs. Whipple's daughter, Mrs. Dick Westerfield, and her daughter Nona, age 2, of Ashland.

Baritone to Sing Here on Friday

Stephen Kemalyan, baritone of Armenian descent, who will appear here Friday, April 15, is described in advance press notices as a "phenomenally versatile artist, who has made his mark as a recitalist, symphony soloist, opera star, film artist, oratorio singer and radio and television personality."

He is appearing here as the last artist for the season sponsored by the Civic Music association. The concert will be at 8 p.m., at the Medford senior high school auditorium.

Critics in San Francisco, Hollywood and Los Angeles newspaper columns have described his voice as "sonorous" and "resonant." Alexander Fried of the San Francisco Examiner wrote, "a firm virile voice, while he carried his tone superbly, even thrillingly, into top baritone range, the voice also had true basso darkness and depth... Kemalyan's singing of Lieder showed thought and good taste."

"Perhaps the most outstanding quality of his singing is his ability to project a sustained legato in tones of miraculous smoothness and power," said R. H. Hagan, San Francisco Chronicle.

"Stephen Kemalyan's magnificently resonant baritone and perfect enunciation would seem to be among the things that opera is waiting for. But though of operatic caliber, there was no hint of condescension in the expert way he disposed of 'All Through the Night,' and 'Begin the Beguine,'"—Albert Goldberg, Los Angeles Times.
