PTA Speakers Stress Need For Vocational Training

Speakers at a meeting of Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations in the Applegate school last week were agreed that there is need for more vocational training in the high schools to help prevent drop-outs.

E. A. Vinckel, vocational guidance director of the Medford Senior High school, said that nearly one-third of the students drop out between the sophomore and senior years and that the labor unions have no place for these untrained young people. He listed some causes for these drop-outs as academic failure, early marriages and the parents' attitude toward education; also that the school does not offer what they need.

Mr. Vinckel spoke of the vocational training available to students in Medford High school such as commercial courses, metal and woodworking shops and the pre-employment courses permitting the students to work down town in various businesses to gain first hand experience. He stated that the school does not have an agricultural program which might meet the needs of some in this area. He said that speakers representing various vocations and professions in the community speak to the students and explain their occupations, the educational requirements for same and the opportunities for advancements.

Speakers Named For Meeting of UN Group Here

Mark Goldy, Medford, and Bert Harr, Applegate, will speak for a meeting of Medford branch, Oregon United Nations association, set for Thursday, April 14. It will be held at 8 p.m. in the small auditorium on the ground floor of the courthouse.

Mr. Goldy, president of the Medford Foreign Policy association, will speak on aspects of American foreign policy observed on his recent trip to the orient, and Mr. Harr will tell of his proposed trip to Helsinki, Finland, to attend a world-wide meeting of citizens interested in the promotion of peace and out-laying use of the atom bomb.

Emil Muhs, president of the International Relations' league of Medford Senior High school, Carol Bacon and Marilyn Olson, members, will speak of the IRL program for study of the United Nations.

Bruce Manley, president of the UN group, stresses that the meeting is opened to anyone interested.

New Officers of Zuleima Temple Conduct Meeting

New officers of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, were greeted at a tea which followed the stated meeting last Saturday at Medford Masonic temple. The meeting was the first to be conducted by the newly installed queen, Mrs. Raymond Reter, Medford, and her staff of officers.

An unusual, old fashioned bouquet of spring flowers centered the tea table, and large baskets of Chinese magnolia blossoms decorated the lodge hall. Flowers were provided by Mrs. Howard Bush, chairman of the tea committee.

Assisting Mrs. Bush with arrangements for the event were Mrs. Ron Gandee, Mrs. O. H. Brennenman, Mrs. J. A. Carter, Mrs. J. C. Smith and Mrs. L. P. Walker.

New Officers Elected By PTA Council

Mrs. C. F. Conley, Ashland, was reelected president of Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations at a meeting held last week in the Applegate school.

Others named to office were Mrs. John Benson, Medford, first vice-president; Mrs. Louis Dusenberry, Trail and Mrs. Fred W. Lester, Gold Hill, junior vice-presidents; Mrs. C. C. Squire, Ashland, secretary; Mrs. B. T. Fredenburg, Butte Falls, treasurer; Henry Kamman, Lone Pine school, Medford, school principal.

Mrs. John Carter, former president of the county council, installed the officers. Mrs. Benson was elected a delegate to the state convention to be held in Portland April 26, 27 and 28, and Mrs. Ardry was elected alternate.

Mrs. William G. Ardry, president of Medford PTA council, called attention to the following bills in the Oregon legislature which the Oregon Congress feel should be defeated:

S.B. No. 440 which would limit the amount that a district may authorize in one election which would mean holding two elections in some cases to build one building.

S. B. 441 requiring that 60 per cent of the voters must vote in favor of bonds in an election instead of a majority as it now is.

S. B. 442 would require that 30 per cent of all legal voters must vote at a school bond election and that a majority must vote in favor to carry. Also a resolution which would repeal the right to vote in school elections for all except those who pay their property taxes directly to the county tax collector. This would eliminate about 90 per cent of the small home owners.

Mrs. Ardry urged members to write to the education committee of the Senate at Salem and to local representatives opposing these measures.

E. A. Vinckel, vocational guidance director of Medford Senior High school; Arthur Straus, principal of Crater High school and Mrs. Robert Gass, president of Grants Pass High School PTA, spoke on the problem of students leaving high school before graduation.

Mrs. Edward Nelson, Ashland, reported on the high school service meeting held in Medford March 4. Mrs. Nelson explained that help is available from the Oregon Congress in forming High School PTA units and that cooperation of the school administrators should be obtained before parents are organized.

The meeting opened with songs by the fifth and sixth grades, directed by Ralph Holbrook and Mrs. Benson presented a devotional service. Mrs. Al Bedingfield, Prospect, membership chairman, reported that the total county membership is now 5,799.

A committee composed of Mrs. M. L. Tedrow, Mrs. C. W. Anhorn, Central Point, and Mrs. Treavell Turpin, president-elect of Jackson School PTA, selected the publicity record book of Washington school, Medford, to be sent to the Oregon Congress to be exhibited at the convention.

The Applegate and Ruch units served a luncheon at noon. Arnold Johnson is president of Applegate PTA and Mrs. Barbara Larson is president of Ruch PTA.

Luncheon Planned For Methodists

Miss Laura Heist, retired missionary to India, will be the honor guest at a luncheon to be held at First Methodist church, Medford, Tuesday, April 19 at 12:30. Methodist women from Medford, Talent and Gold Hill are invited to attend this no-charge luncheon, and those who have not yet made reservations are requested to call Mrs. Lionel Rankin, 2-5744.

Miss Heist is a member of First Methodist church, Portland. She went to India in 1921 and served as a missionary there until 1954, when she retired. Her service in India was as a teacher and a village worker; she also managed a boarding student home or dormitory. Her work was in Baroda, and earlier at Godhra.

Miss Heist was graduated from Willamette University in Salem, and taught in the Lebanon and Salem high schools. Before going to India in 1921, she took training as a physiotherapist at Reed college, and during World War I, worked in military camps in the east, also as a physio-
