OFFICER GRADUATES

Henry F. Padgham, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Padgham, Medford, recently was graduated from the infantry school's basic infantry officer course at Ft. Benning, Ga., according to an Army announcement.

Young Padgham, a second lieutenant, entered the Army last November. He is a 1954 graduate of the University of California.

The infantry course is designed for officers who have not served with troops, and gives instructions in the problems of an infantry unit commander.

IN TEXAS

Second Lt. Robert Gray of Medford is stationed at Lackland base, San Antonio, Tex., with the United States Air Force. The young man, who was commissioned and reported for duty Feb. 20, completed his courses for graduation at the University of Oregon just before entering the service.

Lieutenant Gray, a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gray, Cherry lane, will be transferred soon to another base for flight training.

HONORMAN

Carl E. Ellis, a Navy seaman recruit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ellis, 820 Crater Lake ave., has been chosen honorman of his recruit training company at the San Diego, Calif., Navy training center. Honormen are chosen by vote of the company membership on the basis of leadership, sportsmanship, military bearing, initiative, and other requirements.

Chief Cleve King of the Medford Navy recruiting office stated that he is the second young man from this area to receive the honor from among several hundred Jackson county boys who have enlisted in the Navy through the Medford office.

Surplus Butter Purchases Decline

Washington — (U.P.) — The Agriculture Department said today that government purchases of surplus butter dropped 45 per cent in the 1954-55 marketing year ended March 31.

Cheese purchases were down 66 per cent and non-fat dry milk purchases were off 21 per cent for the same period, compared with the 1953-54 marketing year. The department's Commodity Credit Corp. made its 1954-55 purchases under a 75 per cent of parity price support. In 1953-54 price support was at 90 per cent of parity.

Purchases in 1954-55 were butter, 210,700,000 pounds; cheese, 153,300,000 pounds; and non-fat dry milk, 523,200,000 pounds.

Jury Seated for Fong Murder Trial

Portland — (U.P.) — A jury of five men and seven women was seated today for the first degree murder trial of Wey Him Fong and his wife, Sherry. They are accused of the slaying last year of Diane Hank, 16-year-old Portland girl whose body was found near Washougal, Wash.

Circuit Judge Alfred P. Dobson recessed the trial until 9:30 a.m. Thursday after the jury was seated. District Attorney William Langley disclosed yesterday he once acted as defense counsel for Fong.

Effie Hemstreet Funeral Services Will Be Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Effie Lewella Hemstreet, 82, a native of Jackson county who died in a local hospital Monday, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday in Chapel Mortuary, with the Rev. D. Kirkland West, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will be in the Phoenix cemetery.

Pall bearers will be C. L. Hockersmith, Rob Fry, Harry Reames and Fred Fry.

The body will lie in state at the mortuary this evening for those wishing to pay their respects.

Born in Phoenix

The deceased was born in Phoenix on Nov. 16, 1872. She was the daughter of Lewis and Isobel Cover Rose, and the granddaughter of Samuel and Hulda Colver, who built the old Stage House which still stands in Phoenix and who donated the land for the present townsite of Phoenix to Cary C. Taylor in 1892, and in 1926 married Charles H. Hemstreet, who preceded her in death in 1940. She was an active life member of the Presbyterian church.

Survivors include a son, Armond Taylor, Port Orchard, Wash.; a brother, Arthur Rose, Medford; two sisters, Mrs. A. N. Sells, Compton, Calif., and Mrs. W. A. Jones, Pittsburg, Calif.; a half-sister, Mrs. C. C. Cate, Fullerton, Calif.; and a grandson, Armond Taylor Jr., Seattle, Wash.

Highway Billboard Measure Approved

Salem — (U.P.) — The House today passed a measure to regulate billboards along state highways.

The measure is a compromise among three bills introduced by different groups interested in the problem. Rep. George Anala (D-Hood River), chairman of a subcommittee on highways which drew up the bill, said the aim was to provide maintenance standards, eliminate signs of non-existing business and to provide spacing rules.

Signs would be 100 feet apart on one side of the road on limited access highways. On other state highways signs having 65 square feet or less will be allowed every 300 feet with larger signs 500 feet apart.

Motels, restaurants and other roadside businesses would be allowed to advertise within two miles of their building without regard to spacing.

In all three cases, the principal claim by the defendants was the terms of a negligent homicide statute are too vague and indefinite to enable a motorist to know when his driving transgresses the law, and in the Berry and Walker cases the defendants further claimed that a joint indictment was improper.

Driver Training Program Defeated

Salem — (U.P.) — The House today killed a bill for a high school driver training program financed by increased moving traffic violation fines and higher learner permit fees.

Rep. Norman Howard (D-Portland), sponsor of the bill, changed his vote to no after the rollcall to be in a position to ask for reconsideration.

Vote on the measure was 27 to 25 after Howard changed his vote. A bill must receive 31 yeas votes to pass.

Howard told the House the program would result in 33 per cent safer highways in Oregon and ultimately reduce the cost of auto accident insurance.

Edith Green Charges 'Government by Threat'

Portland — (U.P.) — A charge of "government by threat" was hurled against the Eisenhower administration here last night by Rep. Edith Green (D-Ore.).

Mrs. Green said the administration demands that acts be passed "exactly as ordered by the White House. If they are changed we are told they will face a presidential veto," she said.

She spoke to the Labor League of Political Education.

Commission Proposes Sole Sale Restriction

Portland — (U.P.) — Restrictions on the sale of sole as animal food to protect the ocean bottom fish from depletion have been proposed by the Oregon Fish Commission.

The commission, at a meeting of ocean fishermen here yesterday said the mink industry alone purchased 6,200,000 pounds of ocean-caught fish last year. There also was a decline in the catches of Dover, English and petrale sole, the commission said.

The commission proposed to limit sale of the three species of sole as animal food to 15 per cent of any boat's total fish landings on any trip.

United States Population Estimated at 63,367,000

Washington — (U.P.) — The U. S. population, including members of the armed forces stationed overseas, was approximately 163,367,000 on March 1, the Census Bureau estimated today. This represented an increase of 2,825,000, or 1.7 per cent, in 12 months.
